

gren, Professor and Mrs. Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wilson, dean of the women. The lawn was lighted by electricity and an orchestra played during the evening. In the house, the University scarlet and cream were effectively used. The evening was one of great pleasure.

Doctor Robert Bowie Owens of McGill university, visited his friends in Lincoln last week. Last Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gere gave a dinner in his honor. The guests were: Doctor Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. Lyon, Miss Frances and Miss Ellen Gere, Miss Harris and Dr. White. On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ogden gave a lawn supper in honor of the popular and clever Doctor. The guests were the same with the addition of Mrs. Sarah Harris. After the meal which was by way of a high tea, the blindfolded guests played the donkey game. The evening concluded with stories of the wise, quaint, black people of the south, an old-fashioned Roger de Coverly dance, and a spirited cake walk. Doctor Owens left on Tuesday. He has been very successful at McGill and has built up the electrical department to a degree very satisfactory to the Canadians who are hard to suit.

Kappa Theta chapter of Delta Gamma gave a dinner at the home of Miss Starrett on Friday evening in honor of the senior Delta Gammas, Miss Mulliken, Miss Wilson, Miss Woods and Miss Haacker who takes her M. A. Miss Starrett's home is furnished with beautiful rugs, chairs and divans with graceful, quaint contours, but the crowning beauty of the house is the woodwork with its intricacy of design and wonderful polish. The young women sat at a long table which was fresh and lovely with its white and green decorations. The members present besides the guests of honor and Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. Fisher, were the Misses Rice, Gregory, Dennis, Garten, Bridge, Mullon, Welch, Watkins, Dewese, Elizabeth Wing, Haggard, Starrett, Webster, Polk, Mrs. Frank Woode, and Mrs. Edmisten. A dinner of seven courses was served.

Delta, Delta, Delta, gave a breakfast at ten o'clock on Wednesday at the Governor's mansion. The breakfast of four courses was served at small tables on the broad, spacious, white veranda of the Governor's home. Pansies, the sorority flower, were scattered over the table, and as pansies are for thoughts and this was the last meeting of the year, they were especially in keeping with the occasion, which was full of reminiscences of the past year and prophecies for the year to come.

Miss Ura Kelly gives a breakfast at twelve o'clock noon today in Omaha, to announce her engagement to Mr. Ray Welch.

Kappa chapter of Delta Gamma gave a porch party on Friday morning at the home of Miss Garten in honor of the members of T. N. N. The veranda bespoke its festivity by screens, divans, draperies and gay colored cushions. A luncheon was served and the morning breeze blew in the breath of hospitality and good will. The members of T. N. N. are the Misses Daisy Hargreaves, Mabel Muir, Ruth Macfarland, Zelia Cornell, Lelia Hunt, Marie Weesner, Mabel Bennett, Claire Funke, Pauline Meyer and Jessie Outcalt. A syrup frappe was served during the morning.

Miss Pearl Hensel entertained some of the Palladians at her home, 2536 H street, on Thursday evening, May the twenty-fourth. The evening was an exceedingly merry one. The invited guests were: Misses Roper, Sterling, Alderman, Cook, Hearn, Fowler, Blinc, Lowry, Erisman, O'Connell, Henry, Johnston, Duras and Grimison. Messrs. Elliott, Sturdevant, Welch, Rowe, Pearson, Miller, Edgerton, Moore, Hunting, Marsh, Kinker, Roper, Tellen, Anderson and Waterman.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnott C. Ricketts have sent out cards for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Ena Katherine, to Mr. Ernest Clinton Folsom, to occur on Wednesday evening, June the thirteenth, at half past seven o'clock at the First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Stebbins left on Thursday for Stillwater, Minnesota, where she expects to remain several weeks and later she will visit in Muskegon, Michigan.

Miss Alberta Hearn entertained informally on Tuesday evening at her home, 6503 South Eighteenth street. A light luncheon was served. Those present were the Misses Clara Fowler, Alberta Hearn and Pearl Hensel. Messrs. Stanley Welch, Roy Westerman and Edward Rowe.

The members of the L. A. Kensington gave their first out-of-door affair on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Davis. The function was a seven o'clock tea served in six courses. The porch and the green were made light and festive with lanterns. After the tea there were cards and music. Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. Davis were the committee in charge of this, the first outing of the season. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames R. T. Van Bruut, Wendling, Rewick, Billmeyer, Campbell, Gearhart, Chapin, Davis, Kennard, O. N. Humphrey, Hayes, Doctor and Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Pitcher, Mrs. Patrick, Mrs. Caulfield and Miss Weeks of Chicago.

Dr. Jennie Dunn, who has recently located in Lincoln, spent Sunday with her family in Syracuse. The lady is a prominent club worker and a leading member of the Syracuse Woman's club.

