

Rasmussen. Miss Emma Meier and Miss Ray Pollock served ices from a corner lighted by delicate shaded lamps. The receiving ladies were gowned in pink and white. About seventy guests called during the afternoon.

The Tuesday Night club gave an informal dance at Walsh hall on Tuesday of this week. Those present were Misses Hargreaves, Clara Hammond, Jenkins, Cole, Daniels, Morgan, Nance, Burruss, Paddock, Clark, Agnew, Wirt, Henry, Chapin and Bess Burruss. Messrs. Ricketts, Raymond, Drain, McCreery, Ames, Norval, Turpin, Schick, Orr, Brown, Anderson, Marlay, Morrison, Clark and Andrews.

Mr. Fred Funke entertained informally on Friday evening in honor of Messrs. Wade, Frank Brown and Edwin Funke. The house was decorated with holly and American Beauties. Misses Hammond, Griggs, Thorpe, Hargreaves, Chapin, Rathbone Daniels, Marshall, McPheely, Parks, Burruss, Bess Burruss, Harpham, Outcalt, Andrews, Funke and Woodward; Messrs. Shidler, Raymond, Raymond, Bartlett, Mills, Klinge, Rehlaender, Farnsworth, Leon Crandall, Harry Crandall Funke, Funke, Wade, Brown, Crooks, Fawell, Everett, Elliott, De Putron, Beckman, and Cowgill were the guests.

The library of the European history seminar of the University has just received as a gift from Miss Helen C. Harwood, a book of high value and interest to students of French history. It is a history of the Bastille from the building of this famous Parisian prison in 1370 to its memorable destruction early in the French revolution. Miss Harwood became interested in this subject during her studies under Professor Fling a few years ago and later while pursuing her researches in Paris she secured this book. It is issued in a sumptuous edition by the city authorities of Paris and no expense has been spared in the reproduction of first hand historical material both in letter press and facsimile.

Plans are being made to establish in connection with the Domestic Science Department a lunch stand for serving mid-day meals. While this is a new feature at the University of Nebraska, it has been successfully tried in connection with the high schools in the larger cities. Hot lunches will be served at nominally cost prices, the idea being not to run it for profit, but for the benefit of those students who are compelled to take cold lunches and it is hoped that the patronage will be such as to make this feature a permanent one.

The History and Art club of Seward, gave their annual banquet the evening of January 5th, at the home of the president, Mrs. S. C. Langworthy. Covers were laid for sixty including the members, their gentlemen friends and other guests. The menu was elaborate with carnations for the last course. The decorations were in the club colors, yellow and white. The portieres were streamers of gold and white looped in graceful festoons. The banisters were interwoven with the same and the ices carried out the color scheme. After supper Mrs. Langworthy made a few appropriate remarks and a short program was rendered consisting of music and recitations, after which the evening was given over to sociability.

The third in the series of dances given by the Saturday Night club, was held last week. The hops are informal, the company is well acquainted and congenial and the series is, in consequence, something like the extinct Pleasant Hour functions. The dancers were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Merrill, Misses Crouse of Omaha, Watkins, Morgan, Hamilton, Putnam, Bignell, Dimmick, McPheely, Burruss, Louise Tukey, Garten, Maitland, Burr, Carson, Oakley and Nance; Messrs. Walsh, Harmon of St. Louis, Baldwin, Paine, Butler, Watkins, Morrison, Rodgers, Smith, Holmes, McCreery, Anderson, Joyce and Matson.

Mr. S. H. Burnham entertained the Round Table on Monday evening. "Would the best interests of the whole country be promoted by the passage of the ship subsidy bill now pending before congress?" was discussed and debated by the whole club, led by Judge A. W. Field. With two exceptions those present were opposed to the bill. Previous to the discussion Mrs. Burnham served an elegant dinner on four tables to the thirty men present. American Beauties filled the rooms with their penetrating refreshing fragrance.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Field give a card party tonight for Mrs. Lawton (born Heth). The invited guests are Messrs. and Mesdames Folsom, Ricketts, Stonebraker, H. B. Sawyer, Thomas, Boggs, W. A. Green, E. B. Green, Lahr, R. M. Turner, S. G. Dorr, F. M. Hall, Barbour, Roscoe Pound; Misses Hardy and Harris

The first meeting of the Four Fours card club this year, was held at the home of Mrs. G. W. Losey on Friday evening, January 4th. The guests were each presented with a prettily decorated card suitable to the New Year. After a number of games of high-five, a two course luncheon was served. Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames W. Lloyd, Austerson, Coxford, E. M. Estee, Mawe and Miss Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Miller and Professor and Mrs. E. H. Barbour have issued cards to a musicale to be given Friday evening the 18th, at the home of the former, in honor of Mrs. George Shipman (born Richardson) of Chicago. Mrs. Shipman will arrive in Lincoln the 15th and will be the guest of Mrs. Barbour.

Mrs. Pitcher and Miss Hardy entertained fifty ladies last Saturday afternoon. The guests were provided with immemorial pencils and paper and asked to write words ending in "cate." Portentous lists were the result. The prizes were won by Mrs. McKinnon and Mrs. Seacrest.

