

archings were hung with brilliant red, black eyed poppies. The chandeliers also were poppy hung and the mantle was banked with them. Red carnations added color to the rooms and spice to the atmosphere. Miss Alice Cowdery bore away the honors of the afternoon, receiving the first prize, a hand decorated ink-stand. Mrs. Rudge received the second prize, a picture. The color idea was carried out in the ices, cakes and bon-bons that were served.

Mrs. F. M. Crowe of 2808 Q street, entertained for her friend, Miss Gillon of Hastings, on last Friday evening. Those present were: Misses Ida Johnson, Dauman, Ida Bell, Ollie and Iva Watson, Cotten, Humphrey, Jessie Moore, Duckworth, Lelah Folts, Ida McFall, and Florence Wescott. Messrs. Philpott, Cochran, Keneagy, Paine, Sabin, Folts and Doctor Woodward.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. W. B. Cummings invited a gay company of masters and maidens to celebrate the fourth birthday of her son Burnie. Miss Lottie Brockmeyer and Miss Lulu Goetney kept the small people pleasantly occupied with games and stories. Later in the afternoon Mrs. Cummings assisted by her sister, Miss Walz of Havelock, served a dinner to the joyous boys and girls. Those present were: Stewart and Johnnie Creighton, Walter and Frank O'Malley, Jimmie and Archie Maxwell, Carl and Letta Munson, Iroby and Corona Omsler, Verda Taylor, Marguerite Moore, Irene Munson, Erma Heimer, Henrietta Frintz, Ray Walker, Burnie and Robert Cummings.

Mrs. W. H. Alexander and daughters and Miss Burnham, after three weeks' touring in Holland and the Harz mountains, have secured apartments in Dresden, and with Miss Huntington of Cincinnati, Ohio, who joined the party en route, will take up their abode for the winter in that delightful city. Their address will be Stephanien Strasse, No. 1, I Links, Dresden, Germany.

Saturday October the sixth, the following ladies were bidden by Mrs. F. E. Campbell to her home in honor of Mrs. J. H. Miller, who soon goes to make her home in Washington: Mesdames Miller, Hodgman, George Waite, W. H. McCreery, W. H. Hindman, T. C. Munger, C. E. Loomis, J. E. Hill, Harry Campbell, and Gilmore of Auburn. Misses Kyle, Irwin and Pierce.

Miss Ida May Forsyth of San Francisco, is the guest of Mrs. Angie F. Newman. Miss Forsyth has just returned from Europe. Previous to this she has been in Honolulu where she was superintendent of the Buena Vista Military Hospital. She was also in charge at Montauk when 25,000 sick soldiers were brought from Cuba. Miss Forsyth has a fine record ranking with Miss Wheeler, daughter of the Famous Joe Wheeler.

Mrs. William Jennings Bryan gave an informal reception on Wednesday afternoon to all of the women in attendance at the convention. This courtesy of Mrs. Bryan was highly appreciated as so many were anxious to meet her. About two hundred ladies were cordially received and made welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Mullen entertained the Kishmet club last evening. The gay decorations, the game, the good fellowship made the few evening hours pass quickly. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Dorgan, George Woods, Frank Woods, Morrison, Rector, Merrill, Fitzgerald, Curtice, Kelly, Crancer, and Helwig. Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. Benton. Misses Burr, Nance, Oakley, Hoover, Putnam, Carson, Hollobush, Marshall, Gertrude Aitken

A. Herpolsheimer Co

THESE THREE JACKETS are shown here to demonstrate to you the actual money-saving possibilities presented by our season's showing, for the whole stock, from beginning to end, contains just such values as these. The finest grades are priced at just such unusually low figures. The three numbers above are the best values for the money that can possibly be had. They are perfectly made—following tailor-made lines most carefully—they are made of good qualities of dependable materials and could not be more stylishly cut and finished were they priced at four times these figures.

No. 533 is made of Washington Mills Kersey, lined with Romanie lining, several rows of stitching all around garment, price..... $7.50

No. 607 is made of beaver, lined with Mercerized lining, trimmed with satin and braid applique, price..... $5.00

No. 600 is made of beaver, lined with Mercerized lining, solid stitching all around garment, price..... $5.00

All of these come in assorted colors—the popular shades.

A. Herpolsheimer Co

LINCOLN, NEBR.

and Grace Aitken. Messrs. Honeywell, Montgomery, Stewart, Thatcher, Joyce, Butler, Grant and Toli of Omaha.

Miss French, (Octave Thanet) brought great pleasure to the Federation meeting by her unexpected arrival in Lincoln on Friday morning. Miss French's telegram received on Tuesday stating that it was impossible for her to be in Lincoln was a keen disappointment. Her strong personality, her wit and her intellect have long been a factor in the literary and moral world. That it was possible for the delegates and visitors to the Federation and for Lincoln people to hear Miss French speak, was an inspiration, the wholesome of which will long make itself felt.

Mrs. M. D. Welch gave a dinner Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Decker of Denver. American beauties filled the house with fragrance and presided at the board where a dinner of many courses and rare good things was served. The guests were Mesdames Decker, Bryan, Poynter, Apperson and Arup of Tecumseh, Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth, Draper-Smith of Omaha, Tilden, president of Omaha Woman's Club, Tilden of Omaha, Lewis and Ricketts.

Mrs. B. C. True, Miss Jessie E. Pollock of Tecumseh, and Mrs. Mortensen and son, of Ord, are guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Babcock.

Miss Welch has been in Omaha the greater part of the week attending lunches, teas and dinners given in honor of Miss Kelley, whose marriage to Mr. Raymond Welch occurs next week.

Gregory, The Coal Man, 11th & O.

Mrs. A. H. Mendenhall returned on Tuesday from a visit in Illinois.

Mrs. James H. Stephens will entertain at cards this afternoon in honor of Mrs. R. B. Wilson of Omaha.

On Sunday afternoon Rabbi Simon of Omaha, solemnized the marriage of Miss Alyne Friend and Mr. Levy of Hastings, at the home of Mr. Morris Friend, brother of the bride.

We are agents for the Victor Instantaneous Water Heater. Call and see them. Kormeyer Plumbing and Heating Company.

On Thursday, October the fourth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Crandall, Mr. Oscar Bauman of Waverly, and Miss Marie Raphael were married.

Mrs. John T. Dorgan has gone to Chicago and will return the latter part of the week, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson returned Thursday, October the fourth, after a delightful visit in Michigan cities.

Miss Nora Turner of Portland, Me., is a guest at the home of her brother, Mr. Charles W. Turner, 1421 C street.

Mrs. Walsh, (born Oakley) is the guest of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Oakley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson returned last week from a visit with friends and relatives in Michigan.

Mr. Blake of Burlington was in Lincoln the first part of the week.

On Saturday, October the sixth, Mrs. W. E. Kirker gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. G. W. Cochran of Los Angeles.

Les Bohemiennes met with Mrs. Buckstaff on Wednesday. A luncheon of delicate plats was served.