

Holiday Suggestions.

What shall I buy? This is a question we hear so many ask these days. We can probably help you if you come to us. Our stocks have been carefully selected and are heavily laden with articles that are useful and suitable for gift-giving. We offer a few suggestions. Kid Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Pocket-Books, Neckwear, Umbrellas, Mufflers, Suspenders, Blankets, Dress Patterns, Muffs, Collarettes, Sterling Novelties, Silk Hose, Embroidered Linens, Towels and many others. Open evenings until Christmas.

THOMPSON, BELDEN & CO., 16th and Douglas Sts. OMAHA.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Tyler and Mrs. Fountain of Indiana.

The active members of Pi Beta Phi entertained the alumni very pleasantly at the chapter house last Saturday evening.

The following members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon enjoyed a theatre party at the Oliver theatre last Saturday evening. Messrs. Funke, De Putron, Townsend, Cowgill, Mills, Davidson, Appelget, Fawell and Roth.

Miss Laura Houtz entertained most delightfully last Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Barker of Portland, Oregon, and Miss Winifred Kelly. Hearts was played during the evening, Miss Outcalt and Mr. Morrison being the recipients of two pretty prizes. Those invited were Misses Barker, Kelly, Richards, Nance, Clara Hammond, Hays, Emmons, Bradt, Maitland, Harley, Edmiston, Stuart, Garten, Whedon, Watkins, Cochran, Risser, Weeks, Gahan, Margaret Whedon, Outcalt, Adeloyd Whiting, Hooper, Odelle, and Hawley. Messrs. Hays, Walsh, Kind, Ricketts, Anderson, Schick, Bartlett, Raymond, Edmiston, Shidler, Abbott, Crooks, McCreery, Watkins, Wehn, Cowgill, Clapp, Morrison, Kormeyer, Kennard, Shedd, Hallett, G. Shedd, Davidson, Morrill, Dufrene and Hunger.

Last Tuesday afternoon and evening Mrs. Hanns Peter Lau entertained a large number of her friends. Cards were played and the time passed most pleasantly. In the afternoon, prizes were won by Mrs. Rector and Miss Jaynes, and in the evening by Miss Woods and Dr. White. The guests in the afternoon were Mesdames Rector, Morrison, Putnam, Fitzgerald, Welch, Tomson, Scott, Lewis, Burnham, Burr, Frank Woods, Green, Wright, Dorgan, Thompson, John Dorgan, Tilton, Irvine, Folsom, Underwood, Simpkins, Evans, Brooks, Filson, Yunge, Ensign, Griffith, Stevens, Aitken, Hargreaves and Nance. Misses Burr and Saunders. The guests for the evening were Misses Outcalt, Hays, Clara Hammond, Whedon, Richards, Putnam, Tukey, Louise Tukey, Jaynes, Daniels, Hamilton, Macomber, Edna Harley, Jackson, Cole, Hamilton, Welch, Nance, Macomber, Garten, Muliken, Clark, Moore, Weesner, Honeywell, Hunt, Robinson, Brown; Messrs. Hays, Tukey, Crandall, Joyce, McKillip H. Shedd, Lau, Fitzgerald, Seacrest, Holmes, Whitman, Raymond, Lau, I. Raymond, Baldwin, Abbott, Rehlaender, Walsh, Clark, Stein, Sumner, White, Ricketts, McCreery, Cuscaden, Farnsworth, Von Mansfelde, Honeywell and Gaines.

Mrs. Casebeer and Mrs. Witter gave a large card party last Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Fountain of South Bend, Ind. The rooms were tastefully decorated in roses, carnations and palms. The most successful in playing euchre were Mrs. Kennard and Mrs. Thomas. The guests were Mesdames Lamberton, Wolcott, Ewing, Harley, Hays, Stoney, Weir, Sine, Turner, Scott, Metcalf, Pound, Richards, Woods, Odell,

Keefe, Moore, Usher, Risser, Nance, Candy, Thomas, Fields, Crancer, Aitken, Rswick, Holyoke, Dorgan, Winger, Canfield, Fawell, Davis, Kennard, Tuttle, Tomson, Kirker, Lindlay, Herrick, Clark, Hoover, Spencer, Kelley, Hoover, Mullen, Cowdery, Helwig Yates, Finch, Wilson, Seacrest, Abbott, Ricketts, Folsom, Hutchins; Misses Cowdery, Aitken and Kirker.

