A very pretty home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gilmore, 2801 E street, on Wednesday, June eleventh, at 3 o'clock when their daughter, Miss Edith, was united in marriage to Mr. Charles Condo Spangler of Geneva. The ceremony was performed in front of a large bank of palms. Miss Rose Gilmore, sister of the bride, played Mendelssohn's wedding march, while the couple, unattended, took their proper places. Reverend B. M. Long of the Second Presbyterian church of this city, assisted by Reverend Ira Spangler of Pennsylvania, brother of the groom, officiated. The bride wore a gown of Persian lawn trimmed in white applique, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The decorations consisted of carnations and smilax. The dining room was decorated in pink and green. Mrs. J. L. Diefendorf presided at the table, while Misses Merle Carter and Anice McGrannahan served the guests with refreshments, consisting of ices and cake. About thirty guests were present. The gifts were very beautiful as well as appropriate. A unique offering was a large bouquet of carnations and ferns from D. B. Clark of La Fayette, Indiana. The bride was graduated with the Lincoln high school class of '97, since which time she has taught school. The groom is engaged in the lumber and coal business at Geneva. The happy couple left on the six o'clock east-bound train, amidst a shower of rice, the same evening. They will spend a few days in Omaha, and then locate in Geneva, where the groom has a home in readiness. They will be at home to their friends after July first. That they may have unbounded joy and happiness in their unclouded future is the wish of their many friends.

The marriage of Miss Cora Mae Wagner and Mr. Henry G. Nelson was celebrated Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner, 1511 Q street. Reverend F. L. Wharton performed the ceremony. Mr. Frank Easterday played the wedding music. Miss Wagner was a pretty bride in her dainty gown of white organdie with thread lace trimmings. She carried white roses and a wreath of the same flowers rested on her blonde hair. Miss Mabel Nelson, sister of the groom, and Mr. Frank Wagner, brother of the bride, were the attendants. The ceremony took place under an arch of graceful palms, and the whole house was prettily decorated with smilax, ferns and cut flowers. A wedding supper was served in four courses. Mrs. Wagner was assisted by her niece, Miss Mark. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson have gone south for a visit with relatives. They will return tomorrow, and after a brief stay here, will go to Colorado. In the autumn they will go to Washington, D. C., where Mr. Nelson, who is a member of the class of '02 at the state university, will take up a special line of study, and Mrs. Nelson will continue the study of the piano, on which she is a proficient performer.

The Q. A. T. club gave its fourth annual banquet Monday evening at the Lincoln hotel. The table was crossed and re-crossed with ribbons in the club colors, rose, pink and carnation red. A large basket of American beauties occupied the centre of the table and at either end was a large vase filled with flowers which were presented by friends. A carnation, which is the club flower, was at each plate. The menu was served in seven courses. Miss May McGreer was toastmistress. Other speakers were Mrs. Arden Chapman, Mrs. George Campbell of Seward, Misses Joers, House, Gregory and MacFarland. Besides the speakers those present were Misses Barrick, Biltgen, McKay, Jo Don, Leese, Shaffer, Howland. Just before leaving the table Miss McGreer arose and presented to Miss Barrick, the next bride from the club, the basket of American beauties.

Mrs. John S. Reed gave a beautifully appointed breakfast yesterday at ten o'clock, in honor of Miss Edna Polk. The table was adorned with Crimson Ramblers and a cluster of these gorgeous roses was at each plate. After the breakfast, which was served in four courses, came a linen shower, which was a surprise to Miss Polk, and many exquisite pieces were added to her collection. Mrs. Reed's guests were Misses Polk, Haggard, Deweese, Starratt, Rice, Webster, Garten, Lansing, Watkins, Welch, Honeywell, Hamilton, Hamilton, Hunt, Weesner, Moore, Gahan, Chambers, Turner, Ingalls. Mesdames Ralph Haggard, A. I. Haecker, A. R. Edmiston, E. E. Peak, Josephine Fisher, William H. Raymond.

Miss Edith Morgan and Mr. Edward Briggs were married Tuesday evening at eight o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, 2220 S street, by Reverend L. M. Denton. The wedding music was played by Miss Martha Binford. The bride wore a gown of white swiss mull and carried bride roses. The attendants were Miss Mabel Erford, and Mr. Roy Logan of Red Oak, Ia. Mrs. Denton, Miss Erford and Miss Merryman served light refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Briggs have gone for an extended wedding journey.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hymer of University Place have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter Kathryn to Dr. George Blanchard of Craig, Neb., to be celebrated next Wednesday at the family home. Both Miss Hymer and Mr. Blanchard are graduates of the Wesleyan university, and the former has been librarian and registrar at that institution. Mr. Blanchard is an alumnus of Creighton medical college.

Miss Deweese and Miss Starrett gave a kensington and kitchen shower Wednesday afternoon at the home of the former, in honor of Miss Polk and Miss Hamilton. Roses and carnations beautified the house. Two tables were placed in the sitting room to receive the array of gifts for the prospective brides. Salads, sandwiches, ices, cakes and coffee were served.

The south side circle of St. Paul church held its last meeting for the year at the home of Mrs. E. A. Harpham, on Thursday. The following officers for next year were elected: President, Mrs. W. A. Lindley; vice president, Mrs. J. L. Woodworth; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Walter Davis.

Chapter K, P. E. O., gave a picnic on the lawn at the hospital for the insane, Monday evening. Sixty members of the chapter and of their families were present. Various games, potato races, and all fours races, were among the amusements, and the young moon smiled indulgently down upon the merry makers. An ideal picnic supper was served.
