

THE BANNER SALE OF THE SEASON

Our Great November Clearing Sale is proving more of a success than we had ever anticipated.

We are selling just the kind of goods you now need at prices usually obtainable only during January—we have told you the reason before.

Simply because the extremely warm September and October weather left us with a big surplus of Fall stock. We have made prices that will—with 10 days good selling—bring our stock to its normal condition.

Look Over These Few Quotations.

Mr. Tom M. Cooke, Deputy Collector of Customs for the Island of Puerto Rico, returned to Lincoln in time to vote and has delayed his departure until the returns indicated that Nebraska was safely republican in every respect. He leaves for his post of duty, San Juan this week. Miss Harriet Cooke will accompany him on the voyage and will spend the winter months on the island.

The handicap match for the Omaha Woman's Golf club cup closed the golf events at the Country Club for the season. An autumn snap was in the air and no sun shed its morning rays over the links that day, so the players depended upon sweaters, flannel waists exercise and excitement to keep them warm during the round of eighteen holes. Capt. Lawie started them off at two thirty and by five o'clock the match was finished and a crowd of shivering, chattering girls surrounded the roaring fire in the club and congratulated Miss Dewey heartily upon her triumph, for in spite of their handicaps Miss Dewey won out playing scratch, which is indeed a rare triumph. The scores were as follows:

	Gross.	Hd'p.	Net
Miss Dewey	116	0	116
Mrs. Sprague	130	11	118
Miss M. McShane	122	12	120
Miss Doona	137	12	125
Miss Kirkendall	148	18	130
Miss Guiou	145	14	131
Miss Gore	150	18	132
Miss Bancker	157	18	139
Miss E. McShane	144	4	140

It was a matter of regret that Miss Kountze withdrew her name from the entry list, as Miss Dewey in this match tied Miss Kountze's score in the last one and the game might have been a very close and a very interesting one this time.
