On Friday afternoon Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald entertained informally at cards in honor of her guest, Mrs. William Bulger of Chicago. Those present were: Mesdames Bulger, Buckstaff, Brown, Crittenden, Funke, Hargreaves, Tilton, Thompson, Marshall, Wilson, Wright, Leonard, George Woods, Dorgan, Frank Woods, A. S. Raymond, I. N. Raymond, Dayton, Mark Woods, A. E. Hargreaves, Aitkin, Mullon, Curtice, Will Dorgan, Charlie Mayer, Henry Mayer, McMurtry, J. J. Butler, Ogden, Morrison, Oakley, Brock, and Plummer.

Married, on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride, 2932 Dudley street, Miss Leta Brockmeyer to Mr. George J. Brown, by Reverend H. S. Feix. The house was decorated with pink, red and white carnations, palms and other foliage. The drawing room where the bridal group stood was in pink to match the costume of the bride. Her gown was of pink mousselin de soie made over taffeta with garnitures of white lace applique and black velvet and a black velvet sash. Her bouquet was of pink roses. The wedding was attended by relatives only, but a reception to about one hundred and fifty friends was given in the evening. The guests were received by Mr. Brockmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. F. G. Yule and Miss Mary Stevens. Punch and ices were served by Misses Minnie Johnson and Leher assisted by Misses Ellen Fitzgerald, Marie Bowers, Esther Hawley and Minnie Brockmeyer. The bride and groom received many handsome presents, among them a cabinet from the Fitzgerald Dry Goods company, of which firm the groom is an employe, having charge of the advertising department. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on Tuesday evening for Niagara and other eastern points. They will be at home to their friends after October the fifteenth, at their new home 1411 Garden street.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Thompson entertained the Bohemiennes at the last picnic of the season on Wednesday, Mrs. John Fitzgerald offering her beautiful grounds for the occasion. After the supper which was served on the lawn, music was given by the ladies while the gentlemen amused themselves with pool. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Lew Marshall, W. C. Wilson, Edward Fitzgerald, Crittenden, W. B. Hargreaves, Tilton, Buckstaff, F. W. Brown, J. B. Wright, Carl Funke and Leonard. Masters Howard Wilson, Wright, and Miss Crittenden. Mrs. Frank Irvine was unable to be present on account of her injuries.

A dinner was given at the home of Miss Eleanor Dewese on Wednesday evening by the alumnae of Delta Gamma in honor of Mrs. James McCrosky of Buenos Ayres. The gathering was of the nature of a reunion after the summer vacation, as well, and was greatly enjoyed. The table was beautified with pink roses, carnations and artistic place cards, bearing miniatures in water colors, from the brush of Miss Jessie Lansing. The menu was served in five courses. Invitations were extended to Mr. and Mrs. James McCrosky, Mrs. H. J. Whitmore, Miss Tremaine, Mrs. Frank Woods, Mrs. Ray Edmiston, Mrs. Deutch of Beatrice; Misses Lansing,

Watkins, Haggard, Mullon, Wing, Bride, Mulliken, Starrett, Rice, Dennis, Welch, Polk, Webster, Gregory.

On Wednesday a six o'clock luncheon was given to the alumnae chapter of the Delta Gamma fraternity by Miss Eleanor Dewese at her home on the corner of Sixteenth and J streets in honor of Mrs. McCrosky of Buenos Ayres, a former student at the university. The decorations were pink roses and carnations. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. McCrosky, Mesdames Edmiston, Frank Woods, and Whitmore. Misses Mary Tremaine, Bridge, Wing, Mulliken, Mullon, Haggard, Watkins, Lansing, Welch, Gregory, Webster, Polk, Dennis, Rice and Starrett.

Miss Towne and Miss Emerson chaperoned this party of High school young people for a wheel ride and a picnic at Branson's grove on Saturday: Misses Luella Lansing, Lulu Abbott, Harriet Hutton, Ethel Ames, Iaez Everett, Ruth Bell, Nellie Ludden, Carrie Ludden, Margaret Wharton, Bessie Wharton, Flossie Erford, and Edna King. Messrs. Harry Wharton, Ralph Hutton, Andrew Hutton, Carl Stein, Charlie Mathewson, Ira Humphrey, Harry Hartley, George Woods, James Hickey, Mason Wheeler, Clarence Johnson, Frank Johnson and Archie Sears.

Miss Marion Hall, just turned five years, with the aid of her mother, celebrated the anniversary by a party last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Hall was assisted by Misses Foster, Harper, Loomis, Harmon of Tecumseh, and Bren of St. Louis. The children present were: Gertrude Rehlaender, Cecilia Ward, Eleanor and Esther Bennett, Hillary and Phoebe Folsom, Marjorie Cobb of Texas, Norman and Helen Curtice, Lionel and Elmer Henkle, Sarah Ladd, Harriet Chapin, Sarah Risdon, Hugh Hindman, Margaret Mitchell, Edward Westerveldt, Jesse Moore, Annette and Florence Peters, Vail and Harry Babcock, Katharine Yates and Helen Hall.

Mrs. W. J. Bulger and daughter Anne, of Chicago, are visiting Mrs. John and Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald. Mr. Bulger will arrive tomorrow. It was Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald who drew a brass rod on a burglar and frightened him into hysterics and out of the house, clasping to his panic-stricken chest most of Mr. Linneen's and Mr. Wehn's jewelry. Mrs. Edward Fitzgerald is a petite, gentle-voiced woman, not of the sort you would select for a burglar alarm, but she is spirited. The burglar got away with the jewelry.

Miss Alberta Spurck, class of 1900 of the University of Nebraska, went to Tacoma, Washington, last week. She will take charge of the physical culture of the young women in the Annie Wright seminary, the Episcopal school for young women. Miss Spurck specialized in this department of the university and has since taken a course in physical education at Chautauqua, New York. Her appointment to the position from a large number of applicants is a credit to Miss Spurck and the physical culture department at the university.

While enroute from Lincoln to Chicago, a young woman was accosted by her neighbor, a man in the seat across the aisle. He asked her how much
