

and A streets, and this will be the starting point hereafter in the game instead of Twenty-seventh and A streets as heretofore. The club house is the house on what was known as the Hackney ten-acre tract of land in this vicinity. In addition a locker house for the gentlemen has been built.

An interesting and helpful address was given to the patrons of the Bancroft school by Mrs. Belle M. Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth, on Tuesday afternoon. The subject was "The influence of the mother," and to this early and persistent influence of mother love the successful careers of many writers and statesmen were easily traced. A piano solo by Miss Maine and two beautiful songs by Miss Currie formed the musical part of the program. A similar address was given to the patrons of the Belmont school at the Butler avenue church on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Stoutenborough declares that these patrons' meetings have been carried out more successfully in Lincoln than in any other city in the state.

Married, on Tuesday evening, Mr. Will H. Love and Mrs. Sarah A. Ward. The ceremony was performed by the Reverend L. P. Ludden, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Moore, a sister of the bride. Mr. Love is well known in Lincoln and Nebraska, having served several terms as grand record keeper of the Knights of Pythias. Mr. and Mrs. Love will occupy the new home at the corner of Seventeenth and M streets.

Miss Clara Walsh, who has been studying in Paris, has made a reputation among the hundreds of art students studying there. In the recent exhibition of the American Girls' Art club, one of Miss Walsh's pictures received an especial comment in the paper for its strength and force.

The tennis association grounds at Fifteenth and C streets have been put in order and playing has been resumed for the summer season. Four good dirt courts are in service, accommodating all of the members of the club and leaving a little room for the expansion of the membership.

The third Artist recital of the Matinee Musicale will be held in the club rooms, Twelfth and N streets, Monday, April the twenty-ninth, at 8:15 P. M. Mr. Oscar Gareissen, whose magnificent bass voice has been heard here with pleasure on a previous occasion, will present a charming program. Friends of the club and all music lovers are urged to attend. Admission twenty-five cents.

Mrs. Elmer Calvin Merrill entertained the Kismet club at the home of her brother, Mr. O. E. Rector, on Wednesday evening. The guests present were: Messrs. and Mesdames George Woods, Mark Woods, Frank Woods, Morrison, Dorgan, Crancer, and Curtice; Misses Marshall, Hollowbush, Burr, Putnam and Mrs. Miller; Messrs. Honeywell, Kennard, Montgomery, Holmes, Paine, Baldwin and Smith. Prizes were awarded to Miss Hollowbush and Mr. Crancer.

Fifty Nebraskans attended the annual banquet of the University Alumni club at Hotel Victoria, Chicago, on Saturday evening. Doctor Curtis, former pastor of the Lincoln Presbyterian church, was one of the speakers. Chancellor Andrews addressed the club on the subject, "The University." Souvenir buttons were sent to the banquet by the engineering department.

Mrs. W. G. L. Taylor entertained at luncheon on Thursday in honor of Miss Allen of Cambridge, Massachusetts. Those present were: Miss Allen, Mrs. Morgan Brooks, Madame Brooks, Miss Eather Brooks and Miss Heron.

Doctor and Mrs. C. E. Beesey, 1504 S street, gave a dinner on Monday in honor of Doctor and Mrs. A. H. Edgren. The table decorations were carnations and ferns. The guests: Doctor and Mrs. Edgren, Professor and Mrs. Barbour, Messrs. and Mesdames Geor. Fossler, Teeters, Miss Conklin and Doctor Lowry.

The Tuesday Night club held their last party on Tuesday at Walsh hall. Mr. and Mrs. Lacey chaperoned: Misses Clara Hammond, Darleen Woodward, Lois Burress, Bess Burress, Jessica Morgan, Lulu Wirt, Mabel Richards, Post, Gladys Henry, May Honeywell, Letha Daniels, Fan Cunningham, Jeanette Thorpe, Blanch Emmons, Chapin, McHenry, Fannie Cole, McPheely; Messrs. Marlay, Hunger, Everett, Kennard, Woodruff, Von Mansfelde, Ricketts, Cartneli, Andrews, Panoast, Morrison, Norval, Schick, O. W. Brown, Raymond, Drain, Paine, Clark.

Mr. F. A. Harrison spent part of the week in Lincoln. Since the close of the legislature Mr. Harrison has taken a much needed vacation, visiting in Grand Island, Pawnee City and a couple of days at Lake Bigelow, Missouri.

