

Roberts, Murphy, Bonnell, Winnifred Bonnell, Poynter, Lummary, Chadwick, Geer, Mackin, Abbott, Jeary, Powers, Gund, Cady, Auld; Messrs. Barnes, Finarty, Auld, Hess, Martin, Longworth, Ledwith, Roberts, Lawlor, Sumner, Holman, Peterson, Rainey, Smith, Johnson, Drain, Hedge, Reynolds, Whitcomb, Hewitt, Stuhr.

Mesdames Miltonberger and Hayden Meyer entertained the members of the E. E. D. Kensington on Wednesday evening at the home of the former, Messrs. Meyer, Grainger and others rendered pleasing songs to artistic accompaniments played by Miss Dobbs. Mrs. Parrott, who has made a study of palmistry told fortunes and there was a post office from which these guests received valentines; Messrs. and Mesdames Townsend, Whiting, De Witt, Grainger, Dobson, Baldwin, Yoho, Hayden; Mesdames Nailer, Parrott; Misses Curtiss, Haas; Messrs. Ernst, Whiting, Shepherd.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marshall gave a dinner last evening to announce the engagement of Miss Sue Spaulding of Sioux City, to Mr. Fred White of Omaha, brother of Mrs. Marshall. The table was decorated with American Beauties. The dinner favors were white silk booklets with miniature heads on the outside and white satin pencils attached. In the booklets was a story in the form of a poem so transposed that it had to be worked out. The guest who first read the story correctly had the privilege of announcing the engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lloyd entertained the Good Times card club Wednesday evening. The guests found their partners by matching the parts of desecrated valentines. Prizes were won by Mesdames Warren, Scott; Messrs. M. E. Shepherd, M. Shepherd. The hostess was assisted in serving the luncheon by Mesdames Anderson, Cosford; Misses Ethel and Elsie Anderson to Messrs. and Mesdames Shepard, Scott, Church, Cosford; Mesdames Warren, Anderson, Bowen; Misses Hoover, Anderson, Ethel Anderson; Messrs. Lowrey, Shepherd, McBride, Coffman, Lowrey, Douthett.

Governor Dietrich and his staff will leave Lincoln on the 28th to attend the inaugural ceremonies at Washington, where Miss Dietrich will join her father. The members of the staff are: Messrs. G. E. Jenkins, Fairbury, Q. M.; J. C. Anderson, Omaha, surgeon; C. J. Bills, Fairbury, inspector; J. A. Brown, Wakefield, judge advocate; aides de-camp: C. M. Keefer, Lincoln; R. E. Moores, Omaha; H. Koster, Niobrara; W. N. Huse, Norfolk; S. M. Melick, Lincoln; C. D. Evans, Columbus; E. J. Davenport, Valentine; H. P. Sutton, McCook; Geo. A. Murphy, Beatrice; R. E. Giffen, Lincoln.

Mesdames R. M. Turner and C. I. Jones gave a series of pleasant parties this week at the home of the former. The first, a six handed euchre party on Wednesday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mesdames Chapin and Fawell. Pink and white roses and carnations adorned the house. Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Turner gave a euchre party. On Thursday afternoon Mesdames Turner and Jones gave a heart party, and yesterday afternoon they gave a Kensington.

Gregory, The Coal Man, 11th & O.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clapp entertained the Four Fours last evening.

Mrs. Parrott of Idaho, is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Miltonberger.

Mrs. John B. Wright is entertaining her aunt, Mrs. E. T. Magee of Cincinnati.

Mr. R. O. Winger of Keokuk, Iowa, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Winger.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bewick gave a card party last evening. About seventy-five guests were present and played six handed euchre.

Mrs. George Brown of Denver, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Buckstaff, who will not give up their home, which Mr. Haskell has bought, until April.

Mrs. Ward, who has been visiting Mrs. Levering, returned to her home on Wednesday.

Mrs. C. D. Pitcher entertained the L. A. Kensington on Monday afternoon. All except two of the members were present. Mesdames Tibbetts, Davies and R. M. Turner were the guests.

Miss Mabel Hays gives a card party this afternoon.

Mrs. Hudson of Minneapolis arrived in the city Monday morning and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Harry E. Everett.

Mesdames S. S. Whiting and Miltonberger will give a Kensington next Friday afternoon.

Died on Saturday morning February 9, 1901 aged twenty-nine years Miss Mae Miller Lansing, daughter of Mrs. I. W. Lansing and of Mr. I. W. Lansing lately deceased. Miss Lansing was the oldest daughter. She was a young woman of the rarest fidelity and sweetness. She performed the drudgery of a stenographer with a heroism that was never conscious. She contributed to the support of a widowed mother and sisters. Blue-eyed, blonde, exquisitely neat, always courteous, Miss Lansing possessed a repose and contentment, which is the sign of a great spirit. The irritations and hardships, which ruffle a self-centered soul did not effect Miss Lansing's poise. Among the great army of young girls who earn their own living and contribute to a family's needs, her sense of responsibility to the work she was employed to do, is very rare. Her promptness and efficiency, her immediate responsiveness to any demand and her quick intuition of what was required in her work. For the last few months she has worked with unusual haste and devoted a large number of hours to labor, as if she knew how little time was left her. Her mother and sisters have the sympathy of a very large circle of friends. Although she never dreamed of being an example and model, so well she served the twenty nine years of her lot that few who watched the never-flickering light will ever forget it, and they will walk the steadier and stumble less for the long rays which will still illuminate their path.

Died in Fremont on February 11 Judge Samuel Maxwell, one of the oldest and best known jurists in Nebraska? He settled in Fremont twenty five years ago and by hard work and a severely conscientious exercise of his judicial function earned the esteem of a state. He was for twenty years an elder in the Presbyterian church. His widow, four sons—Henry E. Maxwell of Omaha, Jacob A. Maxwell of Philadelphia and Andrew and Samuel Maxwell of Fremont—and four daughters—Mrs. L. Ferguson of Boston and Marilla, Ella Grace Maxwell of Fremont survive him.

Died at Los Angeles, Cal., on February 11, aged 70 years, Captain A. J. Guthridge who has lived in Los Angeles for six years. He was a Nebraska pioneer, came to this city in 1869 and helped organize it. Mrs. W. C. Phillips of Lincoln is his daughter.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

(From The Advocate.)

Frank Phillips gave a party for his freshman class on last Friday evening at his home. The house was decorated with ferns, palms and potted plants.

...The Annual... SALE OF UNDER-MUSLINS

AND WHITE GOODS

Begins Saturday Morning, February 16th, and ends Saturday Evening, February 23.

THE UNDER-MUSLINS Are of that usual high standard, that dependable quality that has always distinguished this store's stock from the commonplace. The garments are made of the best materials, made by competent workpeople, made to our special order for our trade.

Here Are Some of Our Offerings.

Women's Corset Covers—An endless variety of styles, upward from 10c, 12½c, 25c, 29c, 35c and 50c

Drawers—Excellent values in good muslin, cambric, ruffle trimmed, yoke band, a pair..... 25c

Gowns—More than 200 different styles, and the cheapest as neatly made as the best. Muslin gown; tucked yoke, trimmed, lace edge on neck and sleeves, each..... 32½c

Not more than two of the above to any one person.

A vast assortment of grades ranging at 50c, 79c, $1.00 and upward

Chemises—Both styles, half and full length, the latter trimmed with cambric ruffle, skirt neck, 6 different styles, each... 50c

Skirts—Short and full lengths, surprises for the money; tucked, trimmed, plain skirts, assorted lengths, each..... 25c

Special—A lot of children's umbrella drawers, while they last, a pair..... 15c

Children's Gowns—Made of Lonsdale cotton, tucked yoke, hemstitched cambric ruffle, trimmed; sizes 1, 2 and 3, each 50c; size 4, 5 and 6, each..... 65c

Children's Drawers—Made of Lonsdale cotton, extension band button hole, trimmed with clusters of tucks, sizes 0 to 7; prices range upward from..... 10c

Children's Petticoats—Made of good muslin, trimmed with clusters of tucks, and hemstitched cambric ruffle, each..... 35c

Sheeting, Muslin and White Dress Goods—Of the same thoroughly reliable character upon which this department has established its high standing. The season's best products priced at reduced figures to introduce, right at the season's beginning.

Green Ticket Lonsdale bleached muslin (10 yards to a customer), per yard..... 7c

All the better grades of fine bleached muslin, including the grass bleached. This is offered here, per yard..... 10c

Muslin long cloth, 41½ inches wide, per yard..... 18c

We have all grades of cambric, prices 10c, 12½c, 15c and 18c a yard

Fancy white goods in brocade and dimity stripes, worth up to 25c; these are mill end lengths; on sale, prices per yard..... 9½c

Long cloth, made expressly for us, 12 yards in a piece, No. 500, per piece..... 97c

40-inch India Linen, worth to 25c, sale price, per yard..... 11c

India Linen, 30 and 32 inches wide at 8½c, 10c, 12½c, 15c, 18c, 20c, 25c and up to 45c a yard.

Piques—Cross welt, straight welt and fancy figures in white only, worth up to 35c, in one lot, this sale, per yard..... 17c

A. Herpolsheimer & Co.

A game with candy beans was to be played, but most every one had eaten their beans before the game commenced. Cards, dancing and games also furnished amusement. Despite the snow about sixty people were present. The faculty was represented by Mr. Congdon and Misses Tuttle and Hulhorst. We were glad to welcome the bright and smiling face of Mr. Congdon for the first time at one of our parties. The old game of barber practiced by three pretty 1901 girls and a boy behind the lounge claimed several hapless boys for its victims. Several junior girls were present who chaperoned some 1901 boys. About eleven o'clock the guests betook themselves, wading through snow drifts to their various homes.

The Browning club held a regular meeting February 4. After roll-call, which was answered by quotations from Bob Browning, the following program was given: Life of Queen Victoria, Grace Trigg; recitation, Minnie Swezey; recitation, Susie Wallace; book review, Mauc Melick; recitation, Juliet Vore. Notwithstanding the name of our society, some of the members appear to be so unacquainted with the poems of Browning, as not to be able to quote from them on the spur of the moment.

On Friday the Ciceronians held their preliminaries to choose speakers for the coming debate with Omaha. Those chosen to do battle against the Democethenians were Charles Sawyer, Mason Wheeler, Fred White and Clark Frazier.

The former members of the Chow Chow club, a high school freshman organization, enjoyed a pleasant bob-sled ride Tuesday. About half past nine the party stopped at the home of Miss Speer and were served with refreshments.

At our meeting Friday we had a prolonged discussion about the date of our party and all necessary arrangements. The president became somewhat excited and there were lively times. It was finally decided to have the party in the library Saturday evening. Miss Fay Bridges was appointed chairman of the refreshments committee. Of course there are always some rowdies who