

UNCLE SAM'S GIFT TO CITY OF LINCOLN

From a pen drawing of the proposed government customs house and postoffice building, which will be erected in Lincoln at a cost of $300,000. The plans were prepared by Supervising Architect Taylor of the U. S. treasury department.