

from ten to twelve o'clock. The morning blew a refreshing breeze about, and it was a pleasure to be out and see one's friends. Mrs. Edmiston was in the reception hall which was most attractive with palms behind which the Ideal Mandolin orchestra played gay airs. In the drawing room were meteor roses and smilax festooned over the mantel and graceful strands wandered over the lace curtains. Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. Yates, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Morrill assisted in meeting and directing the guests to the various rooms. In the library the curtains had graceful loopings of smilax caught with red roses. There were meteor roses here and some of the fragrant summer flowers, sweet peas and nasturtiums. The dining room was brilliant with American Beauties. The sideboard was most effectively draped in green. The table centre was a vase of splendid Beauty roses. Mrs. John Dorgan and Mrs. George Woods served the ice. Cakes and bon bons were also served. Miss Lewis of Kentucky, Miss Burnham, Miss Burnham, Miss Hollowbush and Miss Oakley assisted Mrs. Dorgan and Mrs. Woods. The veranda was charming with gay rugs, chairs, tabarets and cushions. The vigorous, sweet honeysuckles and the gorgeous Rambler roses added a most gala appearance. Mrs. Rector served a fruit punch while people looked around and out between the vines to the pretty vistas beyond. Mrs. Rector was assisted by Mrs. Merrill, Miss Marshall and Miss Riser.

Miss Auld gave a reception on Tuesday evening from eight to ten o'clock in honor of Miss Gertrude Cornell of Knoxville, Iowa. In the reception hall Miss Daisy Bonnell and Miss Seybolt, gowned in white, directed the guests to the receiving party, Miss Auld and Miss Cornell. Miss Auld wore a charming accordion plaited gown of cream silk. The coreage was made with a berth with falling ends. She carried American Beauties. Miss Cornell wore a pretty frock of white organdy over white silk and carried pink roses. The drawing room where the young ladies received was brilliant with meteor roses. In the library and in the morning room where Miss Winifred Bonnell in pink organdy and Miss Powers in white organdy assisted, were many vases of beautiful pink roses. In the dining room also an abundance of pink roses gave delicate color and perfume to the room. The table centre was a large bowl of La France buds reflected by a French mirror. Ices and cakes were served here by Misses Alice Auld, Myrtle Stentz, Georgia Field, Jessie Mosher, Rachel Nicholson and Grace Ernst. The young ladies were gowned either in pink or white. The Ideal Mandolin orchestra played during the evening.

The members of the Kappa Alpha Theta met in honor of Miss Hill at the home of Miss Loomis on Friday evening, June the eighth. On the veranda and lawn were chairs, hammocks and cushions. The out-door world with these added attractions was a most inviting spot. At half past ten o'clock a breakfast of five courses was served in the parlors which were decorated with pink roses. Before the breakfast was ended Miss Woodford in a happy little speech, presented Miss Hill with a beautiful cut glass berry bowl as a gift of love and good wishes from the sorority of Kappa Alpha Theta. Those present were: Mesdames Ladd, Clements, Lyon and Hardy. Misses Hill, Weeks, Woodford, Douglas, Jane Douglas, Cunningham, Macfarland, Carson, Clark, Edgren, Wilson, Agnew, Wiggenhorn, McMillar, Millar, Harper and Loomis.

The Women's Metropolitan Golf League is an organization that has lately been effected in the East. It is said that among the great numbers of women who play, few ever score under a hundred. A brassees is a woman's best club, she knows it, and therefore uses it too constantly. It is a golf proverb that women approach and putt well, that is twenty yards off, but the author of "Drives and Putts" insists that when it comes to the real approach varying from thirty-five to seventy-five yards, women as yet know nothing. This means weakness on the long irons and "every woman who wishes to round out her game and lower her score permanently should concentrate her attention on first her second shot and secondly on her cleek and mid-iron." The man who laid out the grounds in Lincoln for golf purposes, said that he never saw better links. In time the Lincoln links will only be equalled by the matchlessness of its players.

