CLUB NOTES

THE WEEK'S REVIEW

Reverend F. S. Stein entertained the Round Table Monday evening.

The Century club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. M. H. Garten.

Mrs. Howard Burns entertained the Taka art club Wednesday afternoon.

The Athenea club met yesterday with Mrs. H. H. Harley. Mrs. A. R. Talbot talked of St. Petersburg.

Mr. J. L. Teeters entertained the Laymen's club Tuesday evening. Doctor P. L. Hall talked on "The Anthracite Coal Strike."

Chapter K of P. E. O. met Monday evening with Mrs. Jennie Hager. Mrs. Russell was the leader, with "Home Making as a Social Art" for her subject.

The Des Moines Woman's club is to have a new club house. The stock company plan of raising the money will be followed, and the shares will be fixed at twenty-five dollars each.

The Alexandra club, the only exclusively woman's club in Ireland, is in a flourishing condition. A third house will shortly be added to the two already occupied, the membership having so increased that the twenty-nine bedrooms which the club will soon have at its disposal are sorely needed.

The book club held its annual sale of books at the home of Mrs. C. G. Crittenden this morning. Each year this sale of books which have been read during the year occurs, the books going to the highest bidders, then the purchasing committee invests in a new supply for the use of the club the coming year.

The W. R. P. C. club met with Mrs. Cruikshank, 420 South Fourteenth street, on Wednesday. Roll-call was responded to by quotations from Edgar Allen Poe, and Mrs. Karges gave a biographical sketch of this poet. A biographical sketch of Lafayette was given by Mrs. Kempton, the history lesson was conducted by Mrs. Huzinger.

The meeting of the Woman's club Monday afternoon will be in charge of the art department. There will be an exhibit of pictures, baskets, pyrography, ceramics, wood carving, and so forth, all done by members of the club. Mrs. E. Lewis Baker will sing "Ella Stella Considente," by Robaudi, with flute obligato by Mr. Baker. Miss Josephine Poynter will recite "The Red Fan," with musical accompaniment.

Woman's rights before the law is a subject which has been widely discussed before the various clubs of late. A prominent attorney, speaking recently before the Irving Park Sorosis, among other things said: "You women have carried the day so far in everything you have attempted to do, and you can have anything you want in the way of legislation. You can have the ballot, too, if you want it and ask for it."

It has been decided by the International Council of Women for Christian and Patriotic Service that it will take action as a body in opposing the election of Reed Smoot, the senatorial nominee from Utah. The members of the International Council give it as their opinion that, whether personally Mr. Smoot is or is not a polygamist, the seating of any member of the Mormon Church in the United States senate would be inadvisable.

The Lotos club met on Thursday with Mrs. W. B. Ogden. Mrs. Ogden led in the discussion of the servant question. The discussion was a very interesting one and was participated in by nearly all who were present, but the ladies say that the servant problem is still an open question. Besides club members those present were Mrs. F. D. Levering, Miss Roundy, and Mrs. Thompson of California. The annual banquet of the club will be given February the eighth.

The home department of the Woman's club met Thursday afternoon. Miss Bouton talked on domestic science relating to the home. Cleanliness, order, economy, were the subdivisions of the subject. Miss Bouton spoke of the work being accomplished by the domestic science department at the university. The students of that department are giving instructions in the Central and Belmont schools and have under their instruction one hundred and fifty children. At the next meeting of the department Mrs. W. H. Bagnall will talk on "Adulteration of Foods."

Sorosis met with Mrs. A. R. Hill, Tuesday afternoon. The hostess was also the leader and gave a delightful exposition of "Scottish Music." A historical sketch was followed by the characteristics of Scottish music and song. Then Scottish psalmody and dance music were taken up. Gaelic music was spoken of as the music of the Highlands to distinguish it from that of the Lowlands. Instrumental illustrations of the characteristics were given by the leader, and vocal illustrations by Miss Wilson, who sang with expression, "Bonnie Deon," "Gala Water," "Farewell to Lochaber," "Wearin' Awa', Jean" and "The Flowers o' the Forest." The fact that the leader was Scotch added much to the interest of the program. Scotch short bread and tea were served in accordance with the national custom.

The executive board of the General Federation of Women's Clubs met last week in Washington for several days' session. Mrs. Dimie T. S. Denison presided, and all of the fifteen members of the board were present. The principal business consisted of arrangements for the next biennial convention, and the selection of the convention city. Invitations having come from St. Louis, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Chicago, and New York. It was decided that the biennial convention of 1904 should be held in New convention of 1904 should be held in St. Louis. Mrs. Anna D. West of Massachusetts was made chairman of the program committee for the next biennial, and Mrs. Noyes of Milwaukee, chairman of the biennial committee. The membership committee was appointed by the executive committee prior to the meeting and is as follows: Chairman, Mrs. Emma M. Van Vechten, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. Draper Smith, Oms-
