The first meeting of the Woman's club for the new year was held Monday afternoon in the club rooms. The meeting was in charge of the French department, Mrs. A. B. Pirie leader, and the attendance was unusually large. By a constitutional amendment the date of the annual election was changed from April to February, thus giving the newly elected officers more time to plan the work. The usual parliamentary drill was conducted by Mrs. Eli Plummer, after which the following attractive program was presented:

Vocal Solo—Since We Parted, Allitsen; Snow Flakes, Henri Rulfrok, Miss Martha Walton.

Selection from Shakespeare's Henry V., characters, King Henry, Mrs. G. B. Simpkins; Princess Katharine, Mrs. L. S. Williams; Lady Alice, Mrs. Eli Plummer.

Recitation—Sonnet de l'ame, Victor Hugo, Miss Marian Ogden.

Vocal Solo—Mon Petit Coeur Soupire—Love's Rosary, Nevin, Miss Elma Lord Marsland.

Selection from the Russian, Pauline Pavlovna, Miss Josephine Poynter.

Vocal Solo—Signal, Schira, Miss Martha Walton.

After the program coffee and French coffee cake were served. Mrs. J. L. Kellogg poured the coffee. She was assisted by Mrs. H. P. Eames, Mrs. P. H. Frye, Miss Lennie Stewart and the Misses Marsland, in French costumes. Mesdames F. M. Hall, W. C. Phillips, D. M. Butler, J. W. Johnson and F. E. Lahr of the social committee also assisted in doing the honors.

The ladies of the city improvement society have decided upon the week of January twenty-seventh for their mid-winter carnival. This year they will give a Pan-American carnival. The general committee in charge of the affair will consist of Mrs. E. L. Hinman, chairman, Mesdames DeWitt B. Brace, W. G. L. Taylor, Nellie M. Richardson, and W. B. Ogden. Among the booths already planned for will be a Midway Plaisance in charge of which will be Mesdames A. R. Mitchell, A. S. Raymond, A. W. Jansen, G. W. Rhodes, D. M. Butler. The Mexican booth will be in charge of Mesdames E. H. Barbour, W. J. Bryan, M. D. Welch, C. H. Morrill, G. M. Lambertson. South American booth, Mesdames Lawrence Bruner, A. Ross Hill, E. A. Burnett, H. J. Whitmore. Indian booth, Mesdames Paul H. Holm, J. L. Peters. Hawaiian booth, Miss Hartley and Miss Gertrude Marsland. There will also be a pioneer kitchen, an ice palace, an old plantation and a Newport villa. The ladies ask the co-operation of all persons interested in the improvement of the city. Several of the committees are not yet full and chairmen are to be provided for the last named as soon as the general committee can see the ladies with regard to it. It is hoped that no one when solicited will refuse to assist. Besides the attractions in the booths an interesting program will be given on the stage each evening.

The music study department of the Woman's club met Wednesday afternoon with an unusually large attendance and listened to a program of unusual interest. The subject was the "Russian School and Its Characteristics" and the following program was ably presented:

"Michael Glinka, Anton Rubinstein," Mrs. Lewis Wetling.

Piano solo, impromptu, Op. 44, No. 4 (Rubinstein), Miss Alberta Hearn.

"Tschaikowsky," Mrs. J. M. Lucas. Piano solo, "Romance" (Tschaikowsky), Miss Sydney Murphy.

Soprano solo—(a) "Cradle Song" (Shaikevitch). (b) "Song of the Sleigh Driver" (Lazareff), Mrs. Carrie Hart.

Piano solo, "Barcarolle June" (Tschaikowsky), Miss Lulu Walker.

"Cesar Cui," Mrs. Easterday.

Piano solo, "Troika" (Sleigh Ride) (Tschaikowsky), Miss Frances Osborne. "Russian Folk Songs, Latest Russian Composers," Miss Nelly Lally.

Soprano solo—(a) "Cossack Cradle Song" (Napravnik). (b) "Vainka's Song" (Von Stutzman), Miss Bessie Burruss.

Piano solo, "Portrait No. 22" (Rubinstein), Miss Anna Griffin.

The Zetetic club of Weeping Water held a very pleasant and profitable session with Mrs. Margaret Sackett, Saturday, December 28. The study subject was Charles Kingsley, English clergyman, poet and novelist.

After a short sketch of his life by Mrs. Rouse, Mrs. M. Sackett gave the interpretation of his parable "Water Babies," which was very instructive. Miss Nellie Sackett, the leader for the afternoon, gave a review of "Hypatia" assisted by several members who gave readings from the book. The study of an author through his writings is of much more benefit than merely of facts about him, and the club appreciate the advantage of this method. The hostess served coffee, cake and home made candies.

The Wisconsin Veterans' association met Thursday evening with Comrade and Mrs. W. A. Babcock. A large company was present. A musical program on the phonograph was given by Rev. E. S. Branch. Mr. Babcock read "The Runaway Runabout" or "The Tale of an Obstinate Automobile," which was much enjoyed by all. Mrs. Everett C. Babcock told the amusing story of "Methuselah the Pet Rooster" in a way that brought down the house. Refreshments were served and at a late hour the guests dispersed to their homes.

The society of Hall in the Grove met last Friday with Mrs. Walter Davis. A paper prepared by Mrs. Hedges on "Central American States," was read by Miss Green. "The History and Legislation in Regard to Our Pan-American Canals," was discussed by all present. Mrs. Patrick led in a discussion of "Heredity." The circle will meet next Friday with Mrs. Patrick.

Daughters of the American Revolution, Deborah Avery chapter held their regular monthly meeting last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. S. Tibbetts.

After the business session Mrs. Clara S. Hall gave an interesting and instructive paper on "The literature of Colonial times."

Mrs. A. L. Candy and Mrs. H. P. Eames entertained the Faculty Women's club Wednesday afternoon. Miss Helen Field talked of the Roycrofters and exhibited some choice books from their shops. A social hour and refreshments followed. Forty-five women were present.

Mrs. M. H. Everett and Mrs. W. C. Phillips were elected delegates to the national congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution to be held in Washington, commencing February 22. Mrs. Ella K. Morrison and Miss Cora Smith were appointed alternates.

At the meeting of Sorosis Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Fletcher L. Wharton presented her ideas upon "The Physical Training of Our Girls." The club met with Mrs. Munger.

The graduate club of the state university met last evening with Miss Miller at the home of Judge and Mrs. Tibbetts.
