FAMOUS' AUTUMN
MILLINERY DISPLAY.

We have secured the services of Mme. Detmaurice, who was for years, European and resident buyer and manager of a celebrated millinery house of New York City, for our work room and store. Mme. Detmaurice has brought her experience to bear in the selection of the most beautiful of goods, with the result that we have the pleasure of inviting our patrons to see the loveliest of millinery creations it was ever our privilege to show, calling especial attention to our own importation of Pattern Hats, direct from Paris. Every lady in Lincoln should make it a point of seeing them, and our magnificent line of millinery and trimmed hats from our own work rooms.

A Superb Display of the Celebrated Knox New York, Ladies' Felt Hats and ready-to-wear Hats.

Except for the hospitable celebrations have been with her most of 'the summer, and her sister who has been with her the past year, return to England in a fortnight. Mr. Webster is favorably impressed with Nebraska and the west, and if he were a younger man would settle in Nebraska.

On Tuesday afternoon Delta Delta Delta fraternity gave a very delightful party at the home of Miss Mamie Miller, 1720 G street. The house was beautiful with scarlet and cream roses, which colors predominated in all except one room, which was in fraternity colors, pale blue, gold and white. The game Philopena, occasioned much merriment. Prizes were won by Misses Loomis and Roberts. After the game a delicious luncheon was served. Those present were: Misses Koehler, Nan Cunningham, May Davenport, Winifred Bonnell, Eugenia Mackin, Auld, May Geary, Edna Gund, Pearl Powers, Adina Cady, Elizabeth Cunningham, Clare Mackin, Nan Frankish, Daisy Bonnell, Katharine Lumery, Roberts, Loomis, Mitchell, Du-Tiel, Josephine Poynter, Maxie Ames and Mrs. James Manahan.

Invitations have been issued for the reception by the president, Mrs. Edward Lewis Baker, to members of the Matinee Musicale, for Monday, October the first, from three to five o'clock, at Walsh Hall, corner of Twelfth and N streets. The season of 1900-1901 will be inaugurated on this occasion by a short program which will be rendered by Mr. Clement Shaw and Mrs. A. L. Sheetz of Omaha, and Miss Marie Hoover of this city. As the list of names and addressees of members of the club is by no means complete, it may be that cards have failed to reach some. The invitation however, is extended to all active, associate, chorus and student members, as well as to those who have signified their intention of joining the club in anyway.

This is the flowering time of the fraternities. All are active and some of them especially active. The Kappa Alpha Theta is the only fraternity which has a formal pledging ceremony. In this respect it is like the continental betrothal ceremony which is quite as solemn and formidable as the actual wedding of what the daily newspapers still call, "the high contracting parties." Monday noon Miss Ruth Macfarland, Miss Abbie McHenry of Dennison, Iowa and Miss Janie Douglas of St. Joseph, were pledged to the Kappa Alpha Thetas in their new chapter house, the Cobb homestead on R street. On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Belcher gave the fraternity a trolley party in the car Oneta. Supper was served by Mr. and Mrs. Belcher at their home. Last week a beautiful green and white luncheon was given as a house warming by the chapter in its new quarters. The parlors were filled with American Beauties and the dining room was in green and white. On Saturday the same young women gave a chafing dish party, and on Thursday a morning kensington.

Mrs. Grainger gave a very delightful afternoon on Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Webster, who is visiting her from Manchester, England. A young ladies mandolin quartette played through the afternoon while the guests were kept busy with guessing games. Mrs. Grainger's guests were: Mesdames George Clark, O'Connell, Mille, C. I. Jones, Huntsinger, Daemen, Lees, Winger, H. B. Grainger, Evans, W. C. Phillips, Ed Ewing, Stearns, Crittenden, Bert Richards, Simpkins, Piper, Steckley, Wells, England, Foster, Winnett, Hurd, Greenamyer, Babcock and Rathburn. Misses Mae Burr, and Johnson. Mrs. Grainger's father and mother who

Miss Hollowbush entertained the Kismet Club on Friday evening in her inimitable way. After the game she served lunch of pie, doughnuts, wiener-wurst, sandwiches cheese and coffee, in lunch counter fashion, even to the lunch counter stools. The dining room was decorated with posters. The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Van Ripper, Mark Woods, George Woods, Frank Woods, Curtice, Crancer, Morrison, Kelley, Howe, Rector, Merrill, Mullen and Fitzgerald. Misses Putnam, Carson, Hoover, Marshall, Oakley and Burr. Messrs. Butler, Joyce, Thatcher, Lansing, Honeywell, Grant, Montgomery, Holmes and Baldwin.

Mrs. A. E. Hargreaves gave a card party on last Saturday afternoon to the Kappa Kappa Gammias. Miss Laura Houtz and Miss La Salle cut for the prize, the latter winning. The house was elaborately decorated with American Beauty roses and palms. Misses Ruth Raymond, Elsie Fawell, Gladys Hargreaves assisted in serving refreshments, after which all joined in singing the Kappa songs.

The active chapter of the Kappa Kappa Gamma with the alumnae, entertained the new pledged members with a trolley ride and a chafing dish party at Miss Mabel Hayes, after the ride, on Wednesday evening. The guests were: Misses Richards, Whiting, Clara and
