

Saturday evening at her home, 3240 W street, Miss Estelle Cornelius entertained friends with music, games, and a phonograph. Prizes in guessing games were won by Misses Coin and Marquardt, Messieurs Crawford and Hartley. A luncheon was served in four courses. Those present were: Misses Susie Huffman, Anna Dawe, Louise Speidell, Alice Tubman, Blanche Hartley, Florence Hegue, Belya Lee, Eva Barras, Grace Horsh, Fay Bridges, Viola Martin, Blanche Coin, Maud Hanger, Selma Marquardt, Constance Sell, Eileen Winslow, Marguerite Cornelius; Mrs. Florence Winslow, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Cornelius; Messieurs Everett White, Roy White, George Speidell, Harve Tubman, Will Crawford, Earl Austin, Ernest Kimmer, George Wolfe, George Sequin, Gordon Lintt, Harry Simmons, Jack Hartley, Robert Basler, Charles Cornelius, Frank Smith.

Thirty-six friends were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hall at a seven course dinner last night. The guests were seated at six small tables, each of which had an original floral decoration. On one table appeared a basket of hyacinths, with a spray of the same flower at each plate; on the other tables were red roses, pink carnations, holly and mistletoe. Fol-

The first state dinner of the season was given on Wednesday evening by Governor and Mrs. Savage to the state officers and their wives. The table and dining room were elaborately decorated in the Christmas colors, red and green, and these colors also appeared in the ices and confectionery. During the eight courses the guests were entertained with stories and reminiscences. Those invited were Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Steele of Fairbury, Secretary of State and Mrs. Marsh, Attorney General and Mrs. Prout, Auditor and Mrs. Weston, Land Commissioner and Mrs. Follmer, State Superintendent and Mrs. Fowler, State Treasurer and Mrs. Stuefer and Miss Meyer.

Governor and Mrs. Savage gave a dinner Wednesday evening at the executive mansion to the state officers and their wives. The warm reds and greens with which the dining room was decorated contrasted strikingly with the snowy mantle in which the outside world was wrapped. On the table was a centerpiece of holly from which extended broad red ribbons terminating in bows at the corners. Red candles burning in silver candelabra illumined the room and the color scheme was carried out as far as possible in the dames Lasch, Morse, Deck, Evans, Keim, Gentzler, Hess, Harlan, Hood, Pierce, Clark, Kaufmann, Sherdeman and Miss Malone.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. P. Hildebrand invited a company of young people to their home Saturday evening as a surprise to their son, Mr. Ralph Eugene Hildebrand, to celebrate his sixteenth birthday. Following were present: Misses Frankie Little, Georgia Rymer, Florence Siddons, Maggie Whitley, Bessie Little, Grace Hester, Daisy, Wilson, Bertha McCall; Messieurs Joe Watson, Clay Hester, Geo. Pritchard, Lester Kirkpatrick, Bart Hester, Clarence Tebbetts, Harry Kirkpatrick, Bern Rymer, Guy Brown, Robt. Whitely.

The Deborah Avery chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution were entertained by the Omaha chapter at a banquet on Thursday evening. The occasion was the celebration of "Forefathers' Day." The "Sons of the American Revolution" of Nebraska also were guests at the banquet.

In spite of the intense cold the home of Mrs. Austin H. Weir at 518 North Sixteenth street has been the scene of three brilliant social gatherings this week. On Thursday afternoon sixty

THE FRANKLIN
Ice Cream and Dairy Co.
Manufacturers of the finest quality of Plain and Fancy ICE CREAM, ICES, FROZEN PUDDINGS, FRAPPE, and SHERBETS.
Prompt delivery and satisfaction guaranteed.
133 South 12th Street. Phone 205.

FOR FUR COATS
FOR CAPES
FOR COBLARETTES
FURS OF ALL KINDS
—GO TO—
O. STEELE
.. Furrier..
143 SO. TWELFTH STREET
LINCOLN, NEB.

WHEN YOU ASK FOR Allegretti Candy
the natural supposition is that you want just what you call for.
The only place in Lincoln where you can buy the original ALLEGRETTI CHOCOLATE CREAMS is Rector's Pharmacy
12th and N—Phone 138
Packages Delivered anywhere in the City

Kappa Kappa Gamma initiated two new members, Miss May Jeary of Lincoln and Miss Helen Field of Iowa, Monday evening at the home of the Misses Bennett. After the ceremony a supper was served. Both active and alumnae members were present.

Miss Anne Stuart returned on Tuesday from a visit of several weeks in Kansas City and St. Joseph, Missouri. Early in January Miss Stuart expects to go to Chicago to continue her studies in music with Madame Bloomfield-Zeister.