Tuesday evening Dr. and Mrs. Casebeer gave a card party for Mrs. Fountain. Mrs. Barbour, Mrs. Hamilton, Mr. Hibner and Mr. Garoutte were the most successful. Those invited were: Messrs. and Mesdames Wilson, Turner, Kudge, Baker, Van Brunt, Newbecker, Nelson, Folsom, Bearhart, Kellogg, Barbour, Le Gore, Jones, Wilkinson, Risser, Jewell, Kimball, Coffin, Hill, Hibner, Clark, Green, Eames, Fling, Moore, Woods, Holm, Teeters, Garoutte, Chapin, Guenzel, Brown, Harpham, Blish, Folsom and Stonebraker. Misses Tibbetts, Hutchinson and Hutchinson.

Miss Vera Norris of Creston, Iowa, guest of Miss Mabel Barrick was very pleasantly entertained at Miss Barrick's home last Tuesday afternoon. The rooms were tastefully decorated in the Q. A. T. colors, pink and red, and lighted by Japanese lanterns. The refreshment table was festooned in smilax and roses. Slippery Ann, a game of hearts was played. Prizes were won by Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Evans and Miss Dalby. Miss Morris and McKay assisted Miss Barrick in receiving the guests. Those present were Mesdames Sutter, Hallett, Graham, Arnett, Evans, Jarrett, Vanderpool, Chapman, Mosshart, Boney; Misses Norris of Creston, Ia., Dalby, Beach, Marie Beach, Vinnie Beach, McKay, Shute, Hess, Jo Don, Gregory, Ewing, Lewis, Anthony, Erford, Macfarland, Blitgen, Edelman and Armstrong.

The engagement of Miss Mary R. Campbell of this city to Dr. David R. Major of Columbia University has been announced.

One of the prettiest receptions of the season was given Thursday afternoon from three to six at the home of Mrs. Rosa Funke in honor of Mrs. E. K. Harris. Those who received were Mesdames Funke, Mansfield, Harris, Howe and Cowdery. The reception room was in green and white. Graceful palms and large white chrysanthemums were in abundance. The walls were festooned in smilax. The hall was also in green and white, a large bank of palms concealing the orchestra. The drawing room was in green and yellow. At a table draped in evergreen and covered with roses, Mrs. George Woods served ice assisted by Mrs. Thomas. Mesdames Carl Funke and Ladd served coffee. Mrs. Ewing presented each one of the guests with a large chrysanthemum as a souvenir. In the dining room, made beautiful with American Beauties, festoons of holly and smilax, Mrs. Watson of Friend, Nebr., assisted by Mesdames Dorgan, Stoney, Curtis and Crancer, served refreshments. In the

GO TO
"ROY'S"
FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS

...AND...

Holiday Goods

Of Many Varieties.

FINE PERFUMES.
FINE STATIONERY,
FINE TOILET SETS,
FINE FOUNTAIN PENS,
TOYS,
DOLLS,
GAMES, ETC.

...AT...

Roy's Drug Store,

104 No. Tenth St.

AT THE YELLOW FRONT

You can purchase Xmas presents of all kinds for a very small sum.

Our line of calendars contains some rare specimens of art which will certainly please you.

We can show you all the late works, also a most complete line of gift works.

Games of All Kinds.

Bisque statuettes, Wedgewood Plaques, Wedgewood and Tippetts Vases.

PICTURES.

PICTURES.

Hand-Painted Platinoes, Medallions.

WILSON & HALL,

1123 O Street

1123 O Street