

SOCIETY NOTES

LIFE'S MAZY WHIRL

The holiday gayeties are past and there is a lull this week in social doings. The last of the Omaha visitors left on Monday after a round of parties sufficiently numerous to satisfy the most insatiable. The presence of several visitors in the city gave rather more than the usual eclat to the Unity club dance Tuesday evening. The parties given by Mrs. Underwood and Mrs. Hirsching were the only large card parties of the week except that to be given this evening by Mr. and Mrs. Oakley and Mrs. Maxwell. The musicales given by Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Atwood were pleasant affairs as was also the Phi Gamma Delta dance given last night. University people are just getting settled after their vacation, and this dance was the first of their post-holiday functions.

The Unity club gave a brilliant dancing party Tuesday evening at Walsh hall in honor of Miss Frances Levy, of Sioux City, and Miss Sarbach, of Holton, Kan. Ices were served between dances. The party was noted for the large number of handsome costumes worn. Miss Levy, who is one of this season's debutantes of Sioux City, and a sparkling brunette beauty, wore a Parisian gown of white Brussels net over taffeta trimmed with white ribbon, she carried American beauties; Miss Sarbach, gray foulard, trimmed with white applique and black velvet; Miss Connie Sarbach, white organdie over taffeta; Mrs. Katz, black velvet, trimmed with renaissance lace, diamonds; Mrs. L. J. Herzog, black Brussels net applique with taffeta, low col-fure; Mrs. Charles Mayer, black and white crepe de chine; Mrs. Henry Mayer, old rose foulard satin; Mrs. R. Ackermann, blue albatross, trimmed with Arabian lace; Mrs. M. Ackermann, white crepe de chine; Mrs. Aach, pink mousseline de soie; Mrs. Weil, black and white net; Mrs. M. Friend, green foulard with white garnitures; Miss Franck, gray crepe; Miss Hattie Berkson, black crepe, corsage made decol-lette, bouquet of pink roses; Miss Nell Schlesinger, blue foulard; Miss Stryker, green albatross; Miss Sara Friend, black crepe de chine, white garnitures; Miss Mayer, white crepe. Among those present were Messieurs and Mesdames M. Ackermann, L. J. Herzog, Charles Mayer, Henry Mayer, R. Ackermann, of Scranton, Pa., M. Friend, M. Weil, M. M. Aach; Mrs. Katz, of Omaha; Misses Levy, of Sioux City; Sarbach, of Holton, Kan., Connie Sarbach, of Fairbury, Franck, Berkson, Nell Schlesinger, Stryker, Sara Friend, Mayer; Messrs. Sam Speier, of Beatrice; Justin Sarbach, of Fairbury; Hunoch, Loeb, and Carl Weil.

Mrs. C. G. Underwood and Mrs. H. R. Hirsching gave pleasant card parties on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at the home of the former on South Seventeenth street. The house was profusely decorated with holly, evergreens, red roses and carnations, a color scheme of red and green being carefully adhered to. Daylight was excluded and red candles illumined the house. Both hostesses wore white gowns and red roses. Master Harold Hirsching admitted the guests. Six-handed euchre was played. On Wednesday Mrs. R. M. Turner and Mrs. R. H. Oakley cut for the first prize and Mrs. Turner won. A bronze statuette was her reward. As second prize Mrs. Peter Lau received a pretty water color. A two course luncheon, a feature of which was green ice cream with candied cherries, was served. The decorations and prizes for the two parties were the same. For Wednesday invitations were extended to Mesdames George Haskell, John S. Finch, Morris Deutsch, of Holton, Kansas; G. E. Barber, L. C. Burr, W. J. Bryan, F. W. Brown, S. H. Atwood, T. S. Allen,

Miss Sadie Thompson gave an elaborate dinner last Friday evening at her home, 2720 O street. The house was lighted by candles. The dining room was beautified with roses and carnasomely trimmed with lace and insertion. The ring service was performed by Reverend A. E. Griffith. Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle will receive their friends after February first at 319 Third street, Des Moines. The bride is a sister of Mrs. H. F. Peters of this city.

