

Mrs. T. B. Beach entertained the north-side circle of St. Paul church delightfully Wednesday afternoon. A program of music and readings of unusual excellence was a feature, and a two course luncheon was served. The following numbers were presented: Piano duet—"Silver Stars," Bohm; "The Palms," Faure; Misses Vera Upton and Lulu Crawford. Soprano solo—"So Blue Thine Eyes," H. K. Patrick; Miss Vera Upton. Reading—"The Peri," Mrs. Lois Cornell. Piano—Minuet, Paderewski; Miss Martha Einfeld. Soprano solo—"Since we parted," Allitt; "Under the Rose," Armissier, Miss Lulu Crawford. Reading—"The Goblins," Mrs. Cornell. Contralto solo—"My Laddie," Neidlinger; "Under the Rose," Armissier, Miss Flora Steiner.

The members of the circle will give a picnic in August on the lawn at the home of Mrs. Leighton, when the husbands will be guests.

At 2038 J street, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stout, on Wednesday evening Reverend F. L. Wharton, of St. Paul M. E. church, united in marriage Miss Marian Lorena Stout and Mr. Will J. Best. The wedding was a very simple but pretty affair. The couple, unattended, promptly at eight o'clock entered the room and took their places in a beautifully decorated bay window, where the ring service of the Methodist church was performed in the presence of a few near relatives and friends. The house was tastefully adorned with palms, ferns and cut flowers. The fair young bride wore an elegant gown of imported silk tissue, cut entrain, and carried a magnificent bouquet of bride roses. The couple received the usual number of handsome presents. After the ceremony dinner was served and Mr. and Mrs. Best left on a late train for the east. After July fifteenth they will be at home to their friends at Dunlap, Illinois. The bride is a charming and talented young lady who has not been a resident of Lincoln long, having come here last fall from Illinois. Since then she has been employed as a teacher in the Malcolm school. She has shown a great deal of ability as an elocutionist. Mr. Best is a prosperous young citizen of Dunlap, Illinois.

Miss Maude Macomber, a member of Delta Gamma sorority well known in Lincoln, and Mr. Frederick Cusaden, a member of Phi Kappa Psi, were married Thursday evening at eight o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Macomber, 2010 Emmet street, Omaha. Miss Gertrude Macomber and Mr. Arthur Pearse were the attendants. The house was daintily decorated with asparagus ferns and white daisies, and lighted by tall candles with green and white flower-like shades. The ceremony as performed beneath a canopy of greenery by Father John Williams of St. Barnabas church. The bride's gown was of white chiffon trimmed with silk applique. An informal reception followed the wedding. The following members of Delta Gamma went to Omaha early in the week to attend the pre-nuptial functions and be present at the marriage: Misses Blanche Garten, Helen Welch, Ruth Bryan, Winifred Sherman, Luella Lansing, Marie Weesner, Margaret Honeywell.

Chapter K of P. E. O., met Monday evening with Miss Baughman. The state corresponding secretary, Miss Youngstedt, of Wahoo, was present and made a few remarks. Miss Amber Barbaby gave an interesting report of the state convention, which was held last week in Geneva. Four new members, Mrs. Vadie Tingley, Misses Trigg, Leta Trigg and Olive Wallace, were initiated. This meeting closed the season's work and chapter K adjourned until fall.

The marriage of Miss Jessie Louise Lansing, daughter of Mr. J. F. Lansing of this city, to Mr. Curtis Thatcher, a prominent young business man of Lewiston, Idaho, occurred June twenty-fourth at the home of a former Lincoln friend of the bride in Lewiston.

Miss Ruth Phillippi of Omaha is the guest of Mrs. E. E. Brown.

Doctor and Mrs. Joseph Scroggs gave a small dinner Saturday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Robbins on June twentieth, a daughter.

Miss Youngstedt, of Wahoo, was the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Palm.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Levering have gone to Colorado to remain during the summer.

Mrs. C. M. Herrick and Miss Herrick will spend the summer in the vicinity of Chicago.

Mrs. C. L. Hooper and Miss Fanchon Hooper have gone to Nova Scotia for the summer.

