

suggestion of a swimming party, and the high tide of its spirits are contagious if laughter and shouting are any indication of mood. After a jolly hour or more spent in the refreshing pool a pleasing luncheon was served in the reception rooms of the sanitarium.

At the last meeting of the M. M. M. whist club, which was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Van Brunt and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gibbs at the home of the former, a short business meeting was held during the evening. It was formally decided that the husbands were a great success, that they should be considered regular members, and that the club should henceforth be considered an evening club to meet once in three weeks. The score is to be kept during the year and at the close of the season a small token is to be presented to the one securing the highest score. The executive committee is: Mrs. Van Brunt, chairman; Mrs. Risseer and Mrs. Trap-hagen. The club will be entertained on November 23rd, by Mr. and Mrs. Le-Gore and Mr. and Mrs. Rudge, at the home of the latter.

The pupils of Miss Stella Rice gave a piano recital on last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Butler, 2837 Q street. The program was as follows: Over the Meadows—Lichner; Beth Bonnell.

Selection—Weber; Sadie Angle.
Allegro—Wagner; Maude Harpham.
Minuet—Paderewski; Fay Bonnell.
Valse Etude—Leon Ringuet; Marie Bowers.
Polonaise—Schmoil; Olive Beeman.
Skating—B. Cecil Klein; Flora Hol-ton.
Tyrolienne—Czerny; Ruth Lehr.
Frulking—Lichner; Kate Field.
Abschied von der Heimath—Behr; Irene Neale.
Barcarolle—Spinder; Florence Butler.

Mrs. Clinton R. Lee entertained on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Melue of Erie, Pennsylvania. A unique game of questions occupied the afternoon. The guests were seated at small tables and found their partners by means of similar flowers. The questions were bright and amusing and the contest demanded that they be answered only by the initials of each guest. At the close of the game a vote was taken as to the wittiest replies and as a result Miss Elma Marsland was awarded the laurels of the afternoon. Later a luncheon was served and so pleasing was the service thereof that bon appetit became the watchword. The guests were: Mesdames Ross Cur-tice, Alfred Metcalf, Manahan, Evans, Alley, Deemer and Everts. Misses El-ma Marsland, Frances Marsland and Hooper.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cramer en-tertained the Kishnet club on Thurs-day evening. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Dorgan, George Woods, Frank Woods, Mark Woods, Morrison, Rector, Merrill, Fitzgerald, John B. Wright, Mark Aitken and Mrs. Mansfield. Misses Hollowbush, Car-son, Putnam, Nance, Marshall, Burr and Cochran. Messrs. Honeywell, But-ler, Baldwin, Grant, C. Y. Smith, Lin-een, Paul Fitzgerald, Joyce and Ander-son. An elaborate luncheon was served. Mr. George Woods received the first prize for the men, a stein of interesting design and Mrs. Aitken was given a beautiful vase for the highest score among the women.

Miss Rena Chappel entertained the members of the Union Society at her home, 410 North Twelfth street on Fri-day, November 2nd. A variety of flow-ers and the Union colors were attrac-tive decorations. Games and ghost stories were the exhilarating themes of the evening's entertainment. Miss Bee-sie Brown as a fortune teller wove fasci-nating fates for her attentive listeners.

A refreshing luncheon was served. There were about fifty guests.

The young ladies' McKinley and Roosevelt club, under the management of their captain, Miss Robertson, held a watch meeting on Tuesday evening in the parlors of the Capital hotel. The junior McKinley and Roosevelt club, under the management of Captain Chas. C. Cooper, joined with the young ladies in their watch meeting. The junior boys furnished the entertainment and the young ladies served the luncheon.

The members of the L. A. Kensington and a few guests were entertained by Mrs. A. G. Billmeyer on Monday. The afternoon passed quickly and was much enjoyed by Mesdames Van Brunt, Jones Patrick, Wendling, W. J. Turner, Re-wick, Humphrey, Pitcher, Kennard Wilkinsou, Campbell, Robinette, Rec-tor, Charles Mayer, R. M. Turner, Geo. Fawell, Stoney of India, and Clark of Cedar Rapids.

Mr. G. M. Lambertson left for Chi-cago on Tuesday. His daughters, Miss Nancy and Miss Marjory will join him there and they will go to New York, and on November 17th will sail on the Fuerst Bismarck. Misses Marjory and Nancy will spend the winter in Geneva at one of those fine schools for girls which look out on the beautiful lake of Geneva.

There were an exceeding great num-ber of impromptu Halloween parties. Among them was a joyous gathering at the chapter house of Pi Beta Phi. Those present were the Misses Grace Andrews, Katherine Thomas, Amy Robinson, Lois Burruss, Bessie Burruss, and Katherine McPheely. Messrs. Mc-Killip, Blackman, Richards, Norval, Everett and Price.

Miss Jessie Macfarland left with her father on Wednesday for Chicago. There she will meet Mr. Lambertson and his daughters, Misses Nancy and Marjory and go abroad with them, and remain in school with the young ladies at Geneva.

Mrs. C. H. Rudge will entertain a large number of people at cards this afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. McMasters of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rudge will give a card party this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boyer have an-nounced the engagement of their daughter, Rachel Orelia, to Mr. Frank Murray Rector.

Mrs. Frank M. Woods and Miss Woods arrived in Lincoln last week. After their summer outing at Bayfield, Wisconsin, they went to Washington, D. C., where they were the guests of Mr. Albert Woods.

General J. R. Webster was in Lincoln a few days this week. Mrs. Webster will join the General in Chicago and they will go to Washington, where they expect to remain for some months to come. Their departure is sincerely regretted.

Doctor Winnett Orr is rapidly re-covering from his recent serious illness and expects to spend the remainder of his season of convalescence at the home of his uncle, the Mayor, Doctor Winnett

Mrs. William F. Kelly gave an infor-mal luncheon on Wednesday. The guests were: Mesdames Walsh, guest of honor, of Port Huron, Michigan, Thomas W. Griffith, Mark Tilton and Lewis Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Crittenden will give a dancing party at Walsh Hall in honor of Miss Sweet of Buffalo, on Wednesday November 14th.

The W. T. M. met with Mrs. Comp-ton on Thursday evening. A guessing game was the evening's enjoyment. The members present were: Mesdames

H. Herpolsheimer Co

THE ANNUAL

THANKSGIVING SALE

BEGINS HERE ON MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12.

and continues for just a week, closing on Saturday evening, November 17th.

The holiday selling soon to begin requires every inch of space we can devote to it. It's always tremendous and we expect it to be particularly so this year. This sale is to prepare for it, to give it every available inch of room—to clear stocks regardless of the havock among the profits. It's a clearing. It's a clearing of winter wares at a most opportune time—a time when the need for such wares is most urgent.

All departments are represented and every corner of the store will present the most unusual bar-gain opportunities. Watch for the special circular giving full particulars. If you don't live in Lincoln, send for one. We'll mail it at once,

H. Herpolsheimer Co

LINCOLN, NEBR.

Gentzler, Harland, Masters, Lane, Coff-man, Crow, Widener, Deck, Sherdeman, Hees, Edleman and Case. The guests were: Mesdames Patterson, Long and Bowers.

The South Side Circle of the Grace M. E. church gave a handsome banquet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherde-man. The dining room was gorgeous with yellow poppies and the board festi-ve with Thanksgiving decorations.

Mr. H. M. Bushnell entertained the members of the Round Table at din-ner on Monday evening. After dinner Mr. H. H. Wilson introduced the topic for the evening, "Have the American People Outgrown their Written Consti-tution?" The discussion was exceed-ingly animated.

Gregory, The Coal Man, 11th & O.

Miss Katherine Lee has invited a few of her friends to a swimming party this mornng. Invitations are extended to: Ethel Burkett, Marian Ogden, Marie Talbot, Ruth Gililan, Leila LeGore, Pearl Armstrong, Isabel Armstrong and Edna Baker.

We are agents for the Victor Instan-taneous Water Heater. Call and see them. Kormeyer Plumbing and Heat-ing Company.

Covers were laid for: Major and Mrs. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. George Fawell and children, Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Thomas.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon gave a pleasant dancing party last evening at their chapter house, 1245 H street.

Mrs. O'Neil and Mrs. Gardiner gave a card party on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. N. P. Curtice and Miss Estelle

Curtice started on Friday for California to spend the winter. Mrs. Curtice went in search of health.

Mrs. W. H. McCreery will give a re-ception on Thursday, November 15th from three until six o'clock.

Recently made members of Phi Delta Theta are: I. M. Raymond, Jr., Amos Thomas, and Dregar Martland.

Alpha Tau Omega initiated Ralph Folsom, Lenn Huntington and Victor Schultz on Friday, November 2nd.

Beta Theta Pi fraternity gave an in-formal dance at their rooms on Friday, November 2nd.

Mrs. Allen W. Field will give a card party on Thursday, November 15th.

Miss Garten is home after six months of gayety and pleasant journeyings in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Mary-land.

Les Bohemiennes passed a merry time with Mrs. Crittenden on Wednesday afternoon.

Kappa Theta chapter of Delta Gam-ma passed a pleasant evening on Wed-nesday at the home of Miss Haggard.

Mrs. Morgan Brooks is in the east.

Mr. Albert Woods of Washington, D. C., has been in Lincoln this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Welch have re-turned to Omaha.

Died—Of angina pectoris, Mrs. Anna Brown Miller, on Tuesday morning, No-vember 7th, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Moore, 1414 G street. She was seventy-four years of age and had lived in Nebraska twenty-nine years. The funeral occurred on Thursday after-noon.