SOCIETY

Mr. Wilson Muir, late of Laurenceville preparatory school, New Jersey, stopped in Lincoln on his way to Wyoming where he will work in a mine this summer. In the year that Mr. Muir has been at school he has attained a height of six feet and a corresponding breadth. Laurenceville is divided into houses and forms and Wilson Muir played full-back on his house team so successfully that he has a satisfactory prospect of getting on the school team next year. After spending two days with his grandmother, Mrs. Wilson, he went on his way saying that the west is the finest country of all and that the eastern girls are neither so pretty nor so attractive as the western girls. Mr. Muir is preparing for Princeton and will take a course in mining engineering.

On Tuesday morning about fifty ladies enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. J. W. Johnson at her home on south Twenty-seventh street, from ten to twelve. Notwithstanding the heat of the morning the guests were made comfortable in the shaded parlors and on the spacious lawn where a large canopy tent had been stretched under the trees. The lawn was brightened with rugs, divans and pillows, and the porch was decorated with flags and bunting in honor of the coming national holiday. A short program was rendered, after which cooling ices were served by the hostess and a delightful social time was enjoyed by the guests.

Governor Savage and his staff and a few other guests were entertained by Colonel and Mrs. S. M. Melick at an eight course dinner Monday evening. Smilax, ferns and roses formed the table decorations. The guests were Governor and Mrs. Savage, Colonel and Mrs. R. E. Giffen, Colonel and Mrs. C. M. Keefer, Colonel and Mrs. C. D. Evans of Columbus, General L. W. Colby of Beatrice, Mrs. C. E. Davis and Miss Meyer.

Mrs. James Tyler gave a kensington at her home, 1634 K street, Wednesday afternoon. Punch and ice cream were served by Miss Lowry and Miss Tyler, and music was furnished by Miss Deweese. The decorations were pink and white carnations. The guests were Mesdames Guenzel, Inkster, Boyce, Davis, McClusky, McClay, Heaton, William Tyler, J. L. Greene, Phillips, Sizer, Marshall, Miss Deweese and Miss Lowry.

Senator Crouse, Miss Crouse and Mrs. Marie Crouse, Governor and Mrs. Savage, Senator and Mrs. Edgar of Beatrice and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ager have gone to the Black Hills for a short vacation. They will also visit Lead City, Spearfish, Deadwood, Custer, Sylvan Lake and Hot Springs.

Miss Garnet Geer entertained the East Lincoln club at a lawn party Thursday afternoon. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Geer. The members are Misses Eola Auld, Josephine Poynter, Edna Guad, Kate and Agnes McLaughlin, Helen Tuttle, Sidney Murphy, Florence Roberts, Garnet Geer, Weckbaugh and Mrs. Finarty.

About twenty-five years ago the Omaha Indians signed over lands to the government with the promise that the same reserved to them in Thurston county should be deeded to them as full citizens at the end of twenty-five years.

The time has nearly expired and recently the Indians of that reservation sent a delegation to Washington to have the time extended twenty-five years longer. They believe they will be in better condition to take care of their valuable property than they are now. There are many bright people among the Omshas. Mrs. T. H. Tibbles of Lincoln, wife of a prominent attorney, is the daughter of Joseph La Fleche, who was one of the chiefs who signed the lands over to the government. Mrs. Tibbles has written a history of her people and is a student of art who will some day make her name known among portrait painters. Two recent portraits have attracted much favorable comment.

A party of university men and alumni will leave next week for Colorado, where they will remain for two months. The party will consist of Messrs. John J. Fessler, John L. Kind, E. W. Washburn, G. F. Miles of Madison; Emil Lange of Fairbury; R. C. Pollard of Nehawka; R. C. Powers of Norfolk; Brown of York, and D. H. Homan of Omaha. The party will spend most of the time around Manitou, studying botany and geology from nature.

General Vifquain has written a story about an expedition consisting of four young men who left Washington in 1861 or 1862 to capture Jefferson Davis. Of course they were not successful, but his narrative is a pleasant enough recital of a lark. General Vifquain intends publishing the account which occupies ninety pages of type-written manuscript.

Mrs. James W. Dawes is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gere. She returns to Crete on Monday whence after a few days she will go to Milwaukee and spend the summer with her mother. In the fall she will join Major Dawes who is stationed now in New York city, a most desirable and complimentary billet.

Mr. Frank King Clark has been visiting his fiancée, Miss Oakley. Second Lieutenant Owen Oakley is visiting his family in this city, momentarily expecting to receive notice of a billet to some station in the Atlantic ocean. The Lieutenant is an exceedingly well set up young man and modest withal, in spite of his accomplishments.

Mr. and Mrs. North, 921 G street, gave a lawn party Thursday evening to a club composed of the following members: Messrs. and Mesdames Setter, McCain, Sawyer, Vanderpool, Chapman, Hallett and North. Card playing was the entertainment, and light refreshments were served.

Mrs. F. B. Righter gave a high tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James W. Dawes. The guests were Mesdames Dawes, Gere, Burnham, A. S. Raymond, L. C. Richards and Nance.

Mrs. Hollowbush gave a morning party on Tuesday to announce the engagement of Miss Henrietta Hollowbush to Mr. Homer Honeywell.

The Misses West of Baltimore, who have been the guests of Miss Garten, left Tuesday for the east. Miss Garten also entertained Miss Camp of Chicago last week.

Married, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. P. H. Grumann, Tuesday
