

Gregory The Coal Man.

*

Miss Mabel Hays was the guest of Beatrice friends last week.

*

Miss Mae Mount of Omaha is the guest of Mrs. R. H. Oakley.

*

Phi Gamma Delta gave a pleasant dancing party last night at Walsh hall.

*

Mrs. J. W. McDonald will be at home to her friends on Thursdays in this month.

*

Mrs. A. R. Mitchell entertained a hundred ladies at a musicale yesterday afternoon.

*

The officers of the cadet battalion will give a dance Thursday night at Walsh hall.

*

Mrs. W. F. Dann received notice that her father had died on Tuesday at his home in Indiana.

*

Mrs. Morris Deutsch of Horton, Kansas, is the guest for a month of her sister, Mrs. A. R. Mitchell.

*

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hargreaves entertained informally Saturday evening in honor of the Omaha visitors.

*

Miss Martha Pierce returned Saturday from Aurora where she was the guest of friends for a few days.

*

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Johnson entertained their cousin Mr. Edward Standenmayer, of Philadelphia, the first of the week.

*

Miss Harriett Root, who spent the holidays with her cousin, Miss Welch, left on Saturday for her home in Lead, South Dakota.

*

Mr. and Mrs. M. Ackerman have had as their guests this week Mr. Ackerman's brother and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ackerman, of Scranton, Pennsylvania, who are touring the west on their wedding journey.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Eller entertained the duplicate whist club this week.

***

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Sine returned Saturday from Michigan where they went to spend the holidays with Mrs. Sine's parents, who celebrated their golden wedding during that week.

*

Mrs. M. D. Welch returned the first of the week from Omaha, where she went to spend the holidays, and to witness the christening on Christmas day of her grandson, William Merritt Welch.

*

Mr. Rowden is the possessor of a rich, sympathetic baritone voice of great volume and power and captivates the audience.—Daily Leader, Davenport, Iowa. He appears at Walsh hall Jan. 23 before Matinee Musicale. Admission 50 cents.

*

The New Book Review club had a social session last week with Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. J. H. Stevens at the home of the former. Cards were played and a luncheon was served. The club will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. E. W. Nelson, when Mrs. O. M. Stonebraker will talk of oriental rugs.

*

The junior class of the state university will give its annual promenade at the Lincoln, the evening of February seventh. The committee will consist of Mr. Alex Lau, chairman; Mr. George Shidler, master of ceremonies; Misses Jenkins, Mackin, Marshall, Honeywell, Post; Messrs. Groff, King, Pollard, Farney, Berry, Engle and Lee.

***

She—The very next morning after you had proposed to her she confided in me and asked me what she had better do.

He—I hope you were favorable.

She—Oh, yes, I told her I did not believe she would do any better.

***

Flippe—Perhaps the money your wife wanted was to buy you a New Year's present.

Flappe—Oh, no, it wasn't. She asked me for ten dollars, not for forty-nine cents.

He—Skipling's Indian Tales are fine, aren't they?
She—Yes, splendid. Have you ever read one?
He—No; have you?
She—No.

Thursday AUDITORIUM Friday

AND

Friday January 16 and 17 Matinee

Ellery's Royal Italian Band

52—ARTISTS—52

Under the leadership of the great

Geiuseppe Creatore
SOLOIST

MISS HEINTZEN
Harpist

MME.
BARILI
Mezzo-
Soprano

Seats on Sale Monday at Curtice's.

Miller & Paine

Dress Goods,
Cloaks and Suits,
Linens,
Underwear and Hosiery,
Cotton Goods,
Rugs and Draperies,
Millinery,
Notions and Trimmings,
Etc., Etc.

0 and 13th Sts. Lincoln, Neb.