Mrs. R. E. Moore left last week for Wequetonsing where she will spend the summer.

Mr. Harold Coulter of Canon City, Colorado, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. S. C. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Beeson of Omaha were over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson.

Mrs. D. A. Risser and Miss Risser have gone to the lake region of Michigan for the summer.

Former Governor Larrabee of Iowa, and Mrs. Larrabee, have been guests for two weeks of their daughter, Mrs. Dan L. Love and Mr. Love at their home on Eighteenth and E streets.

The members of the M. M. whist club will give a picnic July third on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Chapin, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Gibbs, who will soon remove from this city to Spokane.

Mrs. Ella K. Morrison, Miss Morrison and Miss Smith went to Omaha Wednesday to attend the marriage of Miss Bessie McMillan and Professor B. T. Beach of Shenandoah, Iowa. The bride is a niece of Mrs. Morrison and has been a student at the state university.

The Misses Beach entertained very pleasantly in an informal way Wednesday evening for Miss Norris and Miss Flint of Creston, Iowa, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jarrett. Literary and musical games were enjoyed and Mr. Benton Parnter entertained the company with feats at legerdemain. Refreshments were served.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Eastman, 1749 South street, Wednesday evening at nine o'clock, occurred the marriage of Miss May S. Baughman and Mr. Thomas L. Sutton, both of Griswold. Reverend N. A. Martin performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton will reside at 1130 Plum street.

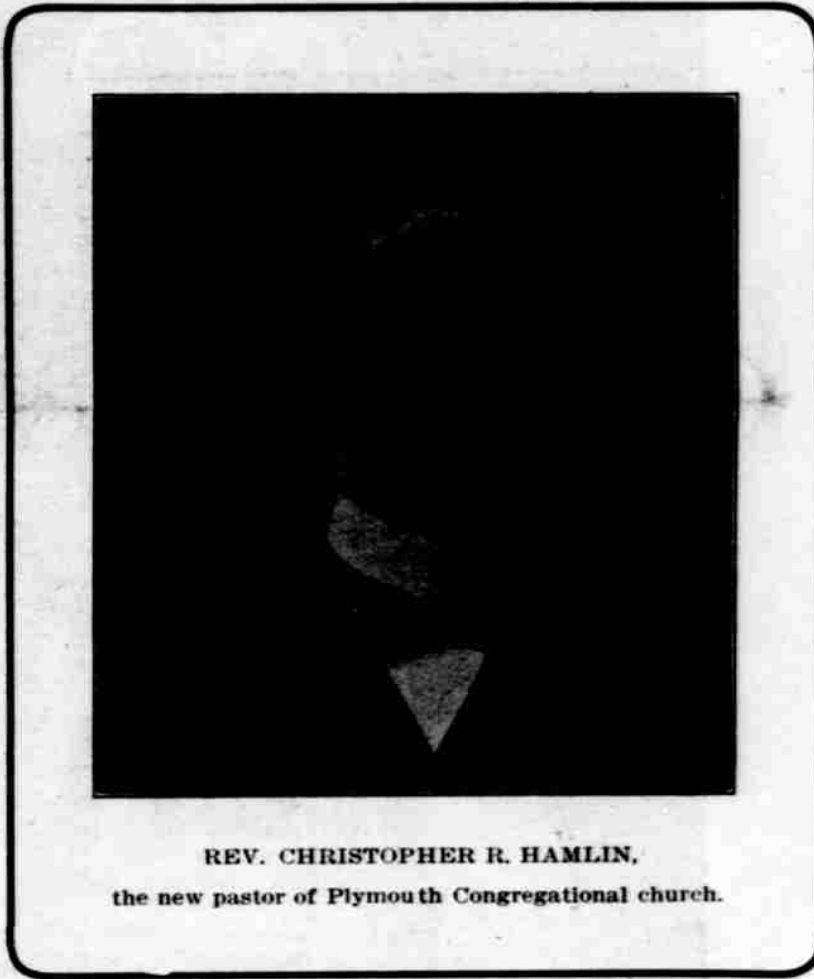

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wright gave an informal musicale Sunday evening for Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Beeson of Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Beeson will return to Lincoln next week to attend the pic-gratefully received, have made discordant notes in the decorations, for, being gifts, they must be used.

