On Monday evening the alumnae members of Pi Beta Phi entertained the active members at the home of Miss Barber, 1700 B street. A two-act farce entitled "The Best Laid Plans" was presented with great eclat, and was a complete surprise to the guests. The house is admirably arranged for the production of a play, and the costumes added much to the attractiveness of the scene. At the conclusion of the farce music was furnished by Misses Burruss, Bees Burruss, Stuart, Ashmun and Reynolds, and ice cream, strawberries and cake were served by the hostesses. The alumnae members are Misses Kyle, Barber, Stuart, Lennie Stuart, Emerson, Marshall, McGahey, Reynolds, Morris, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Lacey. The active members are Misses Thomas, Montgomery, Sedgwick, Minnie Jussen, McPheeley, Robinson, Andrews, Henry, Heacock, McGahey, Waugh, Burruss, Bees Burruss, Ashmun, Woodward and Jussen.

The wedding of Miss Florence Maule and Mr. Frederick Curtis Cooley will take place at noon Wednesday, in St. Mark's church, Rev. John H. Houghton officiating. Miss Maule has been a member of St. Mark's choir for several years and the full vested choir will sing the wedding march from Lohengrin. The church will be decorated in pink and white. The bride will be gowned in white and will wear a long white veil. She will carry a prayer-book. Miss Frances Maule, sister of the bride, will be her only attendant. She will wear a pink gown and carry pink roses. The ushers, best men and many of the guests will come from Nebraska, where the bride and groom both graduated at the state university. The wedding breakfast, which was to have followed the ceremony, was given up, owing to the sudden death of Mrs. Maule's brother. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cooley will take a wedding trip, and on their return will be at home to their friends in the Highlands.—Denver Times.

The end of the season for the Thirteen club of St. Paul, Nebraska, was marked by a dinner at the home of Mrs. Rowell on Tuesday evening of last week. The club colors, black and orange, appeared in the decorations, while a grinning skull and open umbrellas overhead showed that the faith was strong. Each guest received the emblem of the club, a black cat, as a souvenir. The club members and their guests were seated thirteen at a table. After dinner a literary and musical program entertained the guests. As each one departed she was required to step over a broom stick lying on the floor in order to insure a life of celibacy. Feeling that she had all to gain and nothing to lose, each one calmly took this final test of sincere intention to remain free and equal, with but a single exception. One guest whose matrimonial stock has recently shown a decided rise in value, refused to take any unnecessary risks, and went around the broomstick.

On Saturday evening occurred the fourteenth annual banquet of Beta Theta Pi.
