SOCIETY

The Nebraska branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae will meet on next Tuesday, June the eleventh, at half after two, with Miss Harwood, 1618 L street. The program: Social Life at Oxford, Mrs. Taylor; Educational Features of Oxford, Miss Tremaine; Graduate Work in Berlin, Miss Chamberlain; Graduate Work in Heidelberg, Miss Pound. Business meeting. All who are eligible to the general association are invited.

Kappa Theta chapter of Delta Gamma entertained the seniors at a six course dinner on Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Jessie Lansing. The table was decorated with clematis, white peonies and green candles, while roses were used in profusion throughout the house. The place cards were in the fraternity colors, pink, blue and bronze, and were ornamented with four leaved clovers. The members of Kappa Theta chapter are Mrs. Edmiston, Mrs. Frank Woods, Misses Garten, Dewese, Polk, Webster, Haggard, Wing, Cochrane, Lansing, Starrett, Rice, Millikin, Dennis, Welch and Harwood. The seniors are Misses Cole, Tukey, Jackson and Abbott. Miss West of Baltimore and Mrs. Fisher were also guests.

On Saturday evening at the First Congregational church, occurred the marriage of Miss Helen Eddy Woods to Mr. Archibald Louis Haecker. The church decorations were elaborate and very beautiful. Palms were massed in front of the organ and formed an arch over the bridal party. In place of the pulpit was a mound of pink and white roses, and torch bouquets of pink and white carnations adorned the ribbons marking the reserved pews. A delightful program of organ music was rendered by Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond while the guests were assembling. Soft music also was played during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed forth in triumph as the wedding party passed from the church to the carriages. Miss Mabel Hays, the maid of honor, wore a gown of American Beauty color and carried white roses. The bridesmaids, Misses Elfleda Haecker, Jessie Lansing, Fanny Cole and Ethel Tukey were gowned in pink with bouquets of pink roses. The ring bearer was Miss Eugenia Woods, who was dressed in white. Mr. Ernest Wiggenhorn was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Lansing, Edgar Morrill, Edgar Clark, Harry G. Shedd, George Shedd and Fred Cuscadea. The bride, who entered on the arm of her father, Colonel Woods, was exquisitely attired in white embroidered crepe with garnitures of duchesse lace. Her veil fell gracefully to the end of her long train, and she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. Members of the Delta Gamma and Phi Kappa Psi fraternities attended in a body, and were seated at the sides of the family party. A reception was given later to two hundred guests at the home of Colonel and Mrs. Woods. The dining room was elaborately decorated with smilax and meteor roses, while the other rooms were beautiful with pink and white decorations. A dainty two course luncheon was served by Mrs. Peter Lau and Miss Nelia Cochrane, assisted by Misses Louise Tukey, Clara Milliken, Anne Minor and Blanche Garten. The guests were received by Colonel and Mrs.

Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Haecker, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woods. Mrs. George Woods and Mrs. Mark Woods assisted in entertaining the guests, and punch was served on the porch by Miss Edith Jackson and Miss Maude Macomber. Music was furnished by an orchestra throughout the evening.

A beautiful garden party was given on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eli Plummer by Mrs. Plummer and Mrs. T. Lyttleton Lyon. Flags and bright colored scarfs were hung among the trees; rugs, cushions and chairs were scattered over the beautiful grounds, while on the porch, which was also supplied with rugs and cushions, Miss Helen Burr of New York, received her friends and delighted the guests with her beautiful playing on the harp. At a long table Mrs. W. J. Bryan poured coffee and Mrs. Eames and Mrs. Ogden served strawberries and cream, assisted by Mesdames Burnett, Phillips, Maddux, Yates, McLaughlin of Omaha, and Misses Harwood, McAlpine, Clarke, Rogers and Lippincott. Mrs. Toevs and Miss Frances Gere served punch from a smaller table. Dainty cakes in the shape of fruit were served.

Miss Julia Moore Yeaman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Yeaman, of Henderson, Kentucky, and Mr. Ernest Harlan Houghton, of Chicago, were united in marriage last evening at nine o'clock. The ceremony was pronounced by the Reverend M. V. P. Yeaman of St. Louis, brother of the bride, in the Second Presbyterian church of Henderson. Mrs. William Marshall, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mr. Leroy Pursel Sawyer of Chicago, best man. The maids of honor were: Miss Marie Louise McMurtry of Louisville, Kentucky, and Miss Kate Sneed, Miss Georgia Clark and Miss Marianna Sneed of Henderson, Kentucky. The ushers were: Mr. Edward Utz of New York, Mr. Henry Hall of Warren, Pennsylvania, Mr. Harvey Yeaman of Chicago, and Mr. James Yeaman of Henderson, Kentucky. A reception at the residence of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Houghton left last night, by way of Chicago, for the east. They will be at home after November first, at Williamsport, Pennsylvania. Miss Yeaman has numerous friends in Chicago, having spent the summer of 1899 at the Chicago Beach hotel and visited on the south side at other times. Mr. Houghton is the Chicago representative of the Morgan and Wright company of Pennsylvania.—Chicago Tribune of June fifth. Mr. Houghton formerly lived in Lincoln.

Mrs. Henry B. Ward is the guest of Colonel and Mrs. E. S. Ellsworth at Iowa Falls, Iowa, where she was soloist at the commencement of Ellsworth college on Thursday. Mrs. Ward is accompanied by her two daughters. They will visit at Forreston, Illinois, and will spend the summer on the shore of Lake Michigan near New Buffalo.

Miss Stella Kirker gave a six course luncheon on Tuesday in honor of Miss Hammond. Roses and peonies were used for decoration, and on the place cards were profile portraits of Miss Hammond. Miss Kirker was assisted by Mrs. R. M. LeGore and Miss Lila
