

games and music on Thursday evening. A three course luncheon was served. The members and their husbands are: Messrs. and Mesdames Grainger, Whiting, Ernst, Miltonberger, Townsend, DeWitt, Dobson, Baldwin, Baldwin, Hayden, Wilson, Hayden Myer, Haas, Yoho, Naylor; Misses Curtice, Haas; Messrs. Shepherd, Whiting, Miltonberger and Peterson.

Leonora Jackson, who appeared here with the Boston Symphony orchestra last night in Carnegie hall, was recalled nine times after playing Mendelssohn's Concerto.—N. Y. Press, Feb. 23, 1900.

Mrs. H. K. Burkett gave a geographical party Saturday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Harsh of Creston, Ia. The guest of honor also entertained the guests with music and recitations. Mrs. Burkett's guests were Mesdames D. A. Risser, M. H. Garten, W. C. Henry, S. B. Pound, Roscoe Pound, F. W. Hill, W. A. Woodward, L. C. Richards, E. W. Neilson, S. A. Foster, James Heaton, M. W. Folsom, F. B. Harris, I. G. Chapin, R. A. Holyoke, C. F. Harpham, Davies, G. W. Berge, A. R. Talbot, W. H. Morning, A. A. Scott; Misses Rosser, Henry, Pound, Woodward, Tibbets, Heaton, Biltgen and Stuart.

The parliamentary department of the Lincoln Woman's club met Tuesday with the subject, Resumption of delayed business; general practice.

The Delta Gamma's annual celebration was held at Miss Nelia Cochrane's home on Friday evening. The members were in costume, the three resident charter members, Misses Dennis, Wing and Haggard, were dressed as very, very old ladies. The antique effects were carried out with finish and perfect seriousness. It was only a few years ago that the chapter was organized here, but so quickly does a post graduate acquire the bouquet of ancient vintage that a post graduate of 1898 is a venerable dame to active members. The rest of the picnickers were dressed as children of eight or nine, and the very youngest as babies. Pantalettes, bibs, checked aprons, made with sleeves, brass-tipped shoes, long braids, round combs, sunbonnets, dolls, the suits and toys of childhood entertained the sisterhood of Delta Gamma last night. Not that the Delta-Gammas need artificial stimulants like masquerades, etc. They are the most companionable, merriest and wittiest of comrades and their meetings are enlivened by quick imaginations and superabundant spirits that defy even the active members' tendency to consider everybody not in the university a palsee old thing.

Miss Edgren gave a dancing party last evening. The floors were canvased and a harp and violin orchestra played for the dancers. Punch was served by Miss Frances Cunningham and a late supper was served. The refreshment room was lighted and decorated in dark red. The guests: Misses Post, Tuttle, Douglas, Weeks, Miller, Loomis, Harper, Woodford, Sundean, Jeanette Post, Wilson, Roberts, Muir, Spears, Alice Spears, McHenry, Morgan Wirt, Sarah Muir, Mabel Muir, Stewart, Foster, Richards, Schwartz, Murray; Messrs. Sedgwick, Bell, Koth, Harvey, Deweese, Kind, Lester, Ustick, Lau, Storey, Roy Adams, Korsmeyer, R. thie, Ledwith, Hill, Roberts, McKillip, Brown, Homan, Martin, Wright, Wells, Su.ner, Smith, Longley, Orr, Kendall, Sherman, Groff, Franey, Clinton, Howard, Charlie Adams, Folsom, Millson, Gerrick, Hauck, Purcell; Dr. and Mrs. Clements, Dr. and Mrs. Fossler, Dr. and Mrs. Bessey.

The Bon Ami club assembled on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clara Mansfield to welcome Mrs. Lippincott (born Alger) again into their coffee-drinking midst. It is only when an absent member returns to Lincoln that this dispersed club reassembles. But the meetings are very much enjoyed. Besides the hostess and Mrs. Funke the members present were Mesdames Lippincott, Stewart, Edward Green, Dorr, Thomas; Misses Hardy and Harris, Mrs. Crancer, Miss Harwood, and Miss Lippincott. Mrs. Lippincott, the guest of honor, won the prize a very beautiful and cobwebby lace handkerchief.

The Army and Navy Journal contains a list of officers promoted by the president as a result of the recent reorganization of the army. Captain Guilfoyle has been transferred from the Ninth cavalry to the Second and raised in rank to major. Lieutenant P. rshing, who has been major of volunteers in the army of the Philippines, is transferred from the Tenth infantry to the First and now ranks as captain.

