

Mrs. S. H. Atwood gave a charming musicale this afternoon in honor of her sister Mrs. Nellie P. Agnew. Mrs. Atwood's beautiful home was tastefully decorated, the reception room with pink roses; the library with yellow roses, and the mantel in this room with palms and ferns. Many palms, and a bouquet of American beauties in a cut glass vase, were in the hall. The wide doorways were all festooned with ropes of smilax, and the dining room was done in green and white. The buffet was banked with white carnations. In the centre of the table was a rare old silver basket, an heirloom, filled with white carnations, and suspended above it from the chandelier was a ball of the same flowers. The chandelier was further decorated with loops of white ribbon. Green ice cream, confections, small cakes and coffee were served. Mrs. A. B. Pirie in a green gown, and Mrs. G. M. Lambertson in white, presided at the table. Their assistants were Misses Loomis, Post, Harper, Woodford and Agnew. Mrs. Atwood, Mrs. Agnew, and Mrs. Belle M. Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth, received the guests in the Indian corner in the hall, they were presented to the receiving line by Mrs. Eli Plummer, and were seated in the reception room and the library by Mesdames Callen Thompson, A. A. Scott, Thomas Marsland, and Charles Branch. In the upper hall, Mrs. C. E. Yates, assisted by Misses Juliette Atwood, and Margerie Agnew, served punch. Miss Catherine Atwood distributed the programs. The following musical numbers were presented:

Barcarole, Moszkowski, Miss Marie Hoover.

I Love You, Carl Sobeski, Mr. George S. Johnston.

Norwegian Bridal Procession, Grieg, Miss Hoover.

a. A Cry of Love, Rotoli. b. Marchioness, Your Dancing, Lemaire, Miss Catherine Agnew.

Scherzo, Rheinberger, Miss Hoover.

Duet—"Neath the Stars, A. Goring Thomas, Miss Agnew, Mr. Johnston.

Guests from out of town were Mrs. H. E. Palmer, Mrs. D. H. Wheeler, Miss Maynard and Miss Graves, from Omaha; Mrs. Stoutenborough, Mrs. T. P. Livingstone, Mrs. R. R. Livingstone, Mrs. White, Mrs. Henry Herold and Mrs. Isabelle Ritchie, from Plattsmouth; Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Gafford from Wymore.

Chapter K, of P. E. O., gave a dinner Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jones. The fraternity colors, yellow and white, were in evidence. The house was decorated with carnations and ferns and lighted by white candles under yellow shades. The menu was served in seven courses, and the men progressed with each course. Toasts were responded to by Dr. Green, Mr. L. O. Jones, and Mrs. Matthews. Mr. Haydn Myer, Mrs. J. M. O'Neal, of University Place, and Miss Barnaby entertained the company with songs, Miss White playing the accompaniments. Members of P. E. O. from University Place, also those in Lincoln not affiliated with the local chapter, were guests.

Last Friday evening Miss Grace Mussetter gave a card party in honor of Miss Weed of Geneva, Neb. An impromptu program of music, recitations and short stories was given by Misses Weed and Meyer, and Messrs. Hustel Meyer and Lee. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. R. T. Van Brunt was called to Beatrice Monday by the illness of Mrs. M. E. Van Brunt, who was there visiting her son. Madame Van Brunt was so far recovered that the two ladies returned home Thursday evening.

Mrs. A. L. Hoover and Mrs. E. C. Babcock will entertain the southeast circle of the First Presbyterian church next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hoover.

Miss Josephine Poynter entertained the active members of Delta Delta Delta last Friday in honor of Miss Lummary of Fullerton, Neb.

Mrs. G. W. Rhodes gave a beautiful ten course luncheon Wednesday at one o'clock. A basket of Golden Gate roses, frisia and ferns formed the center piece. Covers were laid for ten. At the plates were walnut shells tied with ribbons. After the repast these were opened and found to contain conundrums, the answers to which were the names of magazines. A tiny brush and pencil represented the magazine of that name; a cigarette, the Youth's Companion; a picture of Thomas Edison, the Scientific American, and so on. The conundrums were witty and interesting.

The marriage of Miss Emma F. Crooks and Reverend Marvin Gilbert was celebrated Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents in University Place, Reverend Mr. Dawson of Omaha officiating. Both bride and groom have been students at the Wesleyan university. The groom is pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in Mead, Nebraska, where he and Mrs. Gilbert will reside.

Mr. F. D. Cornell gave a five course dinner last Friday evening to the members of Beta Theta Pi fraternity who were at the chapter house during the holidays.