Mrs. Arthur Ray Edmiston and Mrs. Emory C. Hardy gave a "shower" on Saturday morning. The invitations were so worded that the imagination of the invited ones was on the qui vive from the time of receiving the invitation until the time of the function was at hand. The young women present appreciated the thoughtfulness of their hostesses in providing for them though they were not brides of June. The veranda was a gay picture with its low enclosure of rugs, its cushions and divans. A great swinging, Japanese umbrella was laden with interesting, clever remembrances for each guest. Bags holding a valuable amount of paper money were presented to every one in order that she might bid for whatever article the outside personality of which attracted her. Miss Garten made a most inspiring auctioneer. The bidders grew intense and the wildest kind of Leiter-like speculation raged. Miss Houtz held the difficult office of secretary. Mrs. Edmiston and Mrs. Hardy were also showered. Ices, cakes and a fruit punch were served.

Miss Alice Auld gave a trolley party on Friday evening for Miss Myrtle Stentz of Knoxville, Iowa. There was much laughter and fun during the ride over the various lines. After the excursion the party returned to Miss Alice's home, where games and music were enjoyed. An elaborate luncheon was served, which was much appreciated after the open air ride. Those invited were the Misses Jessie Mosher, Rachel Nicholson, Grace Ernst, Marjory Watkins, Georgia Field, Luella Lansing, Edith Compton, Gertrude Friend, Margaret Wharton, Winifred Sherman, Ruth Baker, Annie Jones, Lila Le Gore, Camille Hall, Edith Hainey, Addie Hambleton, Mabel Deputron, Jennie Bishop, Lulu Holmes, Hazel Murray, Mamie Irving, Laura Smith, Ethel Field and Susie Wallace.

On Saturday evening Mrs. Ransom entertained in honor of the fourth anniversary of her marriage and as a surprise to Mr. Ransom. Progressive dominoes were played and Mrs. C. F. McCain was rewarded with a handsome bouquet for her successful score. A three course luncheon was served. Those invited were: Mesdames and Mesdames A. C. Townsend, Somerlad, A. W. Miller, G. I. Smith, C. F. McCain, Mrs. Manley, Miss Thiel of St. Louis, and Mr. G. H. McCain. A number of pretty gifts were presented to Mr. and Mrs. McCain as thoughtful souvenirs of the occasion.

Chapter K. of P. E. O. met with Mrs. C. L. Jones at the Home for the Friendless on Monday evening. Mrs. Axtel gave a report of the meeting of the state convention at Harvard. Mrs. Humphrey of Broken Bow was a guest at the meeting. Ices and cakes were served.

The Unity club gave a coaching party to Ensign's farm on Monday. The eve-

H. Herpolsheimer Co

SUMMER GOWN ECONOMY

Here's a list of some of the leading waist fabrics and a few suggestions about the most popular trimming materials, ribbons and laces. We name only a few fabrics here, as well as a very small portion of our ribbon and lace showings merely to convey to you some idea of what a small amount of money is required to procure a gown rich and dainty enough for anybody and within reach of everybody.

WASH GOODS—French and Scotch Ginghams, per dress pattern..... 65c
 Fine English Dimity, very sheer and cool, per pattern..... $1 50
 Fancy White Goods, worth $2 50, our price, per pattern..... $1 50
 Light Cotton Challies for wrappers, per pattern..... 50c

THE LACES—A large lot of the best imitation Torchon laces and insertions in match sets, worth up to 20c; we bought the lot at a bargain, hence the unusually small price of, per yard..... 5c
 A lot of imitation Val. laces on sale now at, per doz. yds. 15 and 25c
 Excellent values in imitation Val. laces, upward from, per dy. 3 to 25c
 Novelty or Platt Val. laces, 15c goods, to close, per yd..... 5c
 A lot of Swiss and Hamburg embroideries and insertions, to close, per yard..... 6c