Mrs. E. W. Nelson gave a breakfast at ten o'clock Thursday morning. The guests were seated at small tables and the appointments thereof were very pretty. Pink and white roses were on the tables and sideboard and gave a picturesque expression to the occasion. The invited guests were Mesdames F. A. Brown, Doty, Burkett, Foster, Talbot, Sohus, Wells, Steckley, Robbins, F. W. Hill, Watkins, Poynter, W. A. Porter, Harry Porter, Leese, White, Arthur Gleason, Beck, Wolf, Griffin, Berge, Lynch; Misses Tipling and Schwake.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Turner celebrate the fourteenth anniversary of their wedding by a picnic at Lincoln park this afternoon. Those taking part in the afternoon's jollity are Messrs. and Mesdames Martin I. Aitken, Frank Perkins, Fred Hutchins, Norris Humphrey, W. J. Turner, Judge and Mrs. Tibbetts, Mrs. Charles Hall, Camille Hall, and Mr. Burt Hall.

The members of the Monday Night Euchre club gave a dinner at seven o'clock Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garoutte. Dinner escorts were found by means of diamond and clover designs, numbered, red in color for the men and black for the women. The dinner consisted of four courses, and as this was the last meeting of the club for the year, mirth and stories were decidedly the entrees of the feast hour. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Garoutte, W. J. Turner, Sine, Jewel, Hutchins, Whiting, Hitner and Dr. and Mrs. Casebeer. After the dinner euchre was played and the winter's score read. Mrs. Garoutte's score was the highest and Mrs. Turner's second among the ladies, and Mr. Whiting had the winning record for the gentlemen.

At six o'clock on Thursday evening, Mr. Edward D. Hanlon of Hebron, Nebraska, and Mr. Frank Wharton of

A. Herpolsheimer Co

JUNE OFFERINGS—Summer wares of the dependable kind placed on special sale for June and priced as low as they usually are in September.

READY-TO-WEAR GOODS—The balance of the season's stock of all-wool suits at.....HALF OFF
A complete line of white waists and colored lawn and percale waists, assorted colors, $1.25 values, our price, each.....75c
A new line of percale and lawn wrappers, worth $1.25, our price, each.....97c

MILLINERY—Ladysmith hats, trimmed, each.....85c
Sailors in fancy straw, brown and black, each....19c
Assorted lot of street hats, worth $1.50 to $2.50, our price to close, each.....75c
The balance of our season's fine trimmed hats to close at.....HALF OFF

DRESS GOODS—FRENCH CHALLIES—18 pieces all wool, wool mixed and satin stripe challies, new colorings and designs, worth in a regular way 50c to 60c, special price, per yard.....30c
SILKS—34 pieces genuine Khai-Khai corded WASH SILK, all the new color combinations, light and dark, standard value 50c, our special price, per yard.....39c

HOSIERY.	UNDERWEAR.
Misses' tan and black fine ribbed, real Maco cotton hose, double knee, spliced heel and toe, a pair..... 25c	Women's sleeveless vests, without tapes, white, each..... 5c
Women's ribbed cotton hose, double heel and toe, 3 pairs for..... 50c	Women's ribbed sleeveless vests, taped neck and arms, each 9c , or 3 for..... 25c
Men's gray and brown mixed cotton socks, double heel and toe, a pair.... 8c	Women's summer union suits, each..... 15c
	Women's ecru union suits, sleeveless knee length, each..... 29c

DOMESTICS—Light summer percales, 32 and 36 in. wide, worth 10c, our price this week, per yard...4c
Bleached sheets, full size, a pair.....93c
Buggy robes or lap dusters, all linen, fringed, worth $1.00, each.....73c
Same as above in 75c grade, each.....47c

Our Grocery Department pays the highest prices for produce always.

A. Herpolsheimer Co

LINCOLN, NEBR.

Hiawatha, Kansas, left on the six o'clock train for Fairmont, joining there Mr. Hanlon's mother, Mrs. N. D. Hanlon, and his sister, Mrs. W. E. Ellison. Mrs. Hanlon will stop at Ogden, Utah, for an extended visit, while the rest of the party go to Seattle, Washington, and from there sail on Thursday the seventh of June, for the gold fields of Alaska. They will be located for several months, about fifty miles from the coast.

Miss Ruth Raymond gave a dancing party on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Gene Thurston of Omaha. The guests were the Misses Gene Thurston, Grace Thurston, Elsie Fawell, Louise Hargreaves, Leah Meyer, and Ruth Macfarland. Messrs. Wilson Muir, Hayes Tomson, Reed Fawell, Jack Macfarland, Willard Kimball, Charlie Whedon and Thompson.

Alpha Tau Chapter of Beta Theta Pi gave a banquet on Saturday evening in honor of the birthday of the fraternity. The table was charming with its garnitures of blue and white, the Beta colors, and fragrant with roses. Those present were: Messrs. J. W. Robbins of Omaha, Putnam of Kansas