

from agate iron ware, didn't she?"
 "Now, Henry—"
 "Didn't she?"
 "Not exactly."
 "I knew it! She'll take perfect delight in telling everyone that we can't afford a measly den, and that I wouldn't recognize one if it grew out on the lawn."

"Now, Henry!"
 "Mrs. Badger, we'll have a den that'll make old Fadder's look like a second-hand rag store. I'll send up men tomorrow to lay a parquetry floor over the entire attic, to diamond-pave the windows, to drape the place with stuffs from Hullahaloo and the Isle of Kerfoozilum, to spread priceless rugs, to hang costly lamps, to furnish the place with inlaid tabourets, narghiles, old weapons, queer tea sets and curios. And I'll have the incense fumes so thick we'll need a compass in order to cross the room."

"But, Henry—you forget the expense!"
 "Mrs. Badger, there's such a thing as being parsimonious—stingy—miserly in household affairs. We've got a fine house, and we've furnished it well—now, we're not going to spoil it by being without a den. A home without a den is like a—er—why, it's absurd to think of it! I intended to build one from the start, but I've been too busy to attend to it."

Mr. Badger looked at his watch and pushed back his chair.
 "If you'll meet me at one o'clock at Vanein's," he concluded, "we'll pick out some hangings and grille. And, remember, you're not to mention the word 'expense' again. If we must stint, I rather think it'll be on something other than a den."—Town Topics.

THEATRICAL.

THE OLIVER.

At the Oliver Theatre tonight the "Gaiety Girl" will be presented. The evening will be the brightest, best and most successful of the London Gaiety productions. The company is headed by the well known comedian,

Mr. Arthur Dunn. There are sixty members in this company. The original stage settings and scenery from Daly's theatre, and the handsome costumes are carried.

One performance only. Prices 25, 50, 75, $1.00 and $1.50. Seats now on sale.

Frank Daniels will be at the Oliver, Monday, October 22nd in a new role.

It is that of the ruler of Afghanistan in a comic opera called "The Ameer," being in New York last winter "the comic opera success of the season." The support which Daniels' management has provided for him is larger this year than last. Helen Redmond is prima donna. Among the cast are Kate Uart contralto, Norma Kopp the soubrette, Rhys Thomas tenor. Will Danforth bass, Owen Westford and Wm Corliss, and Doctor Gottschalk, musical director. The music of the opera is composed by Victor Herbert. Prices 25, 50, 75, $1, $1.50. Seats now on sale.

THE FUNKE.

The hilarious musical farce comedy known as "McFadden's Row of Flats," will be the offering at the Funke Opera House Monday and Tuesday, October 22nd-23rd. The vaudeville features are most attractive. There is a large and well drilled chorus. The funny dwarfs, the burlesque on Sousa and his band, the billy goat who eats sawdust and incidentally doubles up with Alex and George in response to the fire alarm, the treacherous stairs which seemingly take a fall out of each member of the company, are all funny.

Prices 15, 25 35 and 50 cents. Seats now on sale.
