

and Miss Hallett. Mesdames Herron, O. C. Bell, Frank Lahr and Stewart helped entertain in the back parlor. The dining room decorations were in red. Mrs. Fred Hallett and Mrs. E. B. Finney served at the table, assisted by Mrs. Julian Sutter and Misses Heaton, Bell and Poynter. The punch room was decorated in pink and white. Miss Henrietta Hawley was assisted in serving by Mrs. C. H. Warner and Mrs. Will Sawyer. The guests were shown to the punch room by Mrs. Ray Hussong and Miss Erlenborn.

Master Roy Turner gave a lawn party last week Friday afternoon. Misses Jessie and Ruby Turner, Myri Carter and Lola Lyton served refreshments to the following guests: Misses Stella Hollister, Theo Jennings, Leona Johnson, Grace Ensey, Veda Patch, Dorothy Trowbridge, Addie Closer, Alta Lyton, Ina Kirkpatrick, Lottie Grimm; Masters Paul Hunter, Richard Guthrie, Roy Lincoln, Walter Loomis, Raleigh Wilson, Ralph Ensey, Ralph and Myron Loomis, Charlie Elmons, Carl Supp, Willie Clark, Harrison Kirkpatrick, Lester Carter, Charlie Parks, George Leonard, Fred Diefendorf, Clell Johnson and Harry Watson.

The Round Table met last Monday evening at the home of Mr. E. T. Hartley. The subject under consideration was "Ethics of Shakspeare," and the discussion was led by Mr. Sawyer. Those present were Judge Cornish, Rev. Lewis Gregory, Drs. Hill, Lowry, Rowlands, Stein; Messrs. Whedon, Watkins, Lewis, Miller, Lambertson, Hall, Gere, Brown, Sawyer, Hartley and Judge Tibbetts. The next meeting will be held in two weeks at the home of Mr. Henry Lewis, when the most effective means of dealing with the liquor problem will be discussed.

The Delian girls paid their debt of honor to the Delian boys last week Friday evening at 1436 S street, by giving a "feed" at which the following menu was enjoyed: Gefrosenes Wasser. Kuchen. Erdbeeren und Raum. Nusse. Punsch. Miss Susie Doane, toastmistress, called for the following response: "Delian Girls," Mr. Boomer; "Delian Boys," Miss Countryman; "Congratulations," Miss Pillsbury; "Beauty vs. Brains," Mr. Batic; "Some Stand Betwixt Love and Duty," Mr. Morrill; "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," Mr. Garrett; "Till We Meet Again," Miss Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Fancher entertained the Wisconsin Veterans' association at their pretty new home, 1345 Rose street, last week Thursday evening. Strawberries and cake were served by Mrs. Fancher, assisted by Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Bax. Music was furnished by Misses Gertrude Ager and Glen Fancher, and army songs were sung by the whole company. Stories and anecdotes were told, and a short address was made by the president, Comrade Truell. The association will hold its June meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Crow.

High school hall was filled to overflowing Wednesday by friends of the eighth grade pupils who will enter the high school next year. Certificates were presented to 317 pupils by Vice President George A. Adams of the board of education. Music was furnished by choruses under the direction of Professor W. L. Sheetz, and an address on the subject "How Not to Succeed" was given by Professor E. A. Ross of the university.

Married, on Thursday evening, May the thirtieth, Miss Carrie Elizabeth Stearns to Mr. William P. Jackson, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Frank L. Everts. Doctor W. H. Hindman performed the ceremony. All the members of the Q. A. T. club of which the bride is a member, assisted, and the club colors, pink and red, decorated the house. A mandolin club played the wedding marches and other music. About a hundred guests were invited.

A pianola recital was given by the Daughters of the King, of Holy Trinity church on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rudge, for the benefit of the church mortgage fund. The program was:

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-------------|
| Il Bacio | Arditi |
| Capriccio Brillante, Op. 22 | Mendelssohn |
| Rondo No. 20 in A minor | Mozart |
| Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 2 | Liszt |
| La Campanella | Paganini |
| La Polka, de la Reine, Op. 95 | Raff |
| Mignot, No. 2 | Paderewski |
| Fantasia from Barber of Seville | Leybach |
| From the Carnival, Op. 19, No. 3 | Grieg |
| Entr' Acte Gavotte | Gillet |
| Rhapsodie Hongroise, No. 6 | Liszt |

Senator Dietrich has received an invitation to join a congressional party on a trip around the world in a government transport. The party will leave New York June 20, being absent four months. Senator Dietrich has not yet accepted the invitation, owing to his reluctance to being away for so long a time. Congressman Mercer will be one of the party.

Mrs. L. W. Pomerene entertained the principal and teachers of the Prescott school, Misses Dewell, Kennard, Lally and Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wurzburg at dinner on Wednesday evening. The guests were furnished a musical treat in the evening by Mr. and Mrs. Wurzburg, who gave several vocal and piano numbers in their usual artistic manner.

Mrs. A. E. Stebbins, her daughter, Mrs. William C. Wilson, and Master Howard Wilson, attended the wedding of Mr. W. P. Stebbins and Miss McFadden of McCool, Wednesday evening. The wedding was a quiet one, only the members of the families being present. Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins will spend the next year at McCool.

Professor and Mrs. W. G. L. Taylor gave a card party on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Minor and Miss Daisy Minor. The entertainment was six handed euchre, and flowers were given instead of prizes. Miss Houtz received a wreath of roses, and Mr. John Kind a bouquet of jessamine and sweet peas. Punch was served during the evening, and refreshments at the close of the game.

The Daughters of the American Revolution gave their annual reception at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sawyer yesterday afternoon. The house was elaborately decorated with flags and flowers. Among the guests were the members of the school board and their wives, Dr. Davenport and Dr. Gordon.

Lieutenant Frank Burr, who is now in the Philippines under General Grant, will soon be promoted to a captaincy in the regular army as a reward for faithful service. Lieutenant Burr gave valuable aid to the army as commander of a company of scouts, and on several other occasions has won recognition.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright gave a seven-course dinner Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dawee. Japanese decorations were in the dining room; the plate cards were little Japanese fans, and the ice cream was in the form of Japanese figures with umbrellas over their heads. Covers were laid for twenty-four.

Married on Wednesday evening, May the twenty ninth, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. P. Swain, 741 North Fifteenth street, Miss Daisy L. Bates, daughter of General and Mrs. Delevan Bates of Aurora, to Mr. Lloyd E. Tunison, of the same place.

Married, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kepler, Wednesday

BRIDAL GIFTS

Rich Cut Glass,
Art-Ware,
China.

Among the most suitable articles are many exquisite pieces:

BELMONT CUTTING.

PITKIN & BROOKS' CUT GLASS.

Graceful in outline, perfect in execution and so fine as to rival any work of art. Designs and forms suitable for all uses. Every piece warranted to be perfect and guaranteed to retain its wonderful brilliancy.

Rose Bowls, Berry Bowls, Decanters, Cologne Bottles, Vases, Bon-Bon, Cruets.

Haviland & Co. Timoges, Haviland Real Cloisonne Enamel, Louwelsaweller Ware.

RUDGE & GUENZEL CO.

1118-1128 N St.
LINCOLN, NEBR.

Complete Home Furnishers.

BEAUTIES--The New 1901

PREMO Cameras.

Call and See them

D. E. DePUTRON,
117 No. 11th St. - - Lincoln.

The Season's Best Goods Always in Stock.	A. GEISTLINGER, Wholesale and Retail BAKERY. 912 P Street. - - - Phone 142.
---	--

Preferences

WE long ago learned that to argue against a woman's preferences was a mere waste of time—consequently we never try. We sell every good sort of typewriter in its best form. One of these will suit your requirements. Plenty of unbiased advice, however, if you require it.

P. E. ALMOND,

1106 O Street . . . Telephone 769

LINCOLN, NEBR.