

Mitchell and Mrs. E. P. Brown. The musical program was given by Mrs. Clement B. Shaw of Omaha, Miss Marie Hoover and Miss May Bell Hagenow, with Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond as accompanist. Mrs. Baker prefaced the program with a brief talk, in which she spoke hopefully of the club's outlook. Already more than twenty-five new associate members are enrolled also a number of new student and chorus members. These additions will bring the club membership up to one hundred and eighty or more, the largest in its history. Mr. Shaw was heard with interest, as this was his first appearance before a Lincoln audience. He has a baritone voice of great power which he handles with apparent ease. Many favorable comments were heard with regard to his singing. Miss Hoover's marked ability as a pianist is so well known it is scarcely necessary to reiterate what has been many times repeated but she was at her best Monday and played her two short numbers with true artistic feeling. Many of those present heard Miss Hagenow in solo Monday for the first time and were gratified to know that a player of great promise is added to the young violinists of this city. Miss Hagenow pleased her listeners by responding to an encore. The accompaniments were played with Mrs. Raymond's accustomed skill and taste. The program:

Bass Solo—"The Curfew," Monk Gould. Mr. Clement B. Shaw.

Piano (a) The Fauns, (b) Pierette, Chaminade. Miss Marie Hoover.

Song of Hybris, Elliott. Mr. Shaw. Violin—Souvenirs de Bade, Leonard.

Miss Mae Belle Hagenow.

Songs—(a) The Ring, (b) Once Again, (c) Bedouin Love Song, Hawley. Mr. Shaw.

Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond, accompanist.

After the music the guests were presented to Mrs. Baker and the performers by Mrs. A. S. Raymond and Mrs. J. W. Winger. Pink ices, snowballs and sweet wafers were served in the dining room by Mrs. D. M. Butler, assisted by Misses Cook, Childs, Haywood, Hoover and Givens. The table decorations were also pink, the central light being a candle stick from an old altar in Porto Rico. The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks, when a program of wedding music will be given by the first division, Mrs. A. W. Jansen and Miss Annie Miller leaders.

Mrs. Harry Evans gave a children's party on last Monday to celebrate the sixth birthday of her sister Alice Brooks. The children had a glorious time with games, chief of which was a cake walk in which Katherine Atwood and Harriet Chapin won prizes. Light refreshments were served. As souvenirs the little guests secured Japanese boxes filled with confections from a grab bag and just before going home they marched past a table where each was handed a carnation. Miss Alice received many pretty gifts from her friends. Those present were: Misses Julia and Katherine Atwood, Leah Van Riper, Vandenberg, Sarah Ladd, Gertrude Rehlaender, Lillian, Harriet and Helen Chapin, Agnes Bartlett, Helen Rudd, Clara Hill, Margaret Freeman, Emma Peterson, Genevieve Weesner, Helen Mitchell and Helen Hirschberger. Masters Earl Wilson, Howard Wilson, John and Charles Wright, Russell Vandenburg, Howard Freeman, Van Riper, Harley Brown and Earl Hirching.

On Saturday evening Miss Hazel Benton gave a masquerade at the Lincoln hotel in honor of her guest, Miss Margaret Tutt of Los Angeles, California. Mrs. T. H. Benton and Mrs. C. D. Mullen were the chaperones. The dining hall was used for dancing and the ordinary for refreshments. The costumes worn by the dancers were beautiful and original. Miss Benton wore a gypsy costume and Miss Tutt represented a Spanish dancer. Those present were Misses Jeanette Palmer, Zelia Cornell, Florence Parks, Ethel Bignell, Agnes Casebeer, Wilma Casebeer, Mattie Woodworth, Annie Jones, Leah Meyer, Cora Herrick, Ruth Baker, Edna Baker, Eva Hibner, Mary Minor, Louise Hoover, Helen Laws, Julia Deweesee; Messrs. Marie Rathburn, Jack McConiff, Will Jacobs, Harry Melick, Reed Farrell, M. M. Kerr, Chester Parks, Carl Giffen, Earl Hubbard, Aldis Hibner, Hayes Thompon, Harold Culbertson, William Cunningham, Howard Dearing.

Married, at the East Lincoln Baptist church on Tuesday at high noon, Miss Lena Crawford to Mr. Walter C. Bouton of Tecumseh, Reverend L. M. Denton officiating. The bridal party entered the church to the rhythm of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. H. O. Manning and stood under a wedding bell of maiden hair fern and delicate white flowers for the ceremony. Many palms and masses of ferns beautified the church. The bride's gown was of white brocaded silk and the bouquet of American Beauties. The bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Crawford, wore pink silk veiled with pink organdie. Mr. Nye Hassett of Tecumseh was best man and the ushers were: Mr. H. T. Brown and Mr. Zellen Zediker. After the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served to thirty relatives and out of town guests at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Crawford, 2307 North Twenty-third street. Mr. and Mrs. Bouton received many beautiful presents. They left on the evening train for Kansas City and will be at home at Tecumseh after October the fifteenth. Out of town guests who attended the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bouton, Mrs. Clotfelter, Mrs. and Miss Rosencrans, Mr. Dew and Miss Dew all of Tecumseh, and Mrs. Hedrick of Omaha.

Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kelley of Omaha, announcing the marriage of their daughter Ura, to Mr. Raymond Welch of Omaha. The wedding ceremony will be solemnized in Trinity Cathedral. Officers of the Union Pacific have sent a massive service of silver to the bride whose father is the attorney for the road. Miss Kelly is a charming, unspoiled young woman who has been polished by much foreign travel and a born capacity for culture.

The first meeting for the year of the W. T. M. was held at the home of Mrs. Hall, 2808 Q street, on Friday afternoon, September the twenty-eighth. Each member responded to her name with jokes, stories, instrumental music and poetry. Among the most amusing numbers of the afternoon was "The First Lesson in School" by two ladies, and the rendering of a Chinese song by three ladies dressed in Chinese costumes. The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Evans, Hill, Gentzler, Compton, Lane, Gore, Weidner, Sherdenan, Crow, Scott, Chase, Elmen, Hall, Hase, Laesch and Burr. The meeting adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. Bartlett, 128 South Twenty-eighth street on Thursday, October, the eleventh, members to be prepared with quotations from Longfellow.

Miss Alice Hargreaves left last week for a visit in the east. She expects to be gone a month and will visit Miss Barber at St. Charles, Illinois, and will also spend some time in Chicago.

Last week Miss Margaret Hargreaves entertained a few friends for her sister Alice, prior to her departure for a visit in the east. Among those present were: Misses Nita Hyde, Eva Allen, May Kel-

BUY YOU

CLOAKS, FURS AND DRESS GOODS

Fitz Gerald
DRY GOODS CO.

In fact, do all your trading with Lincoln's Fastest Growing Dry Goods establishment—if you would save your pocketbook. Special Sales will always be found quoted under this Trade-Mark. Do you wish for a strictly High Grade Nobby Jacket at a cheap jacket price? If so, order this one.

This Ladies' Jacket, made of the finest Imported Kersey cloth—style of cut—21 in. long, lined with best quality solid color satin—dip front, flare collar and lapels, trimmed with mirrored velvet, tailor-stitched collar, cuffs, lapels, front and all around skirt—comes in colors: black, castor, tan and Pearl, in all sizes, only..... $13.98

Visit our complete China Department. Just received two casks fine imported china Dinner Sets in exquisite decorations and on pretty new shape—in pink, blue and lavender colors, $25.00 values, special opening price, 100 piece sets for..... $17.50

Other sets, $4.98 to $50.00.

Just opened up a brand new stock of the latest effects in leather goods. Pocket Books, Purses, Shopping Bags, Belts, etc., etc. We want you to see them.

Our stock of Trimmings is now complete.

Every necessity can now be found on our counters.

Fitz Gerald
DRY GOODS CO.

LAWYERS-- Send The Courier your LEGAL NOTICES

files are kept in fire proof buildings.

Iey, Irene Kelley, Mabel Gritzner, Jo-guests were. Mesdames Park Garoutte, hanna Koerner, Emma Schidlowski, A. R. Mitchell, Maurice Deutsch, Fred Margaret and Alice Hargreaves. Meesra. Jewell and H. M. Casebeer.

Ellis Johnston of Pawnee City, Nebraska, Roscoe Carnahan, Charles Parker, Joe Griffen, Frank Phillips, Harry Grace, Walter and Charles Hargreaves.

If you are not wearing Sorosis Shoes, you are missing a luxury within your reach. Worn by the leaders of fashion, and without question the most elegant in shape, the most beautiful in appearance and the most comfortable shoe ever offered womankind. Ask for "Sorosis," for sale only by Webster & Rogers, 1043 O street.

The Delta Gamma sorority has pledged the following young ladies: Misses Louise Tukey, Hortense, Clark, Abbie Bowen of Omaha, Marie Weener, Lela Hunt, Jessie Moore and Belle Hamilton.

Miss Edith Lewis, now an undergraduate of Smith college has been elected to one of the two literary societies. She was one of the first three chosen and as very few out of the twelve hundred or more students can be chosen annually, Miss Lewis' selection is a very great tribute to her ability, scholarship and talent as well as to her capacity for making friends.

Mr. D. G. Wing has been elected vice president of the Massachusetts bank, one of the largest and most impressive institutions in Boston. It is not a surprise, but it is a delight that Mr. Wing's financial acumen has been so quickly recognized by the most fastidious and particular men in the world—Bostonians

Gregory, The Coal Man, 11th & O.

Mrs. L. W. Garoutte gave an informal dinner last Monday evening. The

Died—In Rochester, New York, on October the second, Judge I. W. Lansing, of Lincoln. He had been ill for a day or two but his family were unaware of his illness and were totally unpre-