LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1902.

ESTABLISHED IN 1886

THROUGH THE CAMERA'S EYE

THE HAWTHORNE SOCIETY OF THE LINCOLN HIGH SCHOOL.

The Hawthorne society of the Lincoln high school was founded about seven years ago. During the first four years of its existence it was a literary society. Books were reviewed and programs given weekly, but now it is strictly a social organization. Numerous parties have been given at the homes of the members, where great amusement is always afforded. A business meeting is held every Monday in one of the high school rooms, where the following officers preside:

President, Alice Auld; vice-president, Silence Stewart; secretary, Jessie Mosher; treasurer, Georgia Field; sergeant-at-arms, Grace White.

Jolly times for the society are anticipated during the holidays. The active members of the society are: Hazel Vandenburg, Mary Minor, Mabel Williams, Madge Wilson, Edith Wilson, Grace Meeker, Louise Hoover, Claire Canom, Silence Stuart, Georgia Field, Alice Auld, Lila Le Gore, Grace White, Mabel States, Fanchon Hooper, Margery Watkins, Jessie Mosher, Mabel De Putron, Helen Laws, Lola Southwick, Margaret Byers, Fay Bonnell.

The Misses Gere, Lansing and Bridge are sponsors of the society.
