

THOMAS COCHRANE AND HENRY COCHRANE WOODS.

These youngsters are twins, the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Woods. Next Friday, October 24th, they will celebrate their seventh birthday anniversary.

Les Bohemiennes will meet next Wednesday with Mrs. F. W. Brown.

Miss Edith Locke gave an informal ping pong party Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Walter B. Hargreaves and Mrs. McEwan have returned from Chicago.

Mrs. John B. Wright and her son John Charles are guests of relatives in Chicago.

Mrs. F. W. Hellwig and the Misses Aitken will give a fan tan party next Friday afternoon.

Mrs. John B. Horton gave a luncheon in compliment to Miss Cowdery on Wednesday. Covers were laid for eight.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Green entertained a few friends informally at whist Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Cowdery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Van Brunt and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton R. Lee will entertain the M. M. whist club this evening at the home of the former.

The alumnae members of Pi Beta Phi gave a tea this afternoon at the home of Miss Darleen Woodward, in honor of the active members and the pledges.

Professor and Mrs. T. Lyttleton Lyon have gone to New York to remain for some time. Mrs. Lyon's mother, Mrs. John R. Clark, now resides in New York.

Mrs. William Maxwell and children, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Oakley, left this week for their home in Tacoma, Washington. En route they will visit friends in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Mrs. Homer Honeywell gave a linen shower Wednesday afternoon for Miss Cowdery. The shower was a surprise to the bride-elect, who was the recipient of some exquisite pieces. A delicious luncheon was served.

During this fine autumn weather riding parties are quite the rage in towns where equestrianism is popular. There are scarcely enough accomplished equestrians in Lincoln to make this form of entertainment popular here.

Delta Delta Delta gave a tea at the chapter house Saturday afternoon, in honor of the mothers of the members. Both active and alumnae members were present, and the mothers showed their appreciation of the courtesy by their presence despite the rain. The house was decorated with pink roses, and a grate fire gave cheer and comfort.

Mrs. W. L. Crandall gave a six-hand euchre Wednesday afternoon. There were no prizes given but this fact did not in the least interfere with the pleasure of the guests. A two-course luncheon was served after the games. Sixty ladies were present.

Mrs. E. W. Baldwin and Mrs. Harry Warner entertained the E. E. D. Kensington Wednesday afternoon at the home of the former. Twenty ladies were present. The hostesses served a dainty luncheon. Mrs. B. Yoho will entertain the club next time.

The alumnae members of Delta Gamma entertained the active chapter Wednesday evening at the chapter house, in honor of Mrs. James McCroskey. Fifty young ladies were present. The evening was devoted to sociability and the daintiest of suppers was served.

Mrs. J. T. Wiesman and Mrs. J. B. Meyer entertained the Kensington of the First Baptist church at the home of the former Thursday afternoon. Miss Bessie Burruss sang for the guests and light refreshments were served.

On Tuesday evening Mr. Arthur Marsh, of Blair, and Mr. Thomas Dailey, of Lincoln, were initiated into Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. After the ceremonies a supper was served at the chapter house to active and alumni members.

The Unity club held a business meeting a fortnight ago and elected Mr. Chalm president, and Mrs. H. Schlesinger secretary-treasurer. On Wednesday evening of this week Mr. and Mrs. M. Friend entertained the club. Prizes were won by Mrs. Schlesinger and Mr. J. L. Herzog.

CLUB NOTES

THE WEEK'S REVIEW

The following report of the meeting of the Nebraska federation of women's clubs, which was held in Columbus last week, was written by Mrs. Milton Scott, who was a delegate from the Lincoln Woman's club:

ECHOES FROM THE CONVENTION.

The eighth annual convention of the state federation of women's clubs met at Columbus on Tuesday, October 7th, at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Draper Smith of Omaha state president, in the chair. The convention opened with prayer by Reverend Monroe, pastor of the Congregational church of Columbus. Mayor Dickinson welcomed the delegates, officially extending to them the freedom of the city. Mrs. Gerrard, president of the Columbus woman's club, extended welcome to the hearts and homes. Mrs. Chester Brink, of Ord, responded in a few well chosen words. Two musical numbers were given by the high school orchestra, the players all being young girls and boys, directed by a young lady of marked ability. The music was highly appreciated and enthusiastically encored. Mrs. Smith followed with the annual address, which she delivered with her usual ability and very pleasing personality, after which came the first social half hour of the convention. The corresponding secretary reported ninety-nine clubs in the federation, forty-three being represented. Mesdames F. M. Hall, H. M. Bushnell, E. P. Savage, W. A. Poynter, M. H. Everett, H. A. Babcock, W. E. Burlingim, Milton Scott, A. E. Davisson and Miss Annie Miller of Lincoln, represented their respective clubs. There was not time enough allowed to hear reports from all the clubs, which was a disappointment to many, as this feature is one of the most interesting and helpful to the convention. The Randolph club report received special mention. It is a new club, but has a constitution that predicts a long and profitable existence if only its tenets are well adhered to. This club pursues heroic treatment. If any member fails to perform an assigned duty a fine of one dollar is the penalty. The Omaha woman's club numbers fourteen departments, a nature department being a new feature. A Bible study department is in view in the near future. The Omaha and Council Bluffs railway club has seventy members, and studies civil service reform.

Mrs. Harriett MacMurphy, of Omaha, chairman of the household economics committee, presided over the Tuesday evening meeting. After a piano solo by Miss Lucy Haywood, and some preliminary reports, Governor Savage addressed the meeting. The governor said he had been asked to speak on forestry and had prepared what he thought would read quite well, but only a little while before the time fixed for the convention he was invited to forego the oratorical and flowery talk, and come down from the tree-tops to plain food topics. It was a great disappointment to him, but his faithful wife helped him out. However it sounded very much like the governor himself. While his topic, "Pure Food Laws," did not give him much room for oratorical display, he had enthusiasm, which often makes up for lack of display. Miss Bullock, secretary of the state library commission, gave a report of her year's work. It was a good report and to those who heard it, interesting, but unfortunately she did not speak loud enough for all to hear.

Miss Harriet Heller, of Omaha, made a plea for voluntary contributions for a colored teacher, Miss Vanderzee, teacher of colored children in the south.

Wednesday morning was devoted to art in the clubs. Mrs. F. M. Hall, chairman of the art division in the federation, had charge of the meeting. She gave a report of the year's work through the state, which proved that much interest and latent talent were being developed as the result of combined work. She was assisted by Mrs. Langworthy of Seward, Miss Butterfield and Mrs. Comfort of Omaha. Mrs. Langworthy Taylor had charge of the civic department. Besides her own able address, she was assisted by E. G. Routzahn, of Chicago, field secretary of the American league for civic improvement. Mrs. Nellie Richardson, in a few concise and effectual words, told what our city improvement society had done in the way of procuring ordinances and beautifying the streets. Her talk proved interesting and instructive. Mrs. Hinman, of Lincoln, was chairman of the educational session. Mrs. Hinman gave a very interesting address, and surprised her auditors by making herself heard, every word being clear and distinct. What a comfort it is to be able to hear every word a speaker utters whether it be good or bad. If a woman is physically unable to make herself heard after taking the trouble to prepare a paper, it certainly is her duty to get some good reader to read it for her.