Mesdames Hunter and Hindman entertained the South and Southwest circles of the First Presbyterian church at the home of the latter, 1330 F street on Tuesday evening.

The Saturday Night club will give its closing party of the season at Walsh's hall today. The party will be a cotillion.

Professor and Mrs. W. G. L. Taylor will give a dinner this evening in honor of Doctor and Mrs. Edgren.

Married, at Trinity parsonage, on Monday morning, Mr. Lawrence L. Fowler and Miss Ruby E. Roberts. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler will live at Firth, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Bowen of Boston, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lee, left on Tuesday for their home.

The Candle-light club met on Monday evening at the Lindell hotel. Dr. Bullock of the Vine Congregational church discussed the civil laws of Moses.

The senior promenade, the final large social function in university circles, will be given in the auditorium on Friday, May the third.

Miss Sadie Burnham returned on last Sunday in sound health and good spirits from a trip abroad. Her passage was comparatively smooth and she enjoyed it though not entirely free from mal de mer.

Miss Pound and Miss Barr entertain this afternoon at the latter's home the officials of the recent girls' basket-ball tournament. Eventual good feeling is the finale of the tournament much to the satisfaction of everyone concerned. It was a different interpretation of the rules rather than any misapplication that caused some discussion.

Mr. J. S. Baer, deputy clerk of the district court, returned on Wednesday afternoon from Lenora, Kansas, where he was called a little over a week ago to the bedside of his father, who was dangerously ill. When he was ready to return his father was improving, though far from being well.

The latest announcements of appointments of lieutenants in the regular army from Washington include the following Nebraska men: Messrs. Henry M. Morrow, Omaha; Clarence C. Culver, Milford; Wallace C. Taylor, Omaha; Orville R. Perry, Grand Island; Lewis S. Ryan, Lincoln; Charles C. Pullie, Alma; William G. Doane, Omaha; William S. Mapee, Nebraska City. Nearly all are well known in Lincoln. Mr. Clarence Culver is the son of Captain Cul-

Three Days of SPECIAL SELLING

Beginning MONDAY—Here's a collection of bargain offerings made possible by the advantage we've taken of over-crowded manufacturers. They've sacrificed their wares now rather than later, and as always, we share the benefit with you.

WASH GOODS.

Lawns, corded and plain weaves, 27 inches wide (10 yards to a customer only), while they last, per yard..... 2c

All the 10c dimities, 32 inches wide, per yd. 6½c

All remnants in this department, including some of our very best wash goods, this sale....

.....HALF OFF

DOMESTICS.

Dress style gingham, 27 inches wide, worth 9c (10 yards to a customer) this sale, per yard..... 3¾c

Galetia ducking and summer suiting, worth to 20c, in one lot, this sale, per yard..... 7¾c

Unbleached muslin, 36 in. wide (10 yards to a customer), per yard..... 4c

NEW WAISTS, SUITS, ETC.—SPECIALS.

A small assortment of taffeta silk waists, golf plaids and red mercerized, broken line of sizes, to close the entire lot, while they last, each... 97

Spring Jackets, women's and misses', assorted colors, broken line of sizes, some box style, Eton effect and a few tight-fitting garments, all in one lot and on sale regardless of former prices, each $2.75

Two lots of new suits to close at a most unusual discount:

LOT 1—Suits in black, oxford, brown mixtures and a few navy blues, various sizes, but the range is broken, made of different cloths, but all of the very latest cut, on sale three days, regardless of former prices, each $6.75

LOT 2—Suits of assorted styles and sizes in fine all wool cloths, such as cheviots, Venetian, ladies' cloth and fine suiting—colors only, such as brown, oxford mixtures and blue; there are some remarkable values here, choice $9.50

LINENS.

Turkish bath towels, each 4c

Cream cotton towels, this sale, each 6c

All pure linen huck towels, 23x45 inches, worth every cent of and have been sold for 50c, this sale—each 27c

You ought to see our showing of white goods.

UNDERWEAR.

Women's taped vests, sleeveless, worth 9c, for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, each..... 5c

Women's pure white vests, light weight, long sleeves, best 25c grade, this sale, each 15c

Women's summer union suits, knee length, worth 25c, this sale, each... 12½c

Women's very elaborate lace front vests, 25c grade, each 19c

A. Herpolsheimer Co

LINCOLN, NEBR.