Another new card club has been organized purely for the pleasure of the members. The club will meet fortnightly on Monday evening, but the holidays disarranged dates somewhat, and the last meeting occurred last Saturday evening when the club was very pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Arnett. Six-handed euchre was played and dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will occur on January 20th. Members are Messieurs and Mesdames S. H. Atwood, A. B. Pirie, Lee Arnett, H. H. Harley, W. A. Rankin, E. P. Hovey, J. E. Hays, O. M. Stonebraker, M. L. Blackburn, Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Hollenbeck, and Mrs. Nellie P. Agnew.

Last Friday evening Miss Marie Joers entertained the Q. A. T.'s and their gentlemen friends. Six handed razzle dazzle was played and Mr. Potts won a beautiful picture as a reward for a high score. Following were present: Misses McKay, Biltgen, McFarland, Geiger, of Concordia, Kansas; McGreer, Leese, Shafer, Howland, Edith Erford, Mabel Erford, Barrick, Gregory, Joers, JoDon; Messrs. Hawley, Fossler, Potts, Morse, Caldwell, Patterson, Duncan, Wilson, Keefer, Chambers Evans, Swain, Joers, Swallow and Shoufleberger.

On Saturday afternoon Miss Ethel Gray, assisted by Miss Myrtle Keegan, entertained a company of twenty young people to celebrate her twelfth birthday. A gift drawing, other games and music helped to make the hours pass quickly. A birthday cake on which twelve candles burned was cut and in it were found a ring, a coin and a thimble. Miss Winnie Crawford of Syracuse assisted in serving light refreshments. The young hostess received pretty gifts as souvenirs of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Spencer entertained a company of friends who were together last summer at Lake Okoboji, last Friday evening in honor of Miss Iva Beck, of Hampton, Iowa. Crokinole was played and the losers in the game were required to toast marshmallows for the winners. Refreshments were served. Following were present: Miss Beck, Miss Iva Miller, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Little, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Selleck.

Mrs. Frank Smith and Miss Mary Hawkins Rathbone gave a reception Saturday evening at Walsh hall to the parents of their dancing pupils. Mesdames W. C. Wilson, Charles Mayer, John B. Wright, I. G. Chapin, G. W. Rhodes, A. S. Raymond, John Dorgan, F. D. Levering and C. G. Crittenden assisted the hostesses. Ices were served after the children's dances.

Mrs. S. E. Cosford entertained the ladies of the G. T. C. C. Friday afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. Kenyon and Mrs. Scott. Those present were Mesdames Smith, Scott, Dye, Church, Kenyon, Warren, Martin, Gray, Kiffin, Sparks, Shepard, Anderson; Mrs. Wansey and Mrs. Ferman of Marysville, Kan.; Miss Rohl of Chicago.

MRS. D. E. THOMPSON.

She has just returned to her home in Lincoln from a prolonged visit in Europe and in Washington and other eastern cities. Mrs. Thompson has been absent from Lincoln since last June. Although charmed by the rare sights and experiences of her trip, she finds much pleasure in her return home, where a warm welcome awaits her reappearance in the social life of the capital city.

Giffen, L. W. Garoutte, Ingles, A. L. Hoover, S. C. Hoover, O. M. Stonebraker, Powell, F. B. Harris, W. D. Fitzgerald, J. H. Allen and Phelps, of Oregon, Illinois; Misses McLaughlin, Kate McLaughlin, Lansing, Johnson, Nicholas.

Miss Alice Auld gave a delightful masquerade last Friday evening which gave great pleasure to the young people present. The impersonations were varied and some of them were very clever. Piano and phonograph music and games were the principal entertainment offered. A picture gallery in which were the baby pictures of many of the guests afforded amusement. A sumptuous three course luncheon was served. Invitations were extended to Misses De Putron, Nicholson, Mosher, Hall, Lou Holmes, Crum, Wallace, Roberts, Georgia Field, Sweezy, Bell, Irvine, Meeker, Ethel Field, Erford, Meyer, Spears, Ruth Holmes, Hutton, Baker, Tucker, Watkins, Allen, Ernst, Jones, Murray, Spalding; Messrs.
