SOCIETY

The old rose point of society this week has been the meetings of the federated clubs of the state. The town has been filled with a pleasant, genial excitement and many a hearth has found a new friend. Papers upon a variety of subjects, pictures, music and bric-a-brac have been the morning and evening menus. However, by no manner of means, have these good tidings of intellectual prosperity been allowed to go unaccompanied by merriment and feasting. A reception, breakfasts, lunches, teas and dinners have all done their part towards the general gala of the week.

On Wednesday evening a reception was given at the Governor's mansion by the Lotos and Fortnightly clubs in honor of the delegates and visitors attending the Federation meetings. An abundance of flowers added much to the regalia of the apartments, as did also the many handsome frocks. Mrs. Barbour met the guests and presented them to Governor and Mrs. Poyater, who were assisted in receiving by Mesdames Decker, Apperson, Bushnell and Stoutenborough. Among those assisting in the various rooms were: Mrs. Henry E. Lewis, Mrs. Charles H. Gere, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. Field, and Miss Harris. In the dining room the color idea was pink, a lovely shade of pink. The table was charmingly arranged and ices were served by Mrs. Ogden and Mrs. Lyon. They were assisted by Mrs. Folsom and Mrs. Peterson, Miss Poynter, Miss Ellen Gere, Miss Frances Gere and Miss Weeks, who were gowned either in white or pink. During the evening a thousand or more guests were received and made welcome at the executive mansion.

Mrs. L. C. Richards gave an elaborate dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Decker of Denver. The guests gathered in the noble court of the Richards home before and after the dinner. This court with its surrounding balconies and height is an important contribution to the few architectural treasures of Nebraska, and the conception of its real distinction contributes to the satisfaction of all guests. The dinner was a perfectly served triumph of the chef. The guests seated around a bowl of pink roses and ferns were: Mesdames Decker of Denver, Cady, Wilson of St. Paul, Nebraska, Clara Reynolds, A. J. Durland of Norfolk, C. H. Gere, A. C. Ricketts, W. G. L. Taylor, I. S. P. Weeks, Henry E. Lewis, H. H. Wilson, E. H. Barbour, A. W. Field, F. L. Wharton and Miss Harris.

Mrs. Allen W. Field gave a luncheon on Wednesday to the women who attended the Milwaukee biennial last June. The chosen color of the Federation, corn color, gave a joyous, gleeful expression to the rooms. The guests were seated at small tables effective with roses, asters and bon-bon boxes tied with the prevailing color. The guests were: Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker of Denver, guest of honor; Mesdames Apperson of Tecumseh, Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth, A. C. Ricketts, Grothman, Herford, Monnette, Smith, M. D. Welch, C. H. Gere, E. H. Barbour, Eli Plummer, Buckstaff, F. E. Labr, H. P. Evans, Andrews, Tilden, Clark, Cady, Dickinson, Scott, Carscadden, Hainer, Page and Doane. Misses Howell, Haskell, Miller, Fuller, Wilson and McDowell.

Mrs. Henry E. Lewis gave a breakfast at eleven o'clock on Thursday. The absence of Miss French was deeply regretted, but nevertheless the time went happily and quickly. The pleasantry and wit of Mrs. Decker gave an added charm. Then it is always a pleasure to be at Mrs. Lewis' and it is a pleasure also to sit in that dining room with the Gothic shaped windows and the sparkling panes of glass. There were flowers and a delightful menu. Those present were: Mesdames Decker of Denver, Apperson of Tecumseh, Davis of Omaha, Gere, Sawyer, Lambertson, Outcalt, Brooks, Taylor, Watkins, Ricketts, Weeks, Richards, Rhodes, and Welch. Misses Harris, Wing and Harwood.

From the Seward Blade of October the third, we clip the following account: Miss Winifred Margaret Cattle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cattle, was married this morning at her home to Mr. Byron Rufus Newton of Buffalo, New York. Misses Ella Dovey and Gwendoline Cattle held ribbons to form the aisle through which the bridal couple passed to the bay window in the front parlor. This was hung with smilax and white roses and banked with palms. The ceremony was performed by Reverend John Gallagher assisted by Reverend J. P. Roe of Omaha, an uncle of the bride. The bride was gowned in an imported mousseline de soie, made over white silk embroidered in white roses. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The bride has resided nearly all her life in Seward and social circles will sadly miss her. The groom who is so fortunate is the secretary of the Pan-American exposition of Buffalo and spent a year in Cuba with Colonel Roosevelt. Mr. and Mrs. Newton will depart for an extended wedding tour today and on their return they will be at home to their friends in Buffalo, New York. Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Hargreaves and Miss Lillian Hargreaves of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Dovey and the Misses Dovey of Plattsmouth, and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Roe of Omaha.

Mrs. Montmorency and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Montmorency of Omaha, have returned to Mexico after a delightful three months spent in visiting old friends in the United States. It is probable that they will permanently remain in Mexico with Mr. Arthur Montmorency, who holds a fine position there. Mr. Montmorency was a well known university student of the ninety somethings. He was a very bright student and is a successful civil engineer in Mexico.

Mr. David Linneen of Chicago delightfully entertained a party of friends at dinner at the Omaha Club Monday evening of last week. The party included Mrs. W. J. Bulger of Chicago, Miss Anna Bulger of Chicago, Mrs. D. E. Thompson, Mrs. E. J. Fitzgerald, Miss Lillian Fitzgerald, Mr. G. W. Sues, and Mr. John T. Donnell. The out of town visitors were a Bellstedt concert party.

Mrs. Charles D. Mullen entertained a large number of friends at six handed euchre on Thursday afternoon. The
