NEW SUITS AT LESS THAN HALF.

We bought a lot of cloths, enough to make 50 suits, from a man who had more cloth than he could well dispose of. We turned this over to a suit maker with instructions to procure for us the very best suits the cloth was worthy of and now we offer the finished product for your approval. They come in good quality homespun and cheviot, double-breasted and fly-front short jackets, 7-gored skirts, flare effect at bottom, fancy mercerized lining; colors navy blue, brown, tan, grey and black, all sizes up to 44. If you don't want to wear the suit complete, you'll find the jacket very convenient for cool days and evenings, and the skirt may be worn with shirt waists. There are many suits shown for $10.00 that are no better than these and plenty not nearly so good. Our special price for the whole suit Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, or while they last.....$3.97

KID GLOVES.

LINCOLN, NEBR.

The range of the departments from philanthropy to French in a great measure seemed to take the place of the federation, and when it was decided not to hold regular sessions of the federation it was decided that the federation should be subject to the call of the president of the Woman's club. The wisdom of such a conclusion was made manifest, when it was our privilege to entertain the state federation. A call brought together the presidents of the various clubs and the business pertaining to the entertainment of the guests was soon dispatched.

There should be some medium of exchange between the clubs of Lincoln. If the clubs keep their thoughts within their own circle, corners are created and I know of no better way to break up these intellectual "corners" and put the good thoughts on the market than to have a federation meeting here in Lincoln, with a practical program thickly interspersed with wit and song and enjoy together for a few days the delights of club fellowship.

MATINEE MUSICALE.

On Monday afternoon the active members of the Matinee Musicale held a business meeting after the program and elected officers for the season of 1901 and 1902. President, Mrs. D. M. Butler; vice president, Miss Haywood; recording secretary, Mrs. Henry B. Ward; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. S. Raymond; treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Jansen; librarian, Mrs. August Hagenow; auditor, Mrs. E. Lewis Baker. Mrs. John Doane, the delegate to the national convention of musical clubs at Cleveland, from April 30 to May 3, had already been elected at a special meeting held last week. Miss Annie L. Miller was elected as alternate. An amendment to the constitution proposing to raise the dues of active members to three dollars, to include artists' recitals, which was read for the first time at the called meeting, met with such opposition that not one vote was recorded in its favor.

Announcement was made that the next meeting falling on April 15, will be an open meeting and will be held at the university in soldiers' memorial hall. The recital will be entirely free not only to club members, but to any one in the city who cares to attend.

"Flower Music" was the subject of the program which was arranged by Miss Ella O. Givens, leader of the third division. The numbers were exceedingly pretty although, as the president suggested, it seemed like an April joke to have the spring music with the snow falling outside. The program:

"Spring Flowers," Keenecke; Mrs. E. Lewis Baker, (flute obligato, Mr. Baker.)
Piano—Amaranthus, Gilder; Mrs. S. H. Rathbone.

"Heartsease," Harry McLellan; Miss Florence Robinson.
"The Mission of a Rose," F. H. Cowen; Mrs. R. A. Holyoke.

Piano—To a Water Lily, Op. 51, No. 6, To a Wild Rose, Op. 51, No. 1, MacDowell; Miss Mary Kettering.

a. "The Forget-me-not," Suppe; b. "Clover Blossoms," Clara Kathleen Rogers; Mrs. John B. Wright.

Frio—"Violets," Curshmann; Mrs. Holyoke, Mrs. Sanderson, Mrs. Baker. Miss Ella O. Givens, accompanist.

NOTICE TO CLUB WOMEN.

If you are a subscriber to the Courier, loan this copy to a non subscriber in order that the general committees and the efforts, plans and aspirations of Madame the President of the State Federation may become familiar to the clubs of the state. Mrs. Smith suggests that the reports and business in this week's Courier be read by the secretary of each club to the assembled members. As there is no year book this year, it is very difficult for the president and board of directors to communicate with the clubs and she is anxious to make full use of this opportunity.

Mrs. Smith has denied herself the pleasure and convenience of a year book in order to use the money for the club extension work which has so brilliantly characterized and made notable her administration. The general circulation of this number among all the club women of the state is therefore her earnest wish.

ORTHODOXY IN KANSAS.

The liquor men are orthodox
In Kansas:
They are brought to it by blows and knocks
In Kansas:
In every class and station
They believe beyond negation
In the doctrine of Dam Nation,
And they're praying for salvation
