

GRAND MILLINERY OPENING

OMAHA, NEBR.

BOSTON STORE
J. L. BRANDEIS & SONS
16th AND DOUGLAS STS. OMAHA

OMAHA, NEBR.

From Sunday, March 23, to Sunday, March 30.

SPECIAL INVITATION TO LINCOLN SOCIETY WOMEN

Ladies of Lincoln who desire the best in everything will be amply repaid for the journey to Omaha. We place on sale and exhibition a collection of Imported Pattern Hats, Conventional Hats and Street Hats.

That would be impossible to any other house but ours outside of New York City. The judgment and taste of our artists are unquestioned—and our foreign selections are marvels of the foremost milliners of Europe. Furthermore we have these Pattern Hats by the hundreds—where others show a scant half dozen. If you want up-to-date Hats, you must come to us.

J. L. BRANDEIS & SONS, Propr's.

BOSTON STORE, OMAHA.

and Mesdames Gray, Coffman, Ritter, Moebler, Blair; Misses Maude Hoover, Axelson, Carpenter; Messrs. McBride, Long, Jackson, Coffman, Bowen. Misses Shepherd, Scott, Cadman and Anderson assisted the hostess.

On Wednesday Mrs. H. J. Winnett gave a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Chas. A. Vaile of Baltimore, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. W. Caldwell. The luncheon decorations were pink and green. Guests were: Mesdames Vaile, Caldwell, Bessey, H. H. Wilson, Ward, Richards, Stevenson, Barbour, Taylor, Risser, Burr, Eames, John Fawell, Edgren, Shepherd, Noll, Kimball; Misses Burr and Risser.

Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Poynter, Misses Margaret Grimson and Winifred Chadwick were initiated into the mysteries and joys of Delta Delta Delta sorority. Twenty five members participated in the festivities. The banquet board was decorated with a profusion of flowers which were gifts from fraternity friends. Boxes of choice carnations were also tributary offerings.

The Woman's club of Milford was entertained at luncheon Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Eva Stump. Miss Stump was assisted by Mrs. J. H. Borden and Mrs. Will Runnells. At the close of the club meeting long pieces of colored tissue paper were distributed among the guests with which Easter bonnets were to be made and worn during the remainder of the afternoon. Mrs. O. L. Howard sang, and Miss Grace Rowe recited. The luncheon was served on small tables. The club colors, white and gold, were represented by white carnations and yellow ribbons.

A literary entertainment will be given by the club in the course of a few weeks, and it was voted to purchase two large pictures for the schools.

A company of university students danced at L. L. I. hall Friday evening. They were: Misses Dot Druse, Woodruff, Minnie Guile, Mabel Guile, Anthony, Gregory, Hess, Hull, Welle, Ledwith, Saultz, Cameron, Stratton, Hart-sough, Kocken, White, Stirling, Roper, Roper, Daly, Ashley, Chappell, Hensel, Reeves; Messrs. Edward Hanlon, Brackett, Brooke, Lipp, Neilson, Swain, Griffin, Sturtevant, Baker, Carr, Hunt, R. D. Anderson, W. E. Anderson, Evans, Childs, Barry, Roper, Peters, Jouvenat, Langer, Morris, Hewitt.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Munson gave a six handed euchre party Saturday evening in honor of Miss Hansen of Grand Island. Prizes were awarded to Mr. Caldwell and Miss Miller and to Mr. Underwood for shouting. Messrs. and Mesdames C. J. Guenzel, C. G. Underwood, Oscar Junge, F. B. Harris, S. C. Hoover, E. Bignell, Burt Richards; Misses Hansen, Miller of Aurora, Ill., and Mr. F. B. Caldwell, were the players.

The local chapter of the A. C. A. will meet with Mrs. Hardy, 1536 D street on March thirtieth, to listen to an address by Doctor Edgren on the Evolution of Universities.

The officers of the cadet battalion gave their annual ball Thursday night at Walsh hall, and it proved to be one of the pleasantest affairs of the year in University circles. The officers are: Commandant A. L. Baum, Lieutenant Drain; Company A, Captain H. L. Tu-key, Lieutenants Emmett and Stuhr; Company B, Captain Kind, Lieutenants Hull and Shane; Company C, Captain Langer, Lieutenants McGechin and McMaster; Company D, Captain Barnes, Lieutenants Hewitt and Barry.

The Lotos club met on Thursday with Mrs. Rhodes. Miss Harris read a very interesting account of house keeping in Manila, written by Mrs. James L. Taber, who spent last year there.

The Round Table met Monday evening with Mr. John E. Miller. "Are the Filipinos Rebels?" was discussed by Mr. J. H. Harley. Mr. Shepherd and Professor Lees were guests. The next meeting will be held at Mr. Lambertson's.

Andrew H. Thomas, son of L. M. Thomas of 1644 P street, has just returned from the Philippine islands. Mr. Thomas enlisted in the Fifty-first Iowa, company A, and on the return of the regiment from Iowa, he enlisted as corporal in troop B, Eleventh cavalry, and served eighteen months. He returned to San Francisco on the transport Mead, March 1.

The benefit for Miss Lora Holmes will be given on the ninth of April. Miss Holmes has a glorious voice which thrills every one who hears her sing. Her many friends in Lincoln welcome the opportunity to help her attain success in a career for which she has such great talent.

Saturday Delta Upsilon received these new members: Messrs. Ed Walton, Ray Hummel, Harry Benedict, J. Kanzler, Charles Lussier, John Wilson. A banquet at the chapter house followed the initiation.

Clarence E. Wright, a former student of the state university, was married to Miss Flora Eivira at Gibbon, Nebraska, a few days ago. Mr. Wright left the university when he joined the First Nebraska.

Gregory, The Coal Man, 11th & O.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Morrill and Miss Morrill are in the City of Mexico, where they will remain for a month.

Mr. W. J. Bryan celebrated his birthday by a dinner to intimate friends on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ransom of Omaha and the Misses Crouse attended the legislature on Monday.

W. Fairfield, the winner in the Nebraska-Minnesota story-writing contest, returned from Minneapolis on Monday.

Mrs. R. T. Van Brunt is the guest at Beatrice of Mrs. Winslow Van Brunt.

Miss Hortense Clark of Omaha, who attended the Delta Gamma birthday party, was the guest of Miss Irene Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Kellner and the Misses Kellner gave a euchre party Friday evening. Miss Franck, Miss Friend, Mr. H. Mayer, M. Rosebaum won prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd entertained the Four Fours last evening at their home, 1630 O street.

The opening of fine millinery at Mrs.