Miss Adda Metcalf entertained the C. L. S. C. club last Friday evening. Prizes at cards were won by Miss Clara Duncan and Mr. Charles Zimmerman. A luncheon was served by Mrs. A. E. Metcalf and Mrs. Burr Metcalf.

Mr. F. M. Hall entertained the Round Table Monday evening. Twenty members were present. Mr. E. T. Hartley was the leader, the subject, "Do We Lead the Nations in Providing for the Welfare of the Masses?"

Mrs. Thomas Marsland gave a luncheon Friday, the thirteenth, in honor of Mrs. Livingston of Plattsmouth. Guests were Mesdames Livingston, Pirie, Calder, M. Scott, Walters of Bushnell, Illinois, Pickett, Guthrie and Brown.

Kappa Kappa Gamma initiated two new members on Monday evening at the home of Misses Grace and Mabel Bennett. The new members are Miss Field and Miss Jeary. Luncheon followed the initiation ceremony.

The Patriarchs will give a reception next Wednesday evening, December 26, to the Nebraska Art association. This reception will be held in the University library. Members and friends of the Art association are invited.

Librarian Wyer of the state university will spend the holidays in Concordia, Kansas.

HOME FOR THE FRIENDLESS, ELEVENTH AND SOUTH STREETS (See Page 11)

Following the dinner the guests' entertainment was furnished by beautiful stereopticon views of the Paris exposition. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Lambertson, S. H. Burnham, C. H. Gere, J. B. Wright, W. B. Wilson, W. C. Wilson, C. E. Yates, A. E. Hargreaves, A. S. Raymond, J. H. McMurtry, E. E. Brown, R. E. Moore, F. L. Wharton, W. J. Lamb, T. M. Hodgman, Dr. Lowry, Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Bessey, Mr. Edward Bessey and Mr. and Mrs. Hall.

Miss A. Jessie Chapel, a teacher in the Bryant school entertained her pupils Saturday evening at her home, 800 North Fourteenth street. Music and games were enjoyed. The hostess was assisted in serving by Miss Edythe Hess and Miss Helen Goff. Those invited were Misses Neva Anglewin, Nellie Jackson, Nellie MacFarlane, Oattie Voderberg, Callie Burdine, Frances O'Malley, Florence Wilcox, Olive Beemen, Georgia Capp, Olive Stickles, Winnie Marx, Fara Martin, Floy March, Beth Bonnell; Messieurs Clyde Landon, Chere Hubbard, Carl Walter, Harry Benson, Howard Thompson, Will Schaal, Jarvie Dennis, Ben. Butler, Ray Arnet, Edward Heagy, Graham Dolson, Harold Baker, Horace Seymour, Paul Smith and Hallie Cole.

menu. Covers were laid for sixteen, the only out of town guests being Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Steele from Fairbury.

An enjoyable Christmas party was given at the Delta Gamma house last Saturday evening. About twenty-five active and alumnae members were present, and great amusement was furnished by a Christmas fish-pond, which was arranged behind a screen over which each young lady fished for her present. Numerous contributions of candy and fruit were received from the young men's fraternities in the city.

James W. Reynolds, who was nominated Thursday for secretary of the territory of New Mexico, is well known in Lincoln. Mrs. Reynolds was Miss Brownie Baum, daughter of David Baum of this city.

Members of the W. T. M. club were entertained at a kensington on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Al Hood, 1022 North 28th street. At the roll call each lady responded to her name with a quotation, and three poems were recited by the members. A two course luncheon was served by Mrs. Hood, assisted by Miss Malone, from a table laid with handsome Battenburg. Those present were Mesladies were the guests of Mrs. Weir and Mrs. Waugh at a kensington. Fifty others were entertained on Thursday evening and about the same number on Friday evening. On both occasions an elaborate luncheon of four courses was served. The house was handsomely decorated with festoons of Christmas green, holly and cut flowers.

On Tuesday afternoon eighteen children were entertained by Mrs. Paul Holm in honor of the seventh birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Marie. At half after four the party was seated at a table lighted with candles, from which a dainty supper was served by Mrs. Holm, assisted by Mrs. Teeters. A grab bag containing a souvenir for each guest was an enjoyable feature of the afternoon. Games also were played under the leadership of Miss Eleanor Barbour.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertained informally at dancing Wednesday evening at the home of Fred Funke. The house was prettily decorated with evergreens and roses. Ices were served during the evening. The ladies present were Misses Jenkins, Funke, Hammond, Fawell, Woods, Holland, Bessie Burruss, Lois Burruss, Thorpe, Connard, Woodward, Griggs, McGlucke and Baldo.