Miss Odille Fusz of St. Louis, who is known to a number of Lincoln people, will be married on the sixteenth of January to Mr. Thomas Hudson Thatcher in the Cathedral chapel of St. Louis. Several years ago Miss Fusz visited Mrs. Harris of this city.

Gregory, The Coal Man, 11th & O.

Mrs. E. F. Runyan of Chicago, a resident of Lincoln in the seventies, is visiting Mrs. Bennett.

Miss Katherine Agnew entertained a company on Thursday evening.

Mesdames M. Ackerman and M. A. Newmark will give a card party Thursday the 17th, at the residence of the latter.

Mrs. F. J. W. Stoney will give a card party next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. George Fawell.

Miss Cowdery gave an informal card party yesterday evening.

Miss Ruth Bryan returned to school at Montecello on Monday after a pleasant holiday visit with her parents and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Foster entertained the Nineteenth Century card club on Monday evening.

Sigma Chi fraternity give a party tonight at the chapter house.

Mrs. J. E. Houtz started on Monday afternoon for California where she will

WE MAKE IT A POINT

to clear stocks as thoroughly as possible for inventory and lines left untouched by the Clearing Sale are sacrificed most unmercifully after it. There are a number of such lines here now—articles that must be disposed of before the first of February and it's our intention to dispose of them by that time even if it's necessary to go below the wholesale price.

H. Herpolsheimer & Co.

LINCOLN, NEBR.

spend the winter with her parents, Col. and Mrs. Kelly.

Mrs. Heth Lawton is the guest of Mrs. W. O. Thomas.

Mrs. Mary D. Manning has returned to Chicago to resume her studies there.

The annual banquet of Alpha Theta Chi was held at the chapter house of that fraternity on Friday evening, January 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham have gone east for a fortnight's excursion among their friends in New York and Boston.

Mr. Edmisten and Miss Blanche Edmisten left yesterday afternoon for California.

Died—In Waukegan, Illinois, of pneumonia, on Monday, January 7th, 1901, Mr. Carl Morton, son of Mr. J. Sterling Morton. Mr. Morton's wife and an infant son and daughter survive him.

Died—At Lincoln on January 5th, 1901, Mr. T. F. Gettier, an old settler, of apoplexy.

The Matinee Musicals.

The first meeting of the Matinee Musicals since the holiday intermission was held on Monday afternoon in the club rooms. Mrs. Jansen and Miss Miller arranged and presented the programme, which was a picture, or lyric characterization of each one of the twelve months.

CALENDAR OF SONG.

January—Chorus, "Ring Out Wild Bells," Henry Lahers. First sopranos, Mrs. O'Neal, Miss Clara Reynolds, Mrs. Jansen; second sopranos, Mrs. W. L. Sheetz, Mrs. D. M. Butler, Mrs. Bivens; altos, Miss Leta Trigg, Miss Hullnorst, Mrs. Albert Watkins.

February—"My Valentine," Gaynor Mrs. A. W. Jansen. (substitute).

March—"Blow, Blow, Thou White Wind!" Sergeant, Mrs. E. Lewis Baker, (substitute).

April—(a) "Twas April;" (b) "Spring Song," Nevin, Mrs. D. M. Butler.

"Cello Obligato," Miss Eiche.

May—"May Morning," Denza, Miss Clara R. Reynolds.

July, August—Violin. (a) "The Butterfly," Franz Schubert. (b) "The Swan," Saint-Saens. (c) "The Bee," Francois Schubert, Miss Silence Dales.

September—"September," Charlton, Miss Lora Holmes.

October—Vocal duet, "The Hunters," Kueken, Mrs. W. L. Sheetz, Miss Leta Trigg.

November—"A Song of Thanksgiving," Allitsen, Miss Lora Holmes.

December—"The Star of Bethlehem," Adams, Mrs. W. L. Sheetz.

Miss Mary Smith, Miss Ethel Syford and Miss Ella Giveon played the accompaniments.

Omaha Notes.

The reception given by Judge Woolworth for Mr. and Mrs. Fairfield New Year's night was a very elaborate and a very large affair, both the older and younger members of society being present. Southern smilax, used in generous profusion to frame doorways, bank mantels and stairway and fill many wall spaces, made the house a bower of green with no other color anywhere except in the dining room, where red carnations were used on the table. Windows and doors leading to the porch were thrown wide open and the porches enclosed in canvas, with rugs, couches and easy chairs scattered about made a most attractive place, while several gas radiators threw out enough heat to take off the chill and make it possible to stroll out in this corridor with comfort. An orchestra was stationed in the hall and played all during the evening. Mrs. Howard received with Judge Woolworth and Mr. and Mrs. Fairfield. Among those who were there were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Davis, Miss Hambleton, Bishop and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Kountze, General Lee and Miss Anne Lee, Major Michie, Mr. and Mrs. Peck, Miss Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kountze, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Whitmore, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon, Mr. Frank Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens, Miss Helen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Van Nostrand, Mrs. Dewey, Miss Dewey, Mr. and Mrs. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Gates, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Keller, Dr. and Mrs. Summers, Mr. Charles Saunders, Mr. Frank Hamilton, Mr. Earl Gannett, the Misses Butterfield, Captain and Mrs. Erwin, Colonel Pratt, Miss Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Y. Allen, Miss Elizabeth Allen, Mr.