

Plym. Informal toasts. The following graduate and active members were present: Doctor E. A. Ross, Reverend Aea Sleeth, Professor T. L. Lyon, Professor Maggi, Messrs. R. E. Moore, W. L. Unzicker, A. H. Sheldon, Francis J. Plym, Charles E. Barber, W. M. Hopewell, A. C. Pancoast, George Kimball, C. H. Adams, Charles E. Wells, Roy B. Adams, Edward R. Harvey, Tannies Johnson, Charles F. Mann, James McGeachin Leonard E. Hurtz, Claire R. Mudge, Fred F. Hurtz and Fred M. Sanders. An alumni association was organized of which Mr. R. E. Moore was made president and Mr. Francis J. Plym secretary.

Mrs. O. J. Wilson and Mrs. Ida Bennett entertained the Battenburg club Friday afternoon at the home of the former. American Beauties and Easter lillies adorned the house. The library was converted into a studio where Mrs. Bennett's paintings were exhibited. Names of popular books were illustrated by drawings and each lady who guessed all of the names correctly was rewarded with a rose. A luncheon was served to Meedames Sanderson, C. E. Sanderson, Henry Sanderson, Catrill, Coningham, McNab, Leonard, McAlphine, Robinson, Kit-hen, Gillilan, Shockey, Rugh, Stuchel, Leonard, Pomerene, Whiting, Yoho, Shank, Miltonberger, Shute; Misses Pietzner, Robinson, Davis, Minor.

Miss Emma Bennett gave a progressive crokinole party Friday evening at 1836 Washington street. Easter lillies and American Beauties decorated the rooms. The guests were. Misses Ada Stuchel, Maude Cornell, Lida Gaylord, Gertrude Peters, Harriet Bardwell, Mae Bardwell, Bee Billingsley, Maude McAlpine, Frances Huntington, Emma Bennett; Messrs. Ben Mills, Roy Miltonberger, Tim Whiting, Clare Cornell, Will Woodworth, Clayton Beck, Fritz Gardiner, George Bromfield, Gay Shiels.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. E. E. Spencer and Mrs. R. M. LeGore entertained at six handed euchre. The following were invited: Meedames Harley, Hinman, Hardy, Munger, Jones, Kelley, Lees, Pound, Love, Lane, Robbins, Spaulding, Van Brunt, Tilton, Young, Atwood, Stevenson, Bishop, Chambers, Casebeer, Cone, Cunningham, Crandall, Crittenden, Dorgan, Dorgan, Herrick, Eames, Davis, Howell, Finch, Helwig, Keefer, Laymon, McCreery, Nash, North, Peckham, Nelson, Powers, Reed, Rankins, Seiter, Stonebraker, Hammond, Turner, Wilkinson, Stone, Whiting, Miltonberger, Berge, Garoutte Warner, Rudge, Clark, Reese, Link, Fisher, Hardy, Taylor, Harpham, Webster, Babcock, Evans, Green, A. L. Hoover, Gund; Misses Hammond, Hammond, Bryas, Risser, Smith, Johnson, Chambers, Cunningham, Nance, Pound, Polk.

The last open meeting of the Matinee Musicales will be held in Memorial hall, University of Nebraska, on Tuesday evening, April the sixteenth, instead of the fifteenth, Inst., as previously mentioned. The concert to be given will be free to the general public and all those interested in the club or in music are invited to be in attendance. A program of choice selections has been arranged, including solos by Mrs. R. A. Holyoke, Miss Lora Holmes, Mrs. Will Owen Jones, Miss Marie Hoover, Miss Ina Eosign, Miss Lillian Eiche and others. In addition, the chorus, under the direction of Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond, will render several numbers. Club members and others interested will please observe the change of date from Monday to Tuesday evening.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Fling gave a card party. Invited guests were: Messrs. and Meedames Allen, Baird, Henry Branch, Berge, Burkett, Barber, Curtice, Davis, Eubank, Frost, Garoutte, Freeman, F. W. Hill, Harpham, Hays, Hoover, Kellogg, Lowry, Klinker, Levering, Miller, Morning, Muller, Stearns, S. B. Pound, Sine, Irvine, Usher, Evans, Arnett, Marshall, Rewick, Norris, Fling, Goodell, Kirby, Haight of Crete, Mrs. Buck of Crete, Mrs. Jennings of Wilber; Misses Barber, Spade, Kirker, Tibbetts; Messrs. Barber, Marlay.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Wilcox gave a four course dinner Saturday evening to the children of Mr. Wilcox's Sabbath school class. Downy chickens, cunning birds' nests and other suggestions of Easter decorated the table where the guests were: Misses Katrina Jaques, Ruth Martin, Ruth Watson, Ethel Jackson, Gouldine Frost, Edna Brown, Ethel Newbecker; Masters John Hyer Miller, Floyd, Harry and Marion McAlpine, Henry Pomerene and Dean McBrien.