THE RIBBONS—Choice colorings in fancy ribbons, 1 1/4 inches wide, per yard..... 10c
 Extra quality corded plaid taffeta ribbons in the season's prettiest color combinations, 2 and 2 1/2 inches wide, per yard..... 20c
 An extra value in plain, double faced satin ribbon, a full line of shades, 5 inches wide, 35c goods, our special price, per yard..... 15c

H. Herpolsheimer Co

ning was delightful for driving. At the farm dancing was enjoyed for several hours. Ices were served during the evening. Those who were of the outing party were: Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Mayer, Henry Mayer, Schlesinger, Kohn of Pueblo, and Mrs. Speier. Misses Franck, Friend, Mayer, Kellner, Elson, Stryker, Schlesinger, Stryker, Schlesinger and Berkson. Messrs. Ach, Blum, Koby, Kolin, Chaim and Janowitz.

Mrs. J. D. Macfarland, Miss Jessie and Miss Ruth Macfarland have gone to Wisconsin for the summer months. They attended the commencement at Kemper Hall where Misses Nancy and Marjory Lambertson were graduated a few days ago.

Miss Denman gave a spider web party Thursday evening in honor of Miss Roberts of Topeka. The webs were wound indoors and out in a very intricate manner and there was much amusement in finding the ways and means of the various threads. At the end of each thread a diminutive Japanese umbrella was attached. Ice cream and cake were served. Those present were the Misses Roberts, Sylvia Beatty, Pearl Hall, Sarah Seybolt, Pearl Powers, Eola Auld, Gertrude Cornell, Celia Loomis, Lottie Enslow, Lillian House, Katherine Hale and Pearl Emerick; Messrs. Roscoe Alexander, Frank Pacal, Joe Pacal, Earl Eager, Roscoe McGrew, Sam Sheen, Roy Finarty, Hugh Hallett, Arthur Beckman, Welden Warren and Verne Hedge.

Mrs. Nance and Miss Nance gave a porch party Thursday evening. Those enjoying the veranda, with its gay adornments, were Messrs. and Mesdames Wright, Tilton, Yates, Edmiston, Frank Woods, Rector, Merrill, Dorgan, George Woods, Mark Woods, Rudge and Dr.

and Mrs. Righter; Misses Burnham, Putnam, Lewis, Oakley, Hollowbush; Messrs. Honeywell, C. Y. Smith, Anderson, Matson Baldwin, Musser, Joyce, Baldwin, Marley, George Holmes and Paine.

A happy picnic party chaperoned by Mrs. George S. Betts spent Friday afternoon and evening in Lincoln park. Those enjoying the picnic were the Misses Sylvia Beatty, Pearl Hall, Sarah Seybolt, Pearl Powers, Celia Loomis, Lillian House, Katherine Hale, Pearl Emerick and Roberts; Messrs. Roscoe Alexander, Frank Pacal, Joe Pacal, Earl Eager, Sam Sheen, Roscoe McGrew, Roy Finarty, Arthur Beckman, Welden Warren, Hugh Hallett Verne Hedge, Betts.

First Church of Christ (Scientist), Fourteenth and K streets, Arthur C. Ziemer, C. S. First Reader. Sunday morning services at 10:30; subject, "Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" The sermon consists of the reading of selections from the Bible and the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health, With Key to the Scriptures." Wednesday evening meeting at eight. The public is cordially invited.

Miss Mabel Johnson, daughter of Mrs. T. M. Johnson, was married on Thursday evening, June the seventh, at eight o'clock, to Mr. Arthur Betz, at the home of her mother. As Miss Tressa Reagan began to play the wedding march, Margaret Metzger and Fay Fischer, two small maidens in white frocks, came down the stairs. Miss Margaret was the ring bearer and Miss Fay carried the bride's bouquet. They were followed by Doctor Long and Mr. Betz. Then came Mrs. Johnson and her daughter, the bride. Miss