

turned Monday morning from a month's camping in the Little Big Horn mountains. The party killed besides fish and game, fifteen big rattle snakes. Miss Ellen Gere discovered the biggest snake of all and has the trophy rattle. When she saw the snake she jumped from her horse and kept it in sight and pestered it with sticks and stones till a snake-killing man could come, and she deserves the rattles.

Married at eight-thirty o'clock on Wednesday evening, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Parks, on F street, Miss Miriam A. Parks to Mr. Charles Frederic Phillips. The officiating clergyman was Doctor Hindman of the First Presbyterian Church. An orchestra played the immortal wedding march from Lohengrin for the bride's approach, and Schubert's serenade during the ceremony. The bride, groom and clergyman stood in a canopy of lace, ferns and palms. The house was filled with roses, and graceful ferns and smilax changed the outlines of furniture and balustrades to the feats of a wedding. The greenish-white light from the chandeliers cast over the guests and the bridal party the faint light of romance. The reception hall was in yellow and green. The dining room was decorated with red and pink roses and carnations and ferns and in its wide doorway hung a wedding bell of golden-rod. After the ceremony the guests were seated at daintily appointed tables and a two course luncheon was served by Misses Mamie Miller, Louise McWhinney, Emma Dalby and Mildred Parks, all in filmy white, as were also Misses Wilma Casebeer and Vera Bignell who admitted the guests at the door and directed them upstairs.

The bride's gown was of white silk, the skirt en train and trimmed with accordion ruffles. The corsage was tucked and worn with a berth. The bride wore roses in her hair. Mr. and Mrs. Phillips have gone to Denver, Manitou, Colorado Springs and other places of interest. They will be at home to their friends at 1645 M street. The guests were: Doctor and Mrs. Hindman, Reverend and Mrs. L. P. Ludden, Mrs. M. E. Phillips, Messrs. and Mesdames W. C. Phillips, S. R. Dalby, H. B. Mosher, H. H. Nicholson, W. H. McCreery, J. F. Hutchins, J. E. Orcutt, Lee Arnett, and F. E. Parks. Mesdames Seacrest, King, J. A. Shaffer of Milford, Nebraska, and Powell. Misses Helen Phillips, Dorothy Phillips, Rachel Nicholson, Louise McWhinney, Emma Dalby, Mamie Miller, Agnes Casebeer, Wilma Casebeer, Ethelyn Bignell, Vera Bignell, Gertrude Morrissey, and Marietta Cook. Messrs. C. S. Smith, A. A. Hadley, Frank Phillips, C. A. Sawyer, G. O. Smith, A. C. Hancock of Ashland, Nebraska, Francis Parks, Eyre Parke and Eugene Parks of Alliance, Nebraska.

Married at Edgar, Nebraska, Miss Iva Howard, only daughter of Honorable E. E. Howard, to Professor William E. Kirk, of the Wesleyan university of Lincoln, on Wednesday. As the clock struck twelve the bridal party entered the drawing room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. The groom was accompanied by Mr. Ralph C. Saxton and the bride by the Misses Osby, Miss Burns of University Place, Miss Jessie Glazin and Miss Viola Kirk. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Scott, assisted by Reverend W. B. Alexander of University Place while Miss Ora Harvard played Schumann's Trauerei. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white crepe tissue over white satin with tulle veil and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaids wore pink and white. The elaborate decorations were pink and white. The bride is a graduate from the Nebraska Wesleyan university. The groom is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and for the past three years has been a member of the Nebraska Wesleyan university faculty.

Mrs. Manning, recently a teacher of oratory at the university intended to leave today for Chicago, where she will enter the university of Chicago for a year's study of oratory and literary interpretation. The influence of Mrs. Manning's instruction upon the voice and delivery of the speech-making undergraduates in the university of Nebraska was very perceptible. In clearness of enunciation, in interpretative and re-enforcing gesture the improvement was noticeable even to those who do not understand the art of making themselves comprehended by an audience. Her instruction was very beneficial and useful to her pupils, a large number of whom expressed their gratitude in a valuable present on the occasion of her departure from the university. In her studies she will be followed by the affection and fervent wishes of the friends she has earned in Nebraska.

The news that the steamship City of Rome has been quarantined at New York on account of the bubonic plague at Glasgow, has alarmed Lincoln people who have friends on the boat. The report was published in some parts of the country that the steamship arrived on Sunday in New York from Greenock, Scotland, and was detained by the quarantine inspector so that an examination of all on board could be made. Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Lahr and family and Professor James T. Lees of the University of Nebraska are among the Lincoln people who are supposed to have sailed on the City of Rome from Scotland.

Married on Wednesday evening, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Rivett, 820 C street, Miss Louise E. Rivett to Mr. Morris J. Fox. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Francis Eason of Holy Trinity church. The bride wore a lovely white organdie gown and carried brides roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Dotty Rivett, carried pink roses. The best man was Mr. A. G. Guthridge, of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox will soon be at home to their friends, at their home on Fortieth and Randolph streets. Mrs. Ross Curtice gave a small reception on Monday from two-thirty until four o'clock, in honor of Miss Margaret Gaylord and her fiance, Mr. Newton of Buffalo. The house was decorated in palms and daisies. The hostess wore a lovely gown of rose colored organdie over taffeta. The invited guests were: Miss Gaylord, Miss Oakley, Miss Hoover, and Miss Hollowbush. Mr. Newton, Mr. Thatcher, Mr. Owen Oakley, Mr. Honeywell, Mr. Joyce and Mr. Butler.

Mr. Ager, has returned from the G. A. R. encampment in Chicago. He says the three hundred Nebraska men carried silk flags in the parade and were constantly cheered by the crowds. It happened that the delegation consisted of 302 men but only three hundred stayed in the parade to the end. The two were Bryan men and thought the constant cheering for McKinley by Nebraska representatives "very discourteous."

Mrs. L. C. Richards gave a dinner on Monday evening in honor of Mrs. McCrosky (born Tremaine) of Buenos Ayres. The table decorations were pink. Covers were laid for twelve. The guests present were: Mrs. McCrosky, Mrs. Whitmore, Mrs. Manning, Miss Tremaine, Miss Hammond, Miss Dennis, Miss Webster, Miss Wing and Miss Herron.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton R. Lee returned on Sunday from Bar Harbor. Mr. Lee

A. Herpolsheimer Co

MR. JEAN ULRICH, in charge of our new dress-making department, has practiced in Paris, London, Vienna, Berlin, New York, Newport, Chicago and other great fashion centers. That his experience is a wide one, and that his knowledge of his art is well nigh perfect, goes without saying. European royalty and American fashion leaders have called his talents into requisition and it was only after great effort and considerable expense upon our part that we were enabled to induce him to try a new field.

The department under Mr. Ulrich's management will accept orders for gowns of every description from the plainly simple to the most elaborate. Tailor-made Costumes, Evening Gowns, Wedding Trousseaus, Riding Habits, etc. It will also make fur garments of all kinds and guarantee perfect satisfaction in every case.

We invite you to come and discuss the new frock with Mr. Ulrich.

New Ready Tailored Garments, New Dress Fabrics, New Millinery, New Gloves—all the new season's new wares in their representative grades and styles—all priced in that usual low manner which has always been a distinctive feature of this store's merchandising.

We're sole Lincoln agents for Butterick patterns and publications.

YUNKA black silks are absolutely guaranteed. Sold only at this store.

The new catalogue will be ready soon. Send in your name for it now.

Mail orders are given every possible care and attention here.

A. Herpolsheimer Co

LINCOLN, NEBR.

was one of the crew on the fast sailing yacht, Why Not, when it won the cup in a thirty mile ocean race off that resort.

Miss Mabel Lindlay gave a noon luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Florence Winger. The table linen was embroidered in geraniums and the same flowers were used in decorating. Those present were: Mrs. H. H. Harley, Mrs. E. C. Hardy, Mrs. E. C. Folsom, Miss Stella Kirker, Miss Gere, Miss Harley, Miss Griggs, Miss Broady and Miss Winger.

The marriage of Miss May Blair to Mr. August Eiche was celebrated on Thursday evening at their beautiful new cottage on South Thirty-fifth street. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend W. K. Williams, brother-in-law of the groom. A bank of palms made an effective background for the bridal party and a profusion of cut flowers adorned the house. The dining room was especially effective in red and white a wealth of cannas, roses and carnations being used on table and buffet. Miss Lillie Eiche played the wedding music on her violin cello and Mrs. Fred Eiche was her accompanist. As the bridal party entered the drawing room the bridal chorus from Lohengrin was played, the service was accompanied by a transcription of one of Schubert's songs and Mendelssohn's march announced the conclusion of the ceremony. Miss Blair's wedding gown was a dainty white silk dimity and she carried a bouquet of clematis paniculata. Punch was served by Miss Blair, a sister of the bride and Mrs. Fred Eiche and Miss Lillie Eiche served ice cream and cake. Mr. and Mrs. Eiche received many beautiful wedding gifts. They will begin housekeeping at once in their attractive new home which they have just built and furnished.

Among those injured by the collapse of a stand at the M street park on Thursday evening were Mrs. Wolcott and Mrs. Irvine. It is feared that Mrs. Wolcott (born Buckstaff) is injured internally. Mrs. Irvine sustained an injury to the ankle.

Misses Joyce Broady and Zelia Cornell gave a dancing party last night at the home of the former. Ices were served during the evening by Misses Vashti Cornell and Mabel Gleason.

Willie Cook of Beatrice is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson.

Miss Helen Hoover is visiting her sister, Mrs. Walsh.

Mrs. A. S. Tibbetts and her sister, Miss Miller, have gone to California.

Miss Richards gives a kensington this afternoon in honor of Miss Eleanor Raymond, Miss Florence Winger and Miss Daisy Miner.

Last Friday Mrs. Jesse A. Pound returned from Chicago.

Mrs. E. L. Hinman gave a one o'clock luncheon on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Doctor Hinman's birthday. The guests were Miss Edith Henry, Miss Florence Winger and Doctor Pillsbury.

Mr. Herbert R. Johnson has returned from Kansas where, for the summer he has been a cartoonist on the Kansas City Journal. He will spend the winter in study at the university.

Doctor and Mrs. Dorris have returned from their vacation spent on the north shores of Lake Superior.

Mrs. Mary A. De Witt has issued in-