The marriage of Miss Della Jencks and Mr. John J. Carille of Deadwood, South Dakota, was celebrated Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jencks, in College View. Reverend O. T. Moore, of Talmage, performed the ceremony. A three course supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Carille will reside in Deadwood.

Old fashioned flowers are in favor for decorations at summer parties. Nasturtiums and sweet peas have been grown in every garden for several years, and have been popular in the drawing room; but others are now being used. At a party given this week by two Lincoln hostesses, a bouquet of larkspur, ragged robin and ninks called forth exclamations of delight and a large bowl of red clover was very effective.

Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Abbott, 826 H street, Miss Maud Barker of Kansas City, and Mr. B. E. Hill, of Lincoln, were married by Reverend J. Lewis Marsh. The bride wore a gown of white silk and carried bride roses. A few relatives, including the bride's mother, Mrs. A. J. Barker, of Kansas City, witnessed the ceremony. A sumptuous wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hill are already settled in their new home at 921 H street.

REV. CHRISTOPHER R. HAMLIN, the new pastor of Plymouth Congregational church.

Dean L. A. Sherman of the department of English in the state university, sailed for England on Wednesday.

Mrs. A. L. Hoover returned the first of the week from Hutchinson, Kansas, where she was the guest of friends for a fortnight.

Mrs. Stebbins, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Wilson, for several months, left on Wednesday for Detroit.

Miss Alice Hunter, president of the city union of the Christian society, attended the district convention, which was held in Omaha this week.

Mrs. Kinton and Miss Kinton of Stella, Nebraska, and Mr. Kinton of Chicago were in town this week to attend the Hiltner-Evans wedding.

Mrs. M. E. Van Brunt of this city, and Mrs. Winslow Van Brunt of Beatrice, returned yesterday from an extended visit in New York and New Jersey.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Morris gave a dinner to the following guests: Mrs. George Frink of Hannibal, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Guile.

nic to be given on the Fourth of July by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Funke, for Les Bohemiennes.

At the home of the bride's parents in University Place, Wednesday evening were married Miss Drenda F. McCartney and Mr. Lindley D. Bowman. The ceremony was performed by Reverend N. A. Martin, of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman will reside in Lincoln.

The engagement of Miss Edith Jackson and Mr. Paul Hoagland, both of Omaha, was announced this week. Miss Jackson was a student in the state university for several years, and is a popular member of the Delta Gamma sorority, admired both for beauty and intellect. Mr. Hoagland is well known to Lincoln young people.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stout, 2038 J street, were married on Wednesday evening, Miss Marion L. Stout and Mr. William J. Best, of Dunlap, Illinois.

Twenty relatives and intimate friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Reverend F. L. Wharton. A dinner was served after the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Best left on the night train for Dunlap, where they will reside.

It is a pretty fashion that Lincoln ladies have of sending flowers to a friend who is about to entertain, but it would be well before sending to know if she is planning to carry out any particular color scheme in her decorations. Sometimes these gifts, although

STAINED HANDS.
Are the sorrowful accompaniment to the BERRY SEASON
It is impossible to avoid soiling the hands when handling fruit protect the hands from stains, and keep them soft and white. They are soft, thin, flexible, and you can do anything with them on your hands that you can without them. Every pair fully guaranteed. Special price, $1 per pair.

NON-PA-REIL RUBBER GLOVES

For sale by Rector's Pharmacy N.W. Cor. 12th & N.

THE FRANKLIN Ice Cream and Dairy Co.

Manufacturers of the finest quality of Plain and Fancy ICE CREAM, ICES, FROZEN PUDDINGS, FRAPPE, and SHERBETS.

Prompt delivery and satisfaction guaranteed.

133 South 12th Street. Phone 205.

FURS O. STEELE
THE POPULAR FURRIER
DESIGNS AND MAKES

Fur Garments

FURS STORED DURING SUMMER

143 South 12th Street

NOT

How Cheap,
BUT How Good!

HAVE THE EVANS DO YOUR WASHING