The Saturday Night club danced last Saturday at Walsh hall. The dancers were: Misses Tukey, Tukey, Nance, Burruss, Carson, Morgan, McHenry, Hammond, Hamilton, Post, Post, Agnew, Henry, Dimick, Macomber; Messrs. Morrison, Baldwin, Walsh, Anderson, Marlay, Culver, Swartz, Ames, Kennard, Hunger, Watkins, Mattson, Roth, Holmes, Paine.

Miss Hollowbush returned Sunday from a delightful visit with Mrs. Spoford in Kansas City. A bal poudre, a military euchre and an informal musicale were given in her honor by her hostess and her stay was a continual round of functions.

Gregory, The Coal Man, 11th & O.

Mrs. Harry Reese and infant daughter returned to her home at Cripple Creek on Saturday.

Mrs. Walter B Hargreaves has gone to New York City to visit her son. She will be absent until after Easter.

Mrs. Woodward Jones and infant son will arrive in the city on Monday next and will be guests of Mrs. Jones' mother, Mrs. John G. Morrieon.

Mrs. E. P. Holmes, who has been seriously ill, is convalescing. Dr. and Mrs. Hull of Omaha have been with Mrs. Holmes.

Miss Laura Morey, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. C. Van Riper, left Saturday for her home in Sedalia, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hoover entertained the Nineteenth Century club Thursday evening in honor of their guest, Miss Miller of Aurora, Ills.

Mrs. H. J. Winnett will give a luncheon next Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Charles A. Vaille of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Raymond have issued invitations for next Friday evening. Dr. Edgren will entertain the company with Mexican sketches.

Mrs. R. H. Wolcott entertained the Faculty Women's club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Buckstaff. Refreshments were served to thirty ladies.

Congressman and Mrs. Burkett have returned from Washington.

Miss Leonora Jackson, the American violiniste, who played before the Queen and the Royal Family at Windsor Monday, received from her Majesty a beautiful jeweled star bearing the crown and the Royal monogram.—London Morning Post, July 19, 1899.

Ladies you are missing a luxury within your reach, if you do not wear a Sorosis shoe. Webster & Rogers.

A large stock of Spring Millinery at Mrs. Gosper's. Will announce opening later. 1201 O street.

SPECIAL SALE FOR 10 DAYS.

MARCH 16 TO 26.

This is to be the great Bargain Event which every lady in Lincoln should take advantage of. We want every one in Lincoln to know just what class of goods we have and in order to interest you we will make

SPECIAL PRICES FOR TEN DAYS

On the following goods:

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR, HOSIERY, HANDKERCHIEFS, KID GLOVES, VEILINGS, NECKWEAR, BELTS, COLORED UNDERSKIRTS, BOTH COTTON AND SILK, COTTON AND SILK SHIRT-WAISTS, DRESS SKIRTS, WALKING SKIRTS, SUITS, JACKETS.

LINCOLN CLOAK & SUIT CO.

S.-E. COR. 13th & O STREETS.

City Improvement Windfall.

The City Improvement society met on Thursday morning in the reading-room of the Union-Commercial club. Mrs. Richardson delivered a message from members of the Omaha City Improvement society in regard to holding a conference either here or there to consult about the most effective methods of city improvement. The society appointed a committee to correspond with the Omaha society.

Mrs. Levering extended an offer from an anonymous lover of his kind of $150 to be expended by the society in prizes for the best kept lawns. The offer was immediately and enthusiastically accepted and a motion carried to send a vote of thanks to "this perfectly splendid unknown man."

A committee consisting of the president, Mrs. F. D. Levering, Mrs. L. C. Richards, Mrs. W. B. Ogden and Mrs. M. D. Welch was appointed to prepare plans for the exact conditions under which prizes for the best kept premises should be awarded.

The secretary reported in regard to the Carnival of Nations that the total receipts amounted to $965.06 Expenses 132.55

Net profit 833.51
In detail the report is very interesting:
Door receipts $530.25
Donations 27.00
Booth receipts 145.31
Market receipts 102.60
Check room receipts 1.40
Tickets 158.50

Total 8965.06

This result was accomplished by the remarkable energy and harmonious cooperation of the women of Lincoln. The society passed a vote of thanks to Mrs. Ogden, the originator of the idea, and to Mrs. Callen Thompson, the efficient manager of the market and finally to all the concessionaires of the booths who