that doesn't fit is unfit to wear. It may be ever so stylish—built along the latest lines—and yet bind and pinch and cause you agony.

We are experienced in the art of fitting feet. Our Shoes are lacking in none of the three qualities which good Shoes should have—Comfort, Durability and Style.

SOCIETY

Everyone is looking forward to the Thanksgiving vacation. One great event of the day is the football game to be played between the universities of Minnesota and Nebraska. Tallyho parties to the game and dancing parties afterward will afford a great deal of pleasure. Those who are not so fortunate will go with the crowd. If all the people turn out and the game is a success, football on the university campus on Thanksgiving day will be an annual occurrence. Society will be unusually gay. Large dinner parties are to be given, the Cotillion club entertains and a number of people from out of town will be guests here during the vacation and enjoy the hospitality that Lincoln people are noted for.

Mrs. McCreery gave charming reception Thursday afternoon, November 15, from three to six o'clock, which was greatly enjoyed by her guests. The halls were prettily decorated with graceful palms and in the parlors were roses, chrysanthemums and ferns in profusion.

Mrs. Raymond poured coffee and was assisted by the Misses Garten, McGahey, Tukey and Cole. In an oriental room lighted by antique lamps with red candles, Miss Carson served punch. Misses Foster and Harpham assisted her. The ladies who received with Mrs. McCreery were Mesdames Garten, Lamberton, Hindman, Stein, Hall, Babcock, Morrill, Lyman and Yates.

The sixth anniversary of the Woman's club was celebrated last Saturday at the home of Mrs. Harpham. In spite of the foggy weather, nearly two hundred ladies enjoyed the afternoon that they had anticipated with a great deal of interest. On arrival they were received by Mesdames Harpham, Bushnell, Welch and Gund. In the drawing room Mesdames Eames, Thompson, Hall, Lawrence and Miss Hayden looked after the guests and Mesdames Plummer, Burnett, Henry, Morning and Miss Towne were in the library. The dining room was artistically decorated in purple and white and in the birthday cake were six purple candles. Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Scott served the ices and were assisted by Mesdames Belcher, Stevens, Thompson, Metcalf, Fisher and Finch.

Mr. Herbert R. Johnson, a young Lincoln man who has become prominent in newspaper work in Lincoln and several other western cities as a writer and an artist of rare ability, was tendered a farewell banquet at the Lincoln hotel last Friday night by the local chapter of Phi Delta Theta fraternity, of which he is president. He will go first to California, then to Arizona and afterwards to New Mexico, devoting his time in sketching some of the unexplored, picturesque scenery in that territory. There were twenty young men, all active in Phi Delta Theta, who responded to toasts. They were William Raymond, Charles Abbott, Eiam Seacrest, Horace Sherman, Alvin Johnson, Dietrich Lau, Robert Gaines, George Paine, Earl McCreery, Sam Pinkerton, Charles Von Mansfeld, Hal Soles, Drear Maitland, Amos Thomas, Alex Lau, Chester Sumner, Earl Faensworth, Oscar Wittman. Henry Smith acted as toastmaster.

The active and alumnae chapters of Delta Delta Delta gave a dancing party Friday night, November 16, at Walsh hall in honor of the new members, the Misses Loomis, Abbott, Roberts and Eola Auld and the pledged member, Miss Powers. The hall was decorated in the university colors, scarlet and cream and chrysanthemums. The young people enjoyed a delightful evening under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Rector and Mr. and Mrs. Manahan.

Alpha Tau Omega gave a dancing party at their chapter house last Saturday evening. The rooms were tastefully decorated with the fraternity flower, the white tea rose, and the colors, old gold and blue. The chaperones were Messrs. and Mesdames Eames, Lacey, Kimball, and Mrs. Huntington. The guests were Misses Manderin, Edmiston, Harley, Grigge, Lummery, Dimmick, Daniels, Woodward, Douglas, Hammond, Davenport; Messrs. Hoffoel, Morrison, Rogers, Hewitt, Huntington, Folsom, Hunger, West, Carnahan, Culver, Fisher, Schultz, Berry and Greenwald.

Mr. John Fitzgerald and Miss Fitzgerald went, on Monday, to St. Joseph, Mo., where the centenary celebration of the establishment of the Convent of the Sacred Heart, is celebrated this week. Mrs. Fitzgerald is an alumnae of the St. Joseph school and will enjoy the meeting with her former classmates and other alumnae of the institution. At the end of the week Mrs. Fitzgerald will go to St. Louis, where she will visit Mrs. Jones, a former resident of Lincoln.

Mrs. Hutchins gave a large card party Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were artistically decorated with red and pink roses and smilax. Those who were invited were Mesdames Helwig, Traphagen, Harpham, Scott, Clark, Rector, Aitken, Turner, Kennard, W. Davis, A. Davis, Mullen, Tilton, Branch, Legore; Warner, Geo. Rissler, Holyoke Green, Billmeyer, Wilkinson, Ackerman, Gordon, O'Neill, Munson, Baker, Jewell, Sine, Casebeer, Metcalf, Nelson, Herrick, Wheeler, Spencer, Field, Sohn, Parker, Morse, Wells, Mast of Pennsylvania, Misses Cowdery, Rissler, Barber, Turner. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins entertained the following guests at cards: Messrs. and Mesdames R. Turner, W. J. Turner, Aitken, Morse, Parker, Humphrey, Woods, Hill, Folsom, E. Folsom, Blish, Rudge, Phillips, Guenzel, Folsom, Porter, Manahan, W. Fitzgerald, Hibner; Misses G. Aitken, Aitken and Mrs. MacMasters of Chicago.

Mr. Richards gave a box party the night of Julia Marlowe's appearance in "Barbara Frietchie," last Tuesday evening and later a dinner in Miss Marlowe's honor. Those who had the pleasure of meeting her were Misses Putnam, Burr, Hollowbush; Mrs. Mallalieu; Messrs. Joyce, Grant, Montgomery and Richards. Those seen in the other boxes: Mr. and Mrs. Dorgan and Mr. and Mrs. Woods; Mr. and Mrs. Fawell and Miss Cowdery and Mrs. Stoney; Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald, Miss Regna Macdonald and Mr. Magoon.

The marriage of Miss Eunice Derrige and Mr. John Kelly was celebrated at 8:30 at St. Theresa's pro-cathedral. The ceremony was followed by an elaborate wedding breakfast at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. Ode Rector. The tables were decorated with white roses and chrysanthemums. Covers were laid for twenty-two. The bride wore a hand-