Cards have been received by Mr. Ralph Johnson's friends, announcing his marriage in Philadelphia on Wednesday, April the twenty-fourth, to Miss Augusta Virginia Voigt, daughter of Mrs. Marie Louise Voigt. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home in Lincoln at 880 North Twenty-sixth street, after June the sixth. Mr. Johnson has lived in Lincoln many years, is an alumnus of the State university and a well known attorney.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Spaulding of Sioux City, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter Susan, to Mr. Fred Jay White, to occur in Saint Thomas' Episcopal church in Sioux City, Wednesday evening, April the twenty fourth. Miss Spaulding has visited in Lincoln and has friends among the society people here. Mr. White is a brother of Mrs. Lewis Marshall.

Mrs. A. R. Mitchell gave for Helene Mitchell on Saturday afternoon a dinner and then a box party to hear Mr. Ernest Seton-Thompson. That particular box never bloomed more gayly than on last Saturday afternoon when it was occupied by Misses Helene Mitchell, Helen Berger, Katharine Rhodes, Eleanor Barbour, Louise Bennet of Omaha, and Dorrance Harwood.

Mrs. W. J. Turner entertained the L. A. kensington on Monday and her guests spent a delightful afternoon. The club members present were: Meedames Van Brunt, Wilkinson, Patrick, Rewick, Chapin, Davis, Kennard, Pitcher, Humphrey, Campbell, Billmeyer, Jones, Seacrest. The guests invited were: Meedames Hutchins, R. M. Turner, M. Scott, George Fawell, Tomson, Stoney, Polk, Irwin of Quincy, and Miss Polk.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Green gave a pleasant card party on Monday evening. Sixty guests played six handed euchre. Mrs. John B. Wright won the ladies' royal prize, Mrs. E. L. Holyoke the shouting prize, Mr. E. E. Brown the men's royal prize and Mr. A. S. Raymond the shouting prize.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burr gave a dinner Wednesday evening. The dining room and table decorations were pink. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Marshall, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Ashton of Grand Island, Miss Miles of Iowa, and Miss Gahan.

Mrs. A. B. Cooper entertained the Aloha club on Tuesday at her home, 1920 G street. The house was decorated with roses, carnations and ferns. The guests were: Meedames E. Baldwin, E. B. Stevenson, A. D. Benway, John Bishop, Bumstead, Flansburg, Garoutte, Laffin, Longstreet, W. Morse, Elmer Perkins, Frank Perkins, Rockewell, Snyder, W. Tuttle, Warner, Dwiggins, Wiesse, and Miss Damrow.

Married, on Wednesday morning in St. Theresa's Pro-Cathedral by Father

H. Herpolsheimer Co

THE ANNUAL SALE OF EMBROIDERIES AND LACES
BEGAN ON THURSDAY, APRIL 11.

Our own importations of factory ends of the finest cambric embroideries and insertions, bought for a whole lot less than their real worth and offered here the same way. All come in very desirable lengths and the patterns are the newest and prettiest of the season's productions. Here are some of the offerings:

LOT 1—Cambric embroidery, 8c value, sale price, per yard.....	5c
LOT 2—Cambric edges, worth to 15c, sale price, per yard.....	9c
LOT 3—Cambric edges and insertions, worth to 20c, sale price, per yard.....	12½c
LOT 4—Wide cambric embroidery, 25c values, sale price, per yard.....	16½c

LACES—A lot of imitation Val. laces in 12 yd. pieces, worth 35c, sale price; pr piece... 20c

A lot of imitation Torchon laces, worth to 15c a yard, sale price, per yard..... 5c

We're sole Lincoln agents for Buttericks Patterns and Publications. Yunka black silks are absolutely guaranteed. Sold only at this store.

H. Herpolsheimer Co

LINCOLN, NEBR.

HUTCHINS & HYATT,
SELECT OAK AND HICKORY WOOD
SAWED ANY LENGTH

LAWYERS-- Send The Courier your LEGAL NOTICES files are kept in fire proof buildings.

Cycle Photographs
Athletic Photographs
Photographs of Babies
Photographs of Groups
Exterior Views

Clements
THE PHOTOGRAPHER
— 129 South Eleventh Street.

Hewitt—Are you a believer in vaccination?
Jewett—Most certainly; it kept my daughter from playing the piano for nearly a week.

J. F. HARRIS,
No. 1, Board of Trade,
CHICAGO.

STOCKS
—AND—
BONDS
Grain, Provisions, Cotton.

PAPER HANGING
PAINTING,
Furniture
Polishing.
Twenty eight years experience as an inside decorator. Reasonable prices.
CARL MYRER, 2612 Q
Phone 5232.

Private Wires to New York City and Many Cities East and West.

MEMBER
New York Stock Exchange.
Chicago Stock Exchange.
Chicago Board of Trade