

MISS OAKLEY AND MR. CLARK,
Who will be married on Thursday, August twenty-ninth, at Holy Trinity Church.

The wedding next week of Miss Oakley and Mr. Clark has been the occasion of several very pretty luncheons and dinners this week. Not alone in Lincoln, the home of the bride-elect, is great interest manifested in the approaching nuptials. In Omaha, where Miss Oakley has many friends, and in Chicago, where she is known in musical and social circles and where Mr. Clark has scored many of his greatest successes as a vocalist, the occasion is receiving more than the usual consideration. The Chicago Saturday Evening Herald of last week contains the following notice:

"Cards were received here this week to the wedding of Miss Pauline Maude Oakley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Hector Oakley, 1624 M Street, Lincoln, Neb., and Mr. Frank King Clark, which will be solemnized at Holy Trinity Church, Lincoln, Neb., on Thursday, August 29 at 8.30 o'clock. The ceremony will be followed by a large reception at 9 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents. The matron of honor will be a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Thomas W. Griffith, of Lincoln, Neb. The bridesmaids will be the Misses Mae Mount, of Omaha, Marie Hoover, Helen Nance, and Vine Gahan, of Lincoln. There will be two flower children, Miss Aileen Griffith and Master Oakley Maxwell, both of them cousins of the bride. The best man will be Mr. James P. Whedon, of this city, and the ushers will be Mr. Theodore Peck, New York; Cadet Owen A. Oakley, U. S. SS. Kearsarge, a brother of the bride; Mr. George Shedd, Ashland, Neb.; Mr. Robert Joyce, Lincoln, Neb.; Mr. George Backus and Mr. A. L. Bowman, of Chicago. The ceremony will be performed by a classmate of Mr. Clark, the Rev. W. A. Brewer, of San Mateo, Cal., assisted by the Rev. Robert L. Paddock, of New York. Mr. Clark's good fortune means a distinct loss to Chicago, for the happy man will take his handsome bride to Europe, where they expect to remain for at least three years. They will make their home in Paris, where Mr. Clark will perfect himself for grand opera. Mr. Clark has for several years been a prominent figure in the social and musical life of Chicago. He came here from Tacoma, Wash., in 1896, and while he was a comparative stranger here he soon appeared in concert with the Chicago Orchestra and laid the foundation for his future popularity and ere long as a member of the Kenwood Evangelical Church he was the highest paid male singer in the city. His voice is an exceptionally rich basso, of unusual flexibility, its sympathetic quality being one of its commending features. Several years ago Mr. Clark established himself as a teacher of vocal music in Chicago, and then his fame spread to New York, where he has repeatedly appeared in oratorio. Mr. Clark proved himself as popular socially as he was distinguished vocally, and for that reason Chicago is loth to lose him. Miss Oakley, who is a brunette with a strikingly beautiful face and an exquisite figure, is likewise musically inclined, her mezzo soprano voice of much charm having often been heard in this city, where she studied for some time. She has also studied with Sbriglia in Paris and Randegger in London. A number of Chicagoans will go to Lincoln to witness the ceremony and congratulate the young couple in person."

America and the Isthmus of Panama. They will go by boat down the west coast from San Francisco. Mr. Harrison will do special newspaper and magazine work illustrated by photographs which he will take with an exceptionally fine photographic outfit with which he has experimented for several months. Believing that interesting developments will take place in Central America during the coming year, Mr. Harrison wishes to report them from the scene of action. His ability as a newspaper writer is well known in Nebraska. Mrs. Harrison also has great talent as a writer, with keen powers of observation and discrimination. She was the able representative of the State Journal in Washington during the last session of congress. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison expect to return to Nebraska before the opening of the political campaign of 1902.

Married, at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. L. W. Garoutte, on Wednesday afternoon, Miss Edith Simms and Mr. Robert Roy Bromfield, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Bromfield of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. A. Martin in the presence of thirty guests. Mrs. H. O. Smith played the wedding march, and vocal numbers were furnished by Miss Florence Robinson. The house was effectively decorated with palms and ferns. Refreshments were served by Misses Elizabeth Simms, Wilma and Edith Casebeer, Cora Faulkner and Gladys Garoutte. Mr. and Mrs. Bromfield left at 6 o'clock for Seward, their future home.

A beautiful kensington and porch party was given by Mrs. E. J. Burkett on Wednesday, in honor of Congressman Burkett's mother, Mrs. H. W. Burkett, of Iowa. Luncheon was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. G. E. Tobey. Those present were Mesdames H. W. Burkett, Tobey, Brown, Stevens, Prewitt, Williams, States, Clark, Powers, Ager, Huntington, Davis, Harpham, Ponx, Hester, Snelling, Dobbins, Love, Sizer, Covert of Washington, D. C., E. L. At an executive board meeting of the Matinee Musicale at the home of Mrs. A. S. Raymond on Thursday morning, the program for next season's work was presented by the chairman of the program committee, and was accepted by the members and board. Walsh hall will again be the place of meeting, and will be supplied with a new grand piano. The chorus, directed by Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond, will be a prominent feature of the year's work. Two communications from the national federation of musical clubs have been received, one a notification of the appointment of Mrs. E. Lewis Baker as a state vice president and a member of the auxiliary board to the national federation, the other a request for the names of members who are willing to give concerts before other clubs. The division plan will be used again this year. Following